We recall how the Apostle Paul wrote:

“We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.” (Romans 8:26)

Let us pray:

Holy God, we ask You to continue to bless South Carolina and her people in wondrous ways. As You have guided our leaders in the past, hear us as we urge You to continue embracing all who serve You in this governmental complex: these Senators, the Representatives, the Constitutional Officers, all of the staff members. Especially, by Your grace, Lord, may everyone who is a part of the Senate of South Carolina be motivated at all times to serve with honor and wisdom and integrity, ever strengthening our State, and bringing You, O God, even greater glory. We pray this in Your loving name, dear Lord. Amen.

This report became final at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, January 26, 2015. Candidates may now solicit pledges of votes. Members of the General Assembly are now free to pledge votes to elect a candidate.

Relating to the election, Section 57-1-325 of the South Carolina Code of Laws stipulates:

Legislators residing in the congressional district shall meet upon written call of a majority of the members of the delegation of each district at a time and place to be designated in the call for the purpose of electing a commissioner to represent the district. A majority present, either in person or by written proxy, of the delegation from a given congressional district constitutes a quorum for the purpose of electing a district commissioner. No person may be elected commissioner who fails to receive a majority vote of the members of the delegation.

The delegation must be organized by the election of a chairman and a secretary, and the delegations of each congressional district shall adopt such rules as they consider proper to govern the election. Any absentee may vote by written proxy. When the election is completed, the chairman and the secretary of the delegation shall immediately transmit the name of the person elected to the Secretary of State who shall issue to the person, after he has taken the usual oath of office, a certificate of election as commissioner. The Governor shall then issue a commission to the person, and pending the issuance of the commission, the certificate of election is sufficient warrant to the person to perform all of the duties and functions of his office as commissioner. Each commissioner shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified.

Further, Section 57-1-330 stipulates that “[f]or the purposes of electing a commission member, a legislator shall vote only in the congressional district in which he resides.”
