Fiscal Year 2015-16 Accountability Report

SUBMISSION FORM

Agency Mission	The mission of the South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities is to serve the artistically talented high school students of South Carolina through programs of pre-professional instruction in an environment of artistic and academic excellence. The school is a resource for all teachers and students in South Carolina.
Agency Vision	The South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities will be a nationally recognized pre-professional arts school preparing students to be productive contributors in a diverse society through curricular and co-curricular experiences of artistic and academic excellence. We will be an environment that inspires students toward greater creativity, innovation, and commitment to artistic and intellectual growth.

Please state yes or no if the agency has any major or minor (internal or external) recommendations that would allow the agency to operate more effectively and efficiently.

AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities (SCGSAH) continued to uphold its mission and reputation for excellence in arts education, academics and statewide outreach during the 2015-2016 school year.

Evidence of academic success is apparent with a Palmetto Gold Award for the 14th consecutive year, SAT and ACT scores well above the state and national averages, and ranking among America's most challenging high schools in one national poll.

SCGSAH's reputation as a national leader in student arts achievement was recognized throughout the academic year.

- Creative Writing students won 62 Gold Keys, 13 Silver Keys and 22 Honorable Mentions at the Southeast Writing Region-At-Large Scholastic Art Awards Competition. They also received recognition for submitted bodies of work in the Writing Portfolio category with a total of 4 Gold Keys. Two students were chosen as YoungArts Finalists and invited to perform at the 35th annual National YoungArts Week in Miami.
- Dance seniors were recruited by more than 45 universities and seven dance companies across the United States. They were also offered scholarships to attend up to 20 reputable summer dance intensives. For the first time, a dance student received an honorable mention in the YoungArts competition.
- Drama seniors attended the Unified Theatre Auditions in Chicago, and all 14 students received offers from the nation's top conservatory and college theatre programs. One drama student was chosen as a finalist in the YoungArts competition and performed in Miami before a worldwide audience during National YoungArts Week.
- Music students competed in the Music Teachers National Association National Competition in Texas, and one was named the second place winner. Another music senior won first place in the High School Men's category of the 2016 National Student Auditions.
- Visual Arts students won 5 Gold Keys and 13 Silver Keys in the Southeast Scholastic Art & Writing Awards competition. Numerous students were also recognized for their achievement by the Annual Upstate High School Art Exhibition.

The academic and artistic achievements obtained by students are a direct result of SCGSAH's outstanding faculty, who are continuously receiving professional development and are active and productive members in their arts communities.

• Approximately thirty percent of our full-time faculty have earned distinction by achieving National Board Certification.

- Academic and Humanities Chair Dr. Jennifer Thomas attended the meeting of the SC Alliance for Arts Education and gave a presentation at the conference of the SC Consortium for Gifted Education. She also represented the school at the luncheon honoring the recipients of the Governor's Awards in the Humanities, and served on the Board of Governors of SC Academy of Authors. English teacher Mark-Sibley Jones gave a reading at a conference sponsored by the SC Humanities Council that honored writer Pat Conroy. All academic faculty remain active in their fields with nearly everyone in the department participating in state and regional workshops and conferences.
- Creative Writing chair Scott Gould had a collection of stories accepted for publication by Hub City Press and The Raleigh Review, and his short stories appeared in Eclectica Magazine. He was also a featured presenter at the S.C. Consortium for Gifted Education and at the SCAAE Annual Arts Integration Conference. Mamie Morgan was a guest artist at Furman University, and her poetry appeared in the magazine, Smartish Pace. Allan Rossi had a short story accepted for publication by Fiction magazine and a novella accepted for publication by the New England Review.
- Dance faculty member Miriam Mesa-Pelly was a guest teacher at the Coastal Dance Center in Myrtle Beach. Irina Ushankove received a certificate of professional development from the Perm State Ballet School in Russia. Ballet faculty Thomas Shoemaker worked with the Brevard Ballet Company to choreograph a new Nutcracker performance.
- Drama faculty members were immersed in Shakespeare during the 2015-16 school year. Daniel Murray taught acting and directed "The Tempest" at the Perry Mansfield Arts School in Steamboat Springs, CO. Candace Dickinson completed renowned voice teacher Patsy Rodenburg's "Shakespeare's Heightened Language" workshops at Michael Howard Acting Studios in NY. And Jayce Tromsness directed Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" at Case Western University.
- Visual Arts faculty were involved in a plethora of exhibitions locally and nationally. Paul Yanko was one of 25 artists selected for the 701 Center for Contemporary Art SC Biennial 2015. Elaine Quave received third place in the Artisphere Artists of the Upstate Exhibition. Benjamin Gilliam exhibited as a part of the Southern Highlands Craft Guild in Washington, D.C. Marty Epp-Carter was selected for a group show at the SE Center for Photography. David Gerhard was one 16 artists who exhibited in Shifting Plates II, at the Pickens County Museum of Art and History. Carlyn Tucker represented SCGSAH on the steering committee for the 2015 Society for Photographic Education Southeast Region. Joseph Thompson was commissioned to do an 8x20' sculpture relief for Crescent Communities in Bluffton, S.C. The entire faculty exhibited at the Vandiver Gallery of Anderson University in the SCGSAH Faculty Exchange Exhibition.

During the 2015-2016 year, numerous civic and corporate groups, including Artists U (SC Arts Commission) and Leadership SC, visited campus to learn about our school and utilize our exceptional facilities. A large number of prospective students, art classes from various schools, teachers seeking professional development, and interested individuals attended presentations, workshops, and performances on campus. Last year, the Governor's School hosted over 130 events, bringing arts programming to over 12,800 students and 18,000 total participants statewide.

As part of the Humanities curriculum, the students explore how they can benefit their community, both as an artist and a citizen. For the 2015-2016 academic year, the school's students reached 4,717 individuals through volunteer hours and community performances for a variety of nonprofit organizations and agencies.

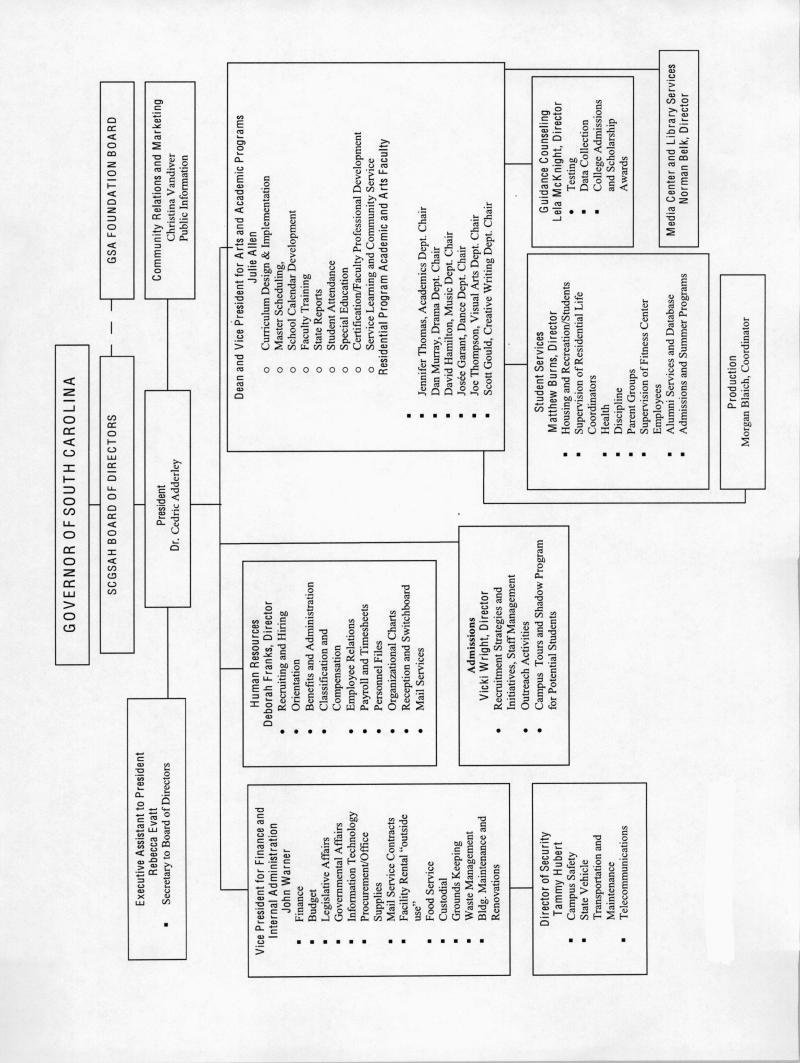

With a 100% graduation rate, the 2016 graduating class of 108 students was awarded more than $28 million in scholarship offers. Every graduating senior was admitted to enroll in a college, university, or professional dance program. These statistics and comments demonstrate SCGSAH's remarkable accomplishments.

This past year SCGSAH continued to increase alumni involvement with a summer reunion weekend and regional drop-ins. SCGSAH also held an event for the large number of alumni in the New York City area, which has historically been an important landing pad for graduates. Further, the school was able to utilize alumni expertise by offering several Summer Program teaching positions and program assistant positions to former graduates. To assist in alumni communications, the Alumni Office developed and implemented a new electronic alumni newsletter published on a quarterly basis. The Alumni Office continued to use additional direct electronic communications, such as Constant Contact, Facebook and Twitter to share news and reconnect with alumni.

During the 2015-2016 academic year, the Admissions department received a record 1,185 applications for residential and summer programs, while also increasing awareness and recognition of the school's programs.

SCGSAH continues to be innovative in both technology and pedagogy. This past year, live-streaming technology was implemented to increase accessibility to student performances and twelve classrooms were up fitted with new interactive SMART Board displays and SMART kapp™ boards that allow faculty and students to easily save whiteboard notes to their school-provided iPads.

There were ongoing facility changes as well this past summer. The Fluor Dance Studio was renovated to include state-of-the-art lighting and theatre curtains to serve as a new performance space seating up to 80 guests. And renovations continue for Drama Department facilities to expand dressing rooms and storage space for costumes and sets.
