

Amendment To Personal Data Questionnaire 2022

Ralph K. Anderson III

Supreme Court, Justice, Seat 4

Originally Submitted on July 12, 2022

Question Number 47

I answered "No" to the following question: "Have you ever been a named party (personally or professionally) in or had a pecuniary interest in any civil or criminal proceedings?"

Supplemental Response to Question 47

I request to amend my PDQ 2022 application regarding question 47 by striking the previous answer and replacing it with the following answer:

I have been named as a party in the following cases in the past:

- (a) Lee Bruce v. Ralph King Anderson III

I was never served regarding this lawsuit and was unaware of its existence until informed by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission staff. Apparently, the case was dismissed on December 26, 1991. Moreover, I do not believe lawsuit even involved any actions on my part but rather related to an order issued by my father.

- (b) Notice of lien entered by the Wildewood Homeowners Association (Homeowners Association) in the Richland County Register of Deeds Office, Columbia, S.C.

This lien was levied upon my property as a result of an error by the Homeowners Association. Upon realizing the error, the Homeowners Association canceled lien in January 2005.

- (c) Ralph King Anderson III v. Blue Cross Blue Shield of South Carolina

This case was brought by me against the defendant in 1991 based upon its failure to pay an insurance claim. The case was settled and dismissed in 1992.

- (d) Janet LeVeque v. Ralph King Anderson III

This case, which was referenced above, involved a divorce proceeding in which my wife sought a divorce based upon one year separation. The case was finalized on February 19, 1998.

Finally, the following lawsuits (e through m) apparently derived from decisions I made as an ALJ regarding inmate litigation. If the lawsuits are filed involving the Administrative Law Court, the Clerk's Office simply sends the pleadings to the Attorney General's Office. The judges are not informed of these lawsuits. I was only made aware of the existence of the lawsuits by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission staff.

- (e) Isiah James Jr. v. Ralph Kind Anderson III
- (f) Muqit et al v. The Judges Who Issue Order in Case 16-1953
- (g) Jerry Lee Bruce v. Ralph King Anderson, Ferrell Cothran, Sharon Odam and Ray Chandler, Civil Docket #: 4.91-cv-03572-JFA

Kosko, Judge Henry M. Herlong, Jr., Judge William M Catoe, Judge G Ross Anderson, Jr., and Patricia S Conner, Civil Docket #: 0.04-cv-01584-TLW;
- (m) Curtis Dale Richardson v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, Governor Mark Sanford, SCDC Director Jon Ozmint, Warden Willie Eagleton, Warden Faulkenberry, David Tatarsky, Judge Ralph K Anderson, III, Chief Marvin F. Kittrell and Attorney General Henry McMaster, Civil Docket #: 4.06-cv-00453-RBH.

All of the cases were dismissed

Also, in two companion cases, Fred Gatewood v. The Honorable Ralph K. Anderson, III, and South Carolina Department of Corrections (Appellant Case No. 2018-000356) and Francis Ackerman, et al. v. The Honorable Ralph K. Anderson, III, and South Carolina Department of Corrections (Appellant Case No. 2018-000353), the Appellants filed Petition(s) for Original Jurisdiction and Writ of Mandamus in the South Carolina Supreme Court. Appellants asked the Supreme Court to exercise its original jurisdiction to issue Writs of Mandamus to the Administrative Law Court to reconsider their entitlement to costs, attorney's fees, pre-judgment interest, and post-judgement interest. The Supreme Court denied both Petitions for Original Jurisdiction and Writs of Mandamus by order dated April 19, 2018.
