The House assembled at 1:00 p.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Proverbs 2:6: “For the Lord gives wisdom; from His mouth comes knowledge and understanding.”

Let us pray. Mighty God, as we begin this week of budget debate, give wisdom, strength, integrity, and compassion to this Legislative Body. Guide them every step of the way, that what has been planned may be put into practice for this State. Encourage these Representatives to think through each section, to ensure all are served. Bless our Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, staff, and all who contribute to completing this task. May Your light shine upon them. Protect our defenders of freedom. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of those who have suffered and sacrificed for our freedom. Lord, hear our prayers. Amen.

I inadvertently voted on Section 33 and Section 36 of H. 5001. I wish the record to reflect that I meant to abstain from voting, because a potential conflict of interest may exist, in that an economic interest of mine may be affected.
