1. Why do you want to serve another term as a Circuit Court Judge?
My current term has been professionally and personally the most rewarding part of my legal career. I have presided over many trials and hearings throughout this great state, and have enjoyed and appreciated the hard work and challenges that come with the job.

2. Do you plan to serve your full term if re-elected?
Yes

3. Do you have any plans to return to private practice one day?
No

4. Have you met the Constitutional requirements for this position regarding age, residence, and years of practice?
Yes

5. What is your philosophy regarding ex parte communications?
Are there circumstances under which you could envision ex parte communications being tolerated? I follow the guidelines set out in Rule 501 Judicial Conduct Canon 3 (B) (7) (a)–(e) at all times.

6. What is your philosophy on recusal, especially in situations in which lawyer-legislators, former associates, or law partners are to appear before you?
I disqualify myself where my impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Thus in this regard, I disclose on the record the basis for the potential disqualification and ask the parties to consider, out of my presence, whether they would waive the disqualification. If not then I recuse myself.

7. If you disclosed something that had the appearance of bias, but you believed it would not actually prejudice your impartiality, what deference would you give a party that requested your recusal?
I disqualify myself where my impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Thus in this regard, after the disclosure on the record I ask the parties to consider, out of my presence, whether they would waive the disqualification. If not then I recuse myself.

8. How would you handle the appearance of impropriety because of the financial or social involvement of your spouse or a close relative?
I disqualify myself where my impartiality might reasonably be questioned. I disclose same on the record and ask the parties to consider, out of my presence, whether they would waive the disqualification. If not then I recuse myself. Furthermore, I would discourage family members and close relatives from engaging in dealings that would reasonably appear to exploit my judicial position so as to avoid same in future matters.

9. What standards have you set for yourself regarding the acceptance of gifts or social hospitality?

I follow the guidelines set out in Rule 501 Judicial Conduct Canon 4 (D) (5) (a)-(i).

10. How would you handle a situation in which you became aware of misconduct of a lawyer or of a fellow judge?

I would report same to the appropriate authorities.

11. Are you affiliated with any political parties, boards or commissions that, if you were re-elected, would need to be re-evaluated?

No

12. Do you have any business activities that you would envision remaining involved with if reelected to the bench?

No

13. How do you handle the drafting of orders?

I write most of my orders. However, on some occasions, I have lawyers prepare same. I review those orders and make revisions when necessary. I allow input from all the lawyers before finalizing the order.

14. What methods do you use to ensure that you and your staff meet deadlines?

I maintain 4 separate calendars which are as follows: my computer calendar, a paper calendar, and my administrative assistant and law clerk maintain my calendar as well.

15. What is your philosophy on "judicial activism," and what effect should judges have in setting or promoting public policy?

My philosophy is to remain neutral. I rule based on the law.

16. Canon 4 allows a judge to engage in activities to improve the law, legal system, and administration of justice. What activities do you plan to undertake to further this improvement of the legal system?

At this time, I have no plans other than to work very hard at my job. However if the SC CLE division were to ask me to participate in a CLE than I would assist so long as it does interfere with my duties as a Judge. Furthermore this past year, I served on the Civil Docket Task Force at the request of the Chief Justice. If asked to do something along that line again I would be more than willing to serve.

17. Do you feel that the pressure of serving as a judge strains personal relationships (i.e. spouse, children, friends, or relatives)? How do you address this?

No

18. The following list contains five categories of offenders that would perhaps regularly appear in your court. Discuss your philosophy on sentencing for these classes of offenders.

a. Repeat offenders: The sentences for these individuals are normally enhanced and/or tailored to fit the particular circumstance. For example a repeat shoplifter may have as the foundation for the offenses a drug problem whereby Drug Court may be the best solution. I explore all possible avenues of sentencing in order that the appropriate sentence may be ordered to stop the repeat offender from future violations of the law. I take into account the offense, societies' costs of incarceration, and the possibility of a rehabilitating sentence.

b. Juveniles (that have been waived to the circuit court): I treat them as adults. However if appropriate under the circumstances, I may fashion a sentence that might provide rehabilitation such as a youthful offender sentence with perhaps a recommendation of shock incarceration or Drug Court. My goal is to protect society and at the same time correct the illegal behavior of the juvenile offender.

c. White collar criminals: I place an emphasis on restitution to victims and fashion a sentence accordingly.

d. Defendants with a socially and/or economically disadvantaged background: I would emphasis and address their need for an attorney then proceed according to the laws of this state.

e. Elderly defendants or those with some infirmity: I would treat and sentence them in accordance to the laws of this state, while being sensitive to their age and any infirmities.

19. Are you involved in any active investments from which you derive additional income that might impair your appearance of impartiality?

No

20. Would you hear a case where you or a member of your family held a de minimis financial interest in a party involved?

A "de minimis" financial interest denotes an insignificant interest that could not raise a reasonable question as to the judge's impartiality. Even with this being said I disqualify myself where my impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Thus I disclose on the record the basis for the potential disqualification and ask the parties to consider, out of my presence, whether they would waive the disqualification. If not then I recuse myself. Afterwards, I assist the attorneys in setting the case for trial as soon as possible before a judge that does not have the potential conflict.

21. Do you belong to any organizations that discriminate based on race, religion, or gender?
No
22. Have you met the mandatory minimum hours requirement for continuing legal education courses?
Yes
23. What do you feel is the appropriate demeanor for a judge?
A judge that is calm, alert, attentive, patient, respectful, hard worker, and is also is a good listener.
24. Do the rules that you expressed in your previous answer apply only while you are on the bench or in chambers, or do these rules apply seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day?
These attributes apply all the time (24\7).
25. Do you feel that it is ever appropriate to be angry with a member of the public, especially with a criminal defendant? Is anger ever appropriate in dealing with attorneys or a pro se litigant?
No
26. How much money have you spent on your campaign? If it is over $100, has that amount been reported to the House and Senate Ethics Committees?
None
27. While campaigning for this office, have you used judicial letterhead or the services of your staff for your campaign?
No
28. Have you sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to this date?
No
29. Have you sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by any legislator pending the outcome of your screening?
No
30. Have you asked any third parties to contact members of the General Assembly on your behalf before the final and formal screening report has been released? Are you aware of any friends or colleagues contacting members of the General Assembly on your behalf?
No
31. Have you contacted any members of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission?
No

32. Are you familiar with the 48-hour rule, which prohibits a candidate from seeking pledges for 48 hours after the draft report has been submitted?

Yes

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THE ANSWERS TO THE ABOVE QUESTIONS ARE TRUE AND COMPLETE TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE.
