

Session 106 - (1985-1986)

H 3567 Joint Resolution, By T.W. Edwards and P.B. Harris

Similar (S 1166)

A Joint Resolution to provide for the handling of certain oil overcharge refund monies, including the imposition of duties and responsibilities upon the Joint Legislative Committee on Energy; to require that any state agency, board, commission, institution, or other entity funded from the General Fund of the State which receives a financial gain as a result of energy efficiency improvements undertaken as a result of the State's energy programs must be evaluated as to the actual annual dollar savings attained; to provide for the reporting of the cost savings; to provide for the deposit of oil overcharge funds in interest-bearing accounts and for the earmarking of interest earned; and to provide, among other things, that the State Auditor shall conduct an annual financial compliance audit and budget adequate funds to cover its cost.
