

Session 108 - (1989-1990)

H 4832 General Bill, By Fair, B.O. Baker, R.A. Barber, D. Blackwell, T.M. Burriss, K.S. Corbett, Cork, R.S. Corning, H.M. Hallman, Harrison, Haskins, B.L. Hendricks, M.F. Jaskwhich, R.O. Kay, Keegan, H.H. Keyserling, J.R. Klapman, Littlejohn, T.T. Mappus, J.G. Mattos, Quinn, E.W. Simpson, R. Smith, Vaughn, C.Y. Waites, C.C. Wells, L.S. Whipper, D.E. Winstead, S.S. Wofford and D.A. Wright

A Bill to prohibit person-to-person campaigning or lobbying for votes among members of the General Assembly in the Capitol Complex in Columbia by a candidate for an office elected by the General Assembly until after the required pre-election screening procedure on qualifications has been completed.

03/14/90 House Introduced and read first time HJ-6

03/14/90 House Referred to Committee on Judiciary HJ-6