Further, please provide a brief written description of your experience in civil matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the types of matters handled, issues involved, and procedural history. Please include information such as the primary areas in civil court in which you practice, whether you represent plaintiffs or defendants, or both. You may go back further than five years if you feel it would assist the Commission with its assessment of your experience. If you lack experience in an area, describe how your background has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Circuit Court Judge, or how you would compensate for your lack of experience in this area.

Criminal Matters

I worked for approximately eight and one-half years as an Assistant Solicitor for the Fifth Judicial Circuit. During my tenure I handled Preliminary hearings and trials in Magistrate, Family and General Sessions Court. I participated in the prosecution of all types of criminal cases. I handled cases involving Shoplifting, Driving Under the Influence, Arson, Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill, and Murder. I also appeared before the Grand Jury for Richland County. Further, I also appeared in Bond Court to set bonds on behalf of the State of South Carolina. Further, I served as a Team Leader in supervising new attorneys in preparing and litigating criminal cases as well as handling guilty pleas. In my final job assignment at the Solicitor's office I served as the first Plea Court Coordinator. I was responsible for ensuring that Judges had enough guilty pleas to process for the entire one-week term of court. I performed this job duty while also handling an active caseload.

Civil Matters

I currently appear in Common Pleas court to handle appeals of Workers' Compensation cases representing the South Carolina Second Injury Fund and Uninsured Employers' Fund. I believe my background has prepared me to handle civil matters. I have extensive General Sessions court experience. I understand the Rules of Evidence and the Rules of Civil Procedure. I will further prepare myself by studying the law by attending Continuing Legal Education programs, reviewing Advance Sheet rulings and other publications offered by the Bar. I will review the files prior to the court date to research the law and identify any evidentiary issues that may arise. Additionally, I will conduct pre-trial conferences to outline the issues.

Furthermore, I presided over cases on a weekly basis during my tenure as a Workers' Compensation Commissioner. While presiding over these cases I made evidentiary rulings, applied the facts of the case to the procedural and substantive law as well as judged the credibility of the witnesses. I believe these are all essential skills in civil court. Additionally, I served on a three person Appellate panel ruling on Orders from Single Commissioner hearings.

15. What is your rating, if any, by any legal rating organization, such as, Best Lawyers, Chambers, Legal 500, Martindale-Hubbell, Who's Who Legal, Super Lawyers, etc.? I have been sued in my professional capacity as an Assistant Solicitor for the Fifth Judicial Circuit by a defendant named Robert Jackson as a result of his criminal prosecution. The suit was dismissed.

I have also been sued in my professional capacity as a Commissioner with the SCWorkers' Compensation Commission. In 2001, the Full Commission voted to terminate the employment of each Commissioner's court reporter and 7-8 other employees due to a reduction-in-force, which became effective November 2, 2002. Six of the seven court reporters sued. The actions were entitled Kelli Lindler v. In the Lindler case the Court of Appeals affirmed the Circuit Court's finding that Ms. Lindler served at the pleasure of her Commissioner pursuant to § 42-3-60, and further that since she was an "at will" employee she could not use that State's grievance procedure to appeal her termination.

In the Morris, et al case, the Supreme Court reversed the Circuit Court's finding of Summary Judgment in favor of the Respondents, which reinstated the Respondents.

On or about September 19, 2008, I was personally served with a complaint entitled SC Community Bank v. Lisa C. Glover. This was an action regarding foreclosure. That action was dismissed, and I am currently in good standing with my lender.
