JOURNAL
OF THE
SENATE
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

REGULAR SESSION BEGINNING TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 2015

(Statewide Session)

The Senate assembled at 1:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

In the "Song of Moses" that we find in Exodus we read:

"The Lord is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation." (Exodus 15:2)

Let us join our hearts together in prayer, good friends:

O God of Hope and Mercy, we pray today that you fill the heart of each Senator and of every staff member with the strength they need to continue focusing upon the business of our State. South Carolina -- this Senate Body -- Mother Emanuel Church -- nine families -- have endured so much pain in recent days. Our losses wrench our hearts; our songs have become faint. Yet we pray, Lord, that you will grant each person in this Chamber the fortitude to continue moving forward, to work harder than ever to achieve good for our people and to accomplish worthy ends. Moreover, lead us all here in South Carolina as we seek to overcome violence with peace, intolerance with understanding, ignorance with knowledge and hastiness with right-action. In Your loving and hopeful name do we pray these things, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

ADDENDUM TO THE JOURNAL

The following remarks by Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal of June 16, 2015:

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you Mr. PRESIDENT and members of the Senate. Senator PEELER motivated me to do what I wanted to do at the end of the session, particularly when I hear that the Senate refused to debate the Roads Bill, and I want to call your attention to something that is dated April 28th. We had the opportunity to debate the Roads Bill and I just want to say this for the record, you all know, I don't get up here often and the longer I am here the less I get up because I have learned familiarity often breeds contempt. I really want say what's in my heart, and the truth of the matter is there was a vote on the Roads Bill that came out of Finance to be put on Special Order so roads could be debated. That does not mean you are for that version or against that version, and that vote failed -- that vote failed.

Senator PEELER, you know I love you and you are my friend; I call you quarterback. What is so disappointing to me is that was in April. We had time in the session to debate that Bill. The question was should we debate the Roads Bill putting it on Special Order, and as we all know doesn't mean that we are for one version or the other. It says let us put it in priority order so that we can have a debate on the Roads Bill, and Senator GROOMS, my good friend, he and I got into a little discussion about semantics and I apologized to him on that because I did not mean it to be personal, but it is ironic to me now that we are approaching July and we are talking about how dysfunctional the Senate is because we cannot get to a vote on the Roads Bill.

Now pull the roll call and you'll see the Senators who voted no. Do not paint all of us with the same brush when you talk about the Roads Bill. I'm not here to talk about ethics, I'm not here to talk about an income tax cut. I am here to talk about the Roads Bill because when my constituents stop me they do not ask me about ethics and an income tax cut. They want to know what happened to the Roads Bill. The truth of the matter is many of us, many of you, let me be honest, did not even want to debate the Roads Bill when we had time in this body to have a healthy and a consistent debate. We moved to change the order of the day to have a debate on the Roads Bill that would last one day about twelve days before the session ended. So when you want to talk, and I am not trying to be partisan, but the facts are the facts, when you want to talk about who did not vote to have a debate on the Roads Bill note how many democrats voted no. I think members of the media should take note of that -- when you are reporting on what happened in this "dysfunctional body" that is called the Senate. Go back to that original vote that was on Special Order. Senator LEATHERMAN got it out of the committee and we had a chance to debate it. We could have amended it, Senator DAVIS could have amended it however he wanted to, but you guys did not even want to vote. So when you call this body dysfunctional, clarify that. When it comes to the roads, personally I get offended when you paint me with the same brush that you paint others who refuse to even bring this up for a vote. Thank you.

ADDENDUM TO THE JOURNAL

The following remarks by Senator GROOMS were ordered printed in the Journal of June 18, 2015:

Remarks by Senator GROOMS

Mr. PRESIDENT and members of the body, we have seen evil. We have seen evil. It wasn't someplace across the vast ocean. It wasn't someplace a thousand miles from here. It was in our State, back in our community in Charleston. It has pierced our hearts, because evil claimed the life of someone who we've come to know and love, CLEMENTA PINCKNEY. Senator MALLOY said something a few years ago from the podium and I have never forgotten it, "We weren't elected to be each other's friends." And he's right. We weren't. We were elected to come here, to do the people's business, and to represent those that elected us. But in doing so, we do become friends. We may have differing ideas of where we ought to go. No, we may have differing ideas of how to get there. But we all have the same goal in mind: a better South Carolina for our children and our grandchildren. A brighter day for all of us. We all want that. Sometimes we get in here and we fight. We fight because we're confident that we know how to do it. But Senator PINCKNEY, he was one of us, and understood that the policy is more important than the rhetoric. He also understood how to look for areas of agreement. Let's look for things that we agree upon and let's move forward, instead of dwelling on what we don't agree upon. We develop a love for one another in this chamber. I don't think most folks back at home can appreciate what we do up here. When you're with a bunch of friends back home, if there is an area of disagreement you brush it to the side and go to another subject. But in here, we are forced to expose ourselves. We are forced to expose our deepest held beliefs and subject them to ridicule by the members of this body. Then the same afternoon we get back together and we discuss those issues that we believe will move the State forward. Senator PINCKNEY is someone that I loved. He was my colleague, he was my friend, and he was my brother in Christ. Many times I have heard him from this podium share a Bible verse that means a lot to me. In the wake of looking in the face of evil, it will test our State. It will test our community back in Charleston over how we move forward in the face of evil. The whole world will be watching how we handle and how we stare at the face of evil. I believe one of the verses Senator PINCKNEY shared from this podium several times will give us guidance. We find it in Micah, “He has shown thee O man what is good. And what does the Lord require of us? But to do justly and love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God.”

ADDENDUM TO THE JOURNAL

The following remarks by Senator LEATHERMAN were ordered printed in the Journal of June 18, 2015:

Remarks by Senator LEATHERMAN

It is with the heaviest of hearts I stand before you to remember and honor the life and legacy of Senator CLEMENTA PINCKNEY. I am shocked and dismayed by this tragic act of violence and I, along with all of you, mourn his loss. He served in this body with dignity, grace and his calming presence and stoic demeanor will be notably absent in this Senate Chamber. Senator PINCKNEY was a giant among us and he will be sorely missed. Our thoughts and prayers go to his wife, Jennifer, his daughters Eliana and Malana, and the rest of his family. I would be remiss if we did not also pause to remember the other victims of this tragedy. In closing, I ask God to bless Senator PINCKNEY’S family, the members of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church, and the State of South Carolina.

ADDENDUM TO THE JOURNAL

The following remarks by Senator TURNER were ordered printed in the Journal of June 18, 2015:

Remarks by Senator TURNER

I am trying to put into words my feelings about this senseless tragedy in Charleston and the killing of nine South Carolinians. One of those killed was my good friend, Senator CLEMENTA PINCKNEY, with whom I have shared an office over the past three years.

I will never forget meeting Clem for the first time. He walked into my office, welcomed me, and acted like he had known me forever. When I heard his deep voice, it had such authority and yet was backed by such a gentle spirit.

As he looked at my pictures, he noticed the one I have of the Buncombe Street UMC Senior High Boys basketball team I coached. The photo was of our team praying with our opponents before the game. On the wall in the picture was painted a large Methodist emblem. When Clem saw that, he boomed out with a smile, "You are Methodist too!" It was an instant friendship.

Clem always had the biggest presence of anyone in the room, but he also had the smallest ego. He was described in the Senate as a true "Southern Gentleman," which he was in every way. Between sharing our office and sitting next to him my first two years in the Senate Chamber, we had many discussions. We talked about our families, about how we both liked Allen Edmond shoes because they were great for big men like us, and about the issues facing our State. We knew we disagreed with each other on some issues before we would start the discussion, but it was never to try to convince the other of how to vote or how to think. It was truly just wanting to understand why we each thought the way we did.

On Wednesday afternoon around 3:30 P.M., we spent some time together in my office. We talked about family, and then he told me he loved the paintings I put in our lobby because they reminded him of his district and of home. We said our goodbyes as he left our office for a Finance Committee meeting before heading back to Charleston.

Just as most of you did, I woke up Thursday morning to the news of the shooting at the Mother Emmanuel AME Church in Charleston, and then I saw Clem's picture on the screen as the news anchor reported that he and eight others had been killed. My heart ached first for the personal loss of a friend, and then for all of the families affected.

I got ready and went to the office as soon as possible because I knew our assistant, Ja'vell, would be there and I needed to be there too. Thursday in the South Carolina Senate was as surreal a day as I have ever been a part of. The Senators walked into session together around 10:00 and had our own memorial service for Senator CLEMENTA PINCKNEY. We recessed until 2:00 and went back in to do business the way the Senator from Jasper County would have wanted us to do. We passed a supplemental Bill with all egos aside and I felt a sense of unity that I had not felt in my first three years. In addition, we passed a Resolution to commission a portrait of Senator PINCKNEY, to be hung in the Senate Chamber.

I believe the local Charleston leaders and the state leaders that have been involved since the beginning of this tragedy have shown the world that we are not a divided South Carolina. I am not yet able to reflect on the "political solutions" to how such evil can go unnoticed or corrected in our society, but it may be because the real solutions are not political at all. In the big picture, I don't believe this is a white vs. black issue, but I do believe it is good vs. evil, and we will find the solutions when "good" people, regardless of color, stand together for what is right.

I keep coming back to Romans 8:28, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." I know my friend Clem would tell me that something good will come of this, and I look forward to understanding what that is.

ADDENDUM TO THE JOURNAL

The following remarks by Senator LOURIE were ordered printed in the Journal of June 18, 2015:

Remarks by Senator LOURIE

Thank you Mr. PRESIDENT and I will be brief. I know that many of us will be going to the 12 o'clock service at Bethel. Just a couple of quick observations. I have had the pleasure of serving with Senator PINCKNEY since I was a freshman in the House. He had been there for years, and then he came over here a few years before me. Senator SCOTT, I appreciate your comments. You spoke to something I was going to talk about, but I don't mean to bust your bubble. Senator PINCKNEY had more than a fashion consultant, he had a committee. That included Senator JACKSON, myself, and perhaps others that I may not be mentioning. A few weeks ago we were sitting right here and we were debating, may have been the Capital Reserve Fund, I had made him aware of a website that Senator CAMPBELL had made me aware of, where you can buy suits at a very, very good price. As you know, I used to be in the retail business, so paying retail is something I just can't get my arms around. We looked at a certain suit and he'd flip to a page, and he would say, "What you do think about that?" I said, "No". A few minutes later, he flipped to another page and said "What do you think about that?" I said, "No." Finally, he stumbled across a Jack Victor suit. Senator CAMPBELL, you are a big Jack Victor fan. He pulled out his credit card and by the way, he was on his Ipad; he was not on a state computer. He pulled out his credit card and he bought that Jack Victor suit. Then we talked about getting a tailor and I asked him later if he had gotten his suit tailored and he said he hasn't had time. I'll never see that suit, that's ok. But I will always, always remember that voice, that spirit, that heart.

There is a book by a conservative Rabbi Harold Kushner called When Bad Things Happen to Good People. The Rabbi is coming to terms with the fate of one of his own children who is very sick. If you haven't read it, somebody gave it to me when my father passed away. Like Senator SHEHEEN said as we struggle to find meaning throughout all this -- I thought about this all night. Yesterday Senator SHEALY and I and some of you others, Senator KIMPSON was there, attended a luncheon by the Community Relations Council. There was a lot of conversation about race relations and I was thinking, Senator MATTHEWS, about all the good work that had been done in the 60's and 70's. Are we better today than we were back then? I'm still not sure I know the answer to that. But I know that we live today in still what I believe to be a very tumultuous, divisive community and that hurts me. Maybe the meaning that I draw from this is that God has chosen as Vincent said, the very best of us to teach the rest of us. May his memory live on forever.

ADDENDUM TO THE JOURNAL

The following remarks by Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal of June 18, 2015:

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you Mr. PRESIDENT, members of the Senate and those that are here today. It is a very difficult thing to get up and to do this, but I do want to pay tribute to my great friend and colleague. He and I shared a commonality that we are both colleagues in the state Senate and as well as in the ministry. Clementa, Senator PINCKNEY, was a student at Allen University, when my brother was the Dean of Students at Allen. One day my brother called me and said there is a phenomenal young man, who is the student body president, and I want you to come and just speak some words of encouragement to him because his goal is to get into politics, and I told him about you who was student body president, a minister, and was in politics. So we spent some time together, and I knew then that this guy was phenomenal. He was a gentle giant, never promoted himself -- never talked about himself. Never highlighted himself. If you wanted you to know his accomplishments somebody else had to tell you that Clem did something, and that is what made him so great. The last conversation we had, in-depth conversation, was Tuesday standing on the back wall and ironically enough we were talking about his family. He was talking about leaving a legacy for his family. Making sure that if anything ever happened to him, Tuesday, that his family would be well taken care of. This once again is the selflessness of Senator PINCKNEY. I'll leave you with these words. A friend of mine, a minister called me from across the country, this morning, he wanted to know, what can I tell my friends about the God we serve? Why would he allow this to happen? And my mind went to Proverbs 3:5, Solomon writes, "Trust in the Lord, lean not to thine own understanding, and in all thy ways acknowledge him, and he will direct your path." And I said to him and I say to this body that my motto with God is this, "Lord I still trust you even when I don't understand you." Rest in peace my brother.

whichever is less, of its annual contributions and revenue for a particular year to cover operational costs;

(c) allocates all of its funds used for grants on an annual basis to children who are exceptional needs students;

(d) does not provide grants solely for the benefit of one school, and if the Department determines that the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is providing grants to one particular school, the tax credit allowed by this proviso may be disallowed;

(e) does not have as a volunteer, contractor, consultant, fundraiser or member of its governing board any parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family who has a child or ward who is currently receiving or has received a scholarship grant authorized by this proviso from the organization within one year of the date the parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family became a board member;

(B)(1) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 6, Title 12, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11, Title 12 for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this proviso if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to exceptional needs children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this proviso; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(2) An individual is entitled to a refundable tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 6, Title 12, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11, Title 12 for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities, not exceeding ten thousand dollars per child, the individual contributes as tuition for exceptional needs children within their custody or care and enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this proviso. The cumulative maximum total for credits authorized by this subitem may not exceed four million dollars. However, if a child within the care and custody of an individual receives a tuition scholarship from a nonprofit scholarship funding organization, then the individual may only claim a credit equal to the difference of ten thousand dollars or the cost of tuition, whichever is lower, and the amount of the scholarship.

(C) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization in an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students with exceptional needs to attend an independent school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization must receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the qualifying student is an exceptional needs child. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization must issue a check to the eligible school in the name of the qualifying student. In the event that the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school must return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(D)(1)(a) The tax credits authorized by subsection (B) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twelve million dollars for contributions made on behalf of exceptional needs students. If the department determines that the total of such credits claimed by all taxpayers exceeds either limit amount, it shall allow credits only up to those amounts on a first come, first served basis.

(b) The department shall establish an application process to determine the amount of credit available to be claimed. The receipt of the application by the department shall determine priority for the credit. Subject to the provisions of item (5), contributions must be made on or before June 30, 2016, in order to claim the credit. The credit must be claimed on the return for the tax year that the contribution is made.

(2) A taxpayer may not claim more than sixty percent of their total tax liability for the year in contribution toward the tax credit authorized by subsection (B)(1). This credit is not refundable.

(3) If a taxpayer deducts the amount of the contribution on the taxpayer's federal return and claims the credit allowed by this proviso, then the taxpayer must add back the amount of the deduction for purposes of South Carolina income taxes.

(4) The department shall prescribe the form and manner of proof required to obtain the credit authorized by subsection (B). Also, the department shall develop a method of informing taxpayers if the credit limit is met at any time during Fiscal Year 2015-16.

(5) A person only may claim a credit pursuant to subsection (B) for contributions made between July 1, 2015, and June 30, 2016.

(E) A corporation or entity entitled to a credit under subsection (B) may not convey, assign, or transfer the credit authorized by this proviso to another entity unless all of the assets of the entity are conveyed, assigned, or transferred in the same transaction.

(F) Except as otherwise provided, neither the Department of Education, the Department of Revenue, nor any other state agency may regulate the educational program of an independent school that accepts students receiving scholarship grants pursuant to this proviso.

(G)(1) By August 1, 2015, each independent school must apply to the Education Oversight Committee to be considered an eligible institution for which it may receive contributions from a nonprofit scholarship funding organization for which the tax credit allowed by this proviso is allowed. The Education Oversight Committee, as established in Chapter 6, Title 59, is responsible for determining if an eligible school meets the criteria established by subsection (A)(1), and shall publish an approved list of such schools meeting the criteria. If an independent school does not apply to be an eligible school, the independent school may not be published as an approved school, and contributions to that school shall not be allowed for purposes of the credit allowed by this proviso. The Education Oversight Committee must publish the approved list of schools on its website by September first of each year, and the list must include their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and, if available, website addresses. Also, the score reports and audits received by the Education Oversight Committee pursuant to items (2)(b) and (c) must be published with the list. The Education Oversight Committee shall summarize or redact the score reports if necessary to prevent the disclosure of personally identifiable information. For this purpose, it also shall promulgate regulations further enumerating the specifics of this criteria. In performing this function, the Education Oversight Committee shall establish an advisory committee made up of not more than nine members, including parents, and representatives of independent schools and independent school associations. The advisory committee shall provide recommendations to the Education Oversight Committee on the content of these regulations and any other matters requested by the Education Oversight Committee.

(2) An independent school's application for consideration as an eligible institution must contain:

(a) the number and total amount of grants received from each nonprofit scholarship funding organization in the preceding fiscal year;

(b) Student test scores, by category, on national achievement or state standardized tests, or both, for all grades tested and administered by the school receiving or entitled to receive scholarship grants pursuant to this proviso in the previous fiscal year;

(c) a copy of a compilation, review, or compliance audit of the organization's financial statements, conducted by a certified public accounting firm; and

(d) a certification by the independent school that it meets the definition of an eligible school as that term is defined in subsection (A)(1) and that the report is true, accurate, and complete under penalty of perjury in accordance with Section 16-9-10.

(3) Any independent school not determined to be an eligible school pursuant to the provisions of this proviso may seek review by filing a request for a contested case hearing with the Administrative Law Court in accordance with the court's rules of procedure.

(4) The Education Oversight Committee, after consultation with its nine-member advisory committee, may exempt an independent school having students with exceptional needs who receive scholarship grants pursuant to this proviso from the curriculum requirements of subsection (A)(1)(d).

(H)(1) By August first of each year, each nonprofit scholarship funding organization must apply to the department to be considered an eligible organization for which its contributors are allowed the tax credit allowed by this proviso. If a nonprofit scholarship funding organization does not apply, the organization may not be published as an approved organization, and contributions to that organization shall not be allowed for purposes of the credit allowed by this proviso. A nonprofit scholarship funding organization's application must contain:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools in the preceding fiscal year;

(b) for each grant issued to an eligible school in the preceding fiscal year, the identity of the school and the amount of the grant;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of any fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of any eligible schools;

(d) a copy of the organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of the organization's financial statements, conducted by a certified public accounting firm;

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards; and

(g) a certification by the organization that it meets the definition of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization as that term is defined in subsection (A)(4) and that the report is true, accurate, and complete under penalty of perjury in accordance with Section 16-9-10.

(2) By receiving the application materials and approving the organization as an eligible organization pursuant to item (1), the department is not determining that the organization meets all of the requirements of a qualified nonprofit scholarship funding organization and the organization remains subject to examination as provided for pursuant to subsection (I).

(3) The department has authority to disclose the names of qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations to the Education Oversight Committee. The department also may disclose to the Education Oversight Committee the names of organizations that applied but were not qualified by the department and those organizations whose eligibility has been revoked in accordance with subsection (I)(2), as well as the reason the application of the organization was not accepted or the reason its qualification was revoked.

(4) By September first of each year, the Education Oversight Committee must publish on its website a list of all qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations, provided by the department, to include their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and, if available, website addresses. Also, the results of the audit required by item (1)(e) must be published with the list.

(I)(1) The department has authority to oversee, audit, and examine the nonprofit scholarship funding organizations, including determining whether the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is in compliance with any other provision of this proviso.

(2)(a) If at any time during the year, the department has evidence, through audit or otherwise, that a nonprofit scholarship funding organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with any other provision of this proviso, the department may immediately revoke the organization's participation in the program and must notify the organization and the Education Oversight Committee in writing of the revocation.

(b) Notice of Revocation may be provided to the organization by personal delivery to the organization, by first class mail to the last known address of the organization, or by other means reasonably designed to provide notice to the organization.

(c) Any donations made following the date the notice of revocation is received by the organization or in the case of delivery by mail ten days after the notice of revocation was mailed, will not qualify for the credit and the donated funds must be returned to the donor by the organization. This proviso shall not limit the department's authority to deny any tax credit or other benefit provided by this proviso if the circumstances warrant.

(d)(i) Within thirty days after the day on which the organization is notified of the revocation, the organization may request a contested hearing before the Administrative Law Court. Within thirty days after a request for a contested case hearing is received by the Administrative Law Court, an administrative law judge shall hold the contested case hearing and determine whether the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The department has the burden of proof of showing that the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The revocation is “reasonable” if the department has some credible evidence to believe that the organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with any other provision of this proviso. The decision made by the administrative law judge is final and conclusive and may not be reviewed by any court. If the organization does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the immediate revocation, the revocation shall become permanent.

(ii) If the administrative law judge determines that the revocation was reasonable, the administrative law judge shall remand the case to the department to issue a department determination for permanent revocation within the time period determined by the judge. The organization may appeal this department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-460. At the contested case hearing on the department determination, the parties can raise new issues and arguments in addition to those issues and arguments previously presented at the revocation hearing.

(iii) If the administrative law judge determines that immediate revocation is not reasonable, the revocation shall be lifted and the organization may resume accepting donations and award scholarships hereunder. The department may still issue a department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-450(E)(2).

(iv) If at any time during the process, the department believes the organization is in compliance, the department, in its sole discretion, may reinstate the organization and notify the Education Oversight Committee.

(v) Following the permanent revocation of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization, the Education Oversight Committee has the authority to oversee the transfer of donated funds of the revoked organization to other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations.

(J) A nonprofit scholarship funding organization may transfer funds to another nonprofit scholarship funding organization, especially in the event that the organization cannot distribute the funds in a timely manner or if the organization ceases to exist. None of the funds that are transferred by one nonprofit scholarship funding organization to another may be considered by the former organization when calculating its administrative expenses.

SECTION 2. Funds appropriated above in Section 1, Item (39) to the Department of Transportation shall be used to fund the Orangeburg District Office Building Renovation, Clarendon County Maintenance Complex Construction, SHEP Greenville/Spartanburg Office Construction, and Lexington Maintenance Complex Construction.

SECTION 3. Of the funds appropriated above in Section 1 to institutions of higher learning entitled "Maintenance: Critical Care and Repair (1:1 Match)", each institution shall use the amount appropriated only for critical repair and related maintenance and/or other critical equipment and systems repair and maintenance that are necessary for the safe and efficient operation of an institution's physical plant in its support of the institution's educational purpose.

Funds must not be used for new construction and may only be utilized by an institution to the extent the funds are matched by the institution for necessary repair and maintenance projects generally.

Matching funds exclude supplemental, capital reserve, lottery, or non-recurring state funds appropriated to an institution either in the current fiscal year or from a prior fiscal year for repair and maintenance or maintenance projects.

Prior to the utilization of these funds, institutions must certify to the Commission on Higher Education, in a manner it prescribes, the extent to which they have met this requirement, including the sources of funds utilized to meet this requirement.

Not later than 120 days after the close of the fiscal year, the Commission on Higher Education shall report to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee regarding the utilization of this provision.

Funds not expended in the prior fiscal year may be carried forward into the current fiscal year and utilized for the same purpose, subject to the same matching requirement.

SECTION 4. Of the items contained within this joint resolution, any item funded in the total amount of $1 shall lapse to the general fund on the effective date of this act.

SECTION 5. Comptroller General shall post the appropriations contained in this joint resolution as provided in Section 11-11-320(D) of the 1976 Code. Unexpended funds appropriated pursuant to this joint resolution may be carried forward to succeeding fiscal years and expended for the same purposes.
