A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

We read in I Kings that:

“God gave Solomon wisdom and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore.”

(I Kings 4:29)

Bow with me, please:

Most Blessed and Loving God, we give You thanks for the many servants who work hard to bring honor to You here in South Carolina. In this Statehouse and among the many agencies of State and local government throughout our 46 counties countless individuals labor in so many ways to help our people. We value the worthwhile contributions which they make. We especially give You praise, Lord, for the members of this Senate and for all of the staff members who together strive diligently to accomplish good. Grant them not only keen insight and clear wisdom, O God, but give them also the gifts of compassion, and of understanding. May it be so, Lord, in Your wondrous name. Amen.
