Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Explanation of Amendment by the Senate Finance Committee on April 12, 2016

State Expenditure

The amendment to S. 944 amends Section 10-1-30 (relating to the State House grounds) to designate demonstration areas, create permit requirements for events, and allow for a permit safety review by the directors of the State Law Enforcement Division (SLED), Department of Public Safety, and Department of Administration. Also, the bill amends Section 10-11-330 to state that it shall be unlawful to be on the capital grounds and incite violence, threaten public safety, engage in disorderly and disruptive activities, and to remain on the premises after being told to disburse by authorized law enforcement personnel. Failure to disburse will result in a misdemeanor charge. Authorized law enforcement personnel shall have the authority to remove or disburse any persons at any time on the capital grounds if their presence would cause an imminent threat to public safety.

Department of Administration. The department indicates this bill will have no expenditure impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds.

Department of Public Safety. The department indicates this bill will have no expenditure impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds.
