Dear Mr. Hayden:

On behalf of Governor Sanford, we write in response to your letter of October 22, 2009 requesting information regarding Governor Sanford's use of state-owned aircraft. Specifically, you have asked for information related to fifty-three (53) separate flights that occurred between April 5, 2003 and June 4, 2009.

Please find the information you requested regarding each individual flight in the enclosed chart. This chart provides the date, passengers, and descriptions of the official business connected to each flight in question, all of which confirms the legitimacy and legality of these flights. In addition, enclosed please find a CD with electronic copies of fifty-seven (57) exhibits containing documentation, such as invitations and news articles, confirming the official nature of these flights and the related events.

In support of our response and to assist your investigation, below please find our discussion of the applicable statute of limitations and the definition of "official business" as it relates to the use of state-owned aircraft.

Statute of Limitations Defense

As a threshold matter, the applicable statute of limitations found in S.C. Code § 8-13-320(9)(d) prohibits action from being taken by the Ethics Commission regarding any flights that occurred prior to August 18, 2005. Therefore, the Commission is barred from taking any action on any of the twenty-five (25) flights listed in the enclosed chart that occurred from April 5, 2003 to July 8, 2005, and we specifically object to the Commission taking any action with regard to any of the flights that occurred prior to August 18, 2005 on these grounds. Nevertheless, without waiving our objection and our right to assert a statute of limitations defense, and in the spirit of cooperation with your investigation, we have included information regarding these flights on the enclosed chart.

Definition of "Official Business"

In addition, set forth below are the legal principles involved in determining whether state aircraft was used for "official business." In your letter, you point out that the proviso in the annual appropriations act limits the use of state aircraft to only "official business," but that term has not been defined by the proviso, statutes, or the courts.¹ The South Carolina Attorney General's Office, however, has addressed the meaning of "official business" for the purpose of using state aircraft under the appropriations act proviso in two separate opinions. Accordingly, as the sole legal authority on this precise issue, the Ethics Commission should apply the guidance from these two Attorney General opinions in analyzing whether Governor Sanford's use of state aircraft was for official business. See Price v. Watt, 280 S.C. 510, 514, 313 S.E.2d 58, 60 fn. 1 (Ct.App. 1984) (stating that Attorney General's opinion "should not be disregarded without cogent reason").

The Attorney General's Office most thoroughly considered the meaning of "official business" in a May 19, 1988 opinion letter to Rep. Jarvis Klapman, who requested an interpretation of what constitutes "official business" in the context of the state aircraft proviso. The Attorney General opinion "offer[ed] a 'rule of thumb' to officials of state government using state aircraft for official business." The Attorney General "rule" provides that "for an activity or use of an official to be official, such activity or use must be done in his official capacity, under color of office. . . . Any activity which a state official is invited or required to do that would not occur but for the public office or position he holds could thus be considered 'official business' for the purposes of using state aircraft." 1988 WL 485301 at *3 (emphasis added). Thus, under this standard the governor may use the state aircraft for transportation to or from any event that he attends in his official capacity, except as otherwise prohibited by law. Accordingly, in determining whether Governor Sanford's travel at issue was for "official business," the Ethics Commission should consider whether Governor Sanford would not have used the state aircraft but for his position as governor. If the answer to this question is "yes," then the use of state aircraft was for official business and therefore appropriate as a matter of law.

In an August 31, 1984 opinion letter to James A. Timmerman, then director of the South Carolina Wildlife and Marine Resources Commission (which is the predecessor of the current Department of Natural Resources), the Attorney General's Office addressed several questions regarding the WMRC's use of state aircraft under the proviso. The final question answered by the Attorney General's Office was whether a prohibition in the proviso against travel to and from meetings of the General Assembly or committee meetings would preclude air transportation of the WMRC commissioners to WMRC meetings. The Attorney General's Office concluded that only legislative meetings were intended to be prohibited and that all other state officials could use state aircraft to travel to and from official meetings. This opinion permitted the WMRC to fly its aircraft from Columbia with no passengers to pick up WMRC commissioners at their residence or other location, bring them to Columbia for official business, return them to their residence or other location, and return the aircraft to Columbia with no passengers.

¹ By way of clarification, we would point out that the proviso has actually been in effect at least since FY 1983, not FY 2003 as indicated in your letter.

This is significant to the inquiry into Governor Sanford's flights because several media outlets have questioned the practice of flying the state aircraft without passengers to a location to provide Governor Sanford with transportation either to or from an official event. For example, one news story focused on the state aircraft flying empty to pick up the governor and his family from Thanksgiving vacation near Savannah, GA and returning them to Columbia to participate in the annual Governor's Carolighting ceremony on the Statehouse grounds. The Attorney General's August 31, 1984 opinion clearly permits this type of transportation as long as it is provided either to or from an official event. Further, it has been a common practice for many other state officials, including General Assembly members, to have the state aircraft fly empty to pick them up from a location other than Columbia and transport them to or from an official event.²

There also appears to be confusion over the issue of whether the state aircraft can be used for "political" events. Media reports and hand-written notes on the flight materials provided by the Ethics Commission suggest that the state aircraft cannot be used for "political" events. This argument fails to recognize that the very nature of the office of Governor means that the official business of the officeholder often unavoidably involves a "political" element. Black's Law Dictionary defines "political" to mean the following:

Pertaining or relating to the policy of the administration of government, state or national. Pertaining to, or incidental to, the exercise of functions vested in those charged with the conduct of government; relating to the management of the affairs of the state, as political theories; of or pertaining to exercise of rights and privileges or the influence by which individuals of a state seek to determine or control is public policy; having to do with organization or action of individuals, parties, or interests that seek to control appointment to action of those who manage affairs of a state.

Black's Law Dictionary, 1158, 6th Edition, 1991. Given the broad meaning of the word "political," nearly everything the governor does could be characterized as political since his job directly relates to the administration of government and pertains to organizing individuals to advance his policy agenda. This does not mean, however, that state aircraft cannot be used to travel to such an event as long as the purpose of the trip was for official business. For example, when the governor holds a press conference to bring public attention and pressure to bear on a particular public policy matter in support of his agenda, the event is clearly an official function of his office, even though it may contain both political and official elements. Similarly, if the governor attempts to advance his policy and legislative agenda by speaking to a smaller but more politically active group of individuals, such as a political party or issue-advocacy organization, he does so as part of the business of his office and the event remains official regardless of the political audience and purpose.

² We have provided several flight logs and passenger manifests in the materials accompanying the enclosed chart showing where other state officials used state aircraft in this manner.

Accordingly, in determining whether the use of state aircraft to and from events that appear political in nature is unlawful, the Ethics Commission must examine whether the use was for official business. As explained above, this test is based on whether Governor Sanford would not have used the state aircraft to attend a particular event but for his efforts to conduct the business of his office in his position as governor. As the attached chart and the accompanying materials demonstrate, the flights at issue were for official business and were therefore appropriate and legally permissible.³

Please let us know if you need any additional information regarding these matters. We reserve the right to supplement this information if it should become necessary. In addition, please confirm that the entirety of the explanatory information contained in this letter and the enclosed chart and materials will be included in the Commission's investigatory report and its preliminary report that will be provided to the Commission members for use in their probable cause determination.

Yours very truly,

³ During his campaign for re-election in 2006, Governor Sanford flew to several political events to campaign for his re-election and to support other candidates. However, as explained in correspondence and records we previously supplied to the Commission, he did so in each instance not at taxpayer expense but rather by flying on private aircraft, and he reported these flights on his campaign disclosure reports. The fact that the governor recognized that he must use private aircraft for campaign purposes and report the use of such aircraft on his campaign reports indicates that he was cognizant of the prohibition on using public resources to influence the outcome of an election and that he did not use state aircraft for this purpose.

9/22/05 flight from Columbia, SC (Metro) to Charleston, SC (AFB/MUN) to Daniel Field, GA	Gov. Sanford A. Smith	Gov. Sanford and staffer traveled on the state plane to host a budget hearing in Charleston. The state plane then took them to N. Augusta to attend a N. Augusta Chamber Business Expo and Job Fair and host Neighborhood Office Hours. In the evening the Governor attended his son's football game, which was incidental to the official business purpose of the trip. But for the chamber and office hours events, the Governor would not have taken the state plane to N. Augusta. Gov. Sanford was required or invited to attend these events in his official capacity as governor. 1/28/06 flight from Columbia, SC (Metro) to Myrtle Beach AFB, SC to N. Myrtle Beach to Columbia.	Gov. Sanford J. Martin No passengers Gov. Sanford J. Martin	Gov. Sanford traveled on the state plane to attend the Horry County GOP breakfast in his capacity as governor to discuss official business, including legislation, Medicare, Medicaid, and property taxes. Following the breakfast, the governor met with local legislators and public officials to discuss official business relating to economic development and the expansion of the Myrtle Beach airport. The state plane picked up the Governor in N. Myrtle Beach where he spoke at the Grand Opening of the N. Myrtle Beach Aquatic & Fitness Center at the invitation of the City of N. Myrtle Beach. Governor Sanford's message was consistent with his administration's focus on encouraging South Carolinians to adopt healthy lifestyles. Also, while at the Grand Opening, Governor Sanford spoke to a newspaper reporter regarding the official business of expanding the Myrtle Beach airport. The Governor was invited to attend these events in his official capacity as governor. Sanford traveled on the state plane to Myrtle Beach with Rep. Alan Clemmons for the official business of signing House Bill 3221, which related to prescription drug plan for senior citizens. The Governor and staffer then flew to Hilton Head to participate in a taping of a news interview program ("Talk of the Town") on local TV station, WHHI. The Governor was invited on the program to discuss official business related to his agenda, legislation, and issues relating to taxation and infrastructure. After the taping, the Governor attended the Beaufort County GOP Convention upon the invitation of the Beaufort County GOP where he met with State Ports Authority Board member Doug Robertson and spoke to an estimated 300 attendees, including news media, regarding his agenda. Gov. Sanford's attendance at the GOP was not intended to influence the outcome of an election. The Governor was required to attend this event in his official capacity as governor. Sanford participated in an in-studio radio interview at WRNN to discuss official business relating to the state budget. Second, Gov. Sanford met with N. Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce President Ed Prince and a local developer to discuss official business related to economic development and beach renourishment. Third, Gov. Sanford gave the keynote speech to Myrtle Beach Rotary Club on current affairs related to state government. Despite erroneous media reports that the Governor returned to Columbia via state aircraft for the purpose of making a haircut appointment, the Governor did not return for this reason and did not even have an appointment. Rather, he decided to get a haircut immediately before returning to Columbia, and it was simply placed on his calendar. Gov. Sanford's haircut was incidental to the official business purpose of his travel, and the media's implication that he summoned the state plane to Myrtle Beach so that he could make a haircut appointment is absurd.
4/29/06 flight from Columbia, SC to Greenville-Spartanburg	K. Dietrich	State aircraft flew to Greenville-Spartanburg to pick Gov. Sanford up after he spent the prior day touring Western and Upstate South Carolina on official business discussing the state budget and other legislative issues. (See Attachment 34, public schedule for April 28, 2006.) At the end of the day, the Governor could have returned to Columbia via state aircraft but decided to spend the night and attend his son's soccer match in Greenville on the morning of 4/29/06. But for the official events that he attended on 4/28/06, the Governor would not have taken the state plane to Greenville to attend the soccer match. Additionally, the Governor was scheduled to fly on the state plane on 4/29/06 to go to Charleston (see	See attached 4/28/06 public schedule and media advisory for business groundbreaking in Aiken. 5/3/06 flight from Charleston, SC (AFB/MUN) to Columbia	Gov. Sanford	After signing charter school legislation in Columbia, Gov. Sanford flew on official business to Charleston to tour Orange Grove Elementary, which was to convert to a charter school on July 1, 2006. While there, Gov. Sanford spoke to school administrators, students, and the media regarding the new legislation in his capacity as governor. After visiting the school, the governor went to a Charleston television studio to be interviewed on a local cable news show. The interview pertained to official business relating the budget, charter school legislation, spending caps, and Medicaid. While in Charleston on official business, Gov. Sanford attended his son's tennis match. But for the official business of touring the school and taping the interview, which he performed in his official capacity as governor, the Governor would not have taken the state plane to Charleston to attend his son's tennis match. Sanford and the First Lady were invited by the SC GOP to represent the state of South Carolina in their official capacities in this nationally televised event. A majority of Gov. Sanford's time prior to the debate was spent taping interviews for national and local television programming. These interviews dealt with national issues affecting South Carolina. Importantly, Gov. Sanford had not endorsed any candidate for president at that time, and his presence at the debate was not intended to influence the outcome of an election. Rather, the debate gave him the opportunity to address important policy issues on a national forum provided by national media. Similarly, Gov. Sanford attended the Democratic presidential primary debate in Orangeburg on the campus of S.C. State University on April 26, 2007. The Governor's presence at the presidential debates for both Republican and Democratic candidates shows that his presence at the GOP debate on January 1, 2008 was not intended to influence the outcome of an election. State of South Carolina

James A. Timmerman, Jr.
Executive Director

Dear Dr. Timmerman:

You have asked several questions of this office concerning Section 174, the aviation proviso in the 1984-1985 Annual Appropriations Act. Your questions are taken up in the order posed to this office.

You have inquired whether or not the South Carolina Wildlife and Marine Resources Department (hereafter SCWMRD) is considered to be 'furnishing transportation,' as that term is utilized in Section 174 of the 1984-1985 Annual Appropriations Act, when its law enforcement officers are assigned to fly in Department aircraft to perform duties on law enforcement flights as aerial observers.

Generally, words in a statute should be taken in their plain and ordinary meaning. State v. Hardee, 279 S.C. 409, 308 S.E.2d 521 (1983) 'Furnish' generally means to supply, provide or equip for the accomplishment of a particular purpose. Black's Law Dictionary, 5th Ed., 1979. 'Transportation' is defined as the act of transferring or conveying from one person or place to another. Webster's Third New International Dictionary, unabridged (1976).

As I understand it, Wildlife Law Enforcement Officers performing crew member duties on patrol flights are usually picked up at an airport in the locality to be patrolled and returned to the same airport at the termination of the flight. This would not constitute 'transportation' as the term is commonly defined, and would not therefore constitute transportation under Section 174 of the Appropriations Act. Moreover, the clear intent of Section 174 is to impose its requirements upon state officials utilizing state aircraft for air transportation. Officers assigned to fly as aerial observers on wildlife department patrols are not utilizing the aircraft for air transportation, but are rather functioning as flight crew members. Therefore, no sworn statement is required for law enforcement flights during which law enforcement officers are serving as aerial observers.

Your second question asks who must prepare a sworn statement when SCWMRD provides air transportation to State officials who are neither members of the Wildlife Commission nor employees of your Department. The applicable portion of Section 174 is as follows

... Provided, Further, That no member of the General Assembly, no member of a state board, commission or committee, and no state official shall be furnished air transportation by a state agency other than the Aeronautics Commission unless such agency prepares and maintains in its files a sworn statement from an appropriate official of the agency certifying that the member's or state official's trip was in conjunction with the official business of the agency. Official business shall not include routine transportation to and from meetings of the General Assembly or committee meetings for which mileage is authorized.

2 The question as to who must prepare a sworn statement for an aircraft-operating agency other than the Aeronautics Commission turns on how the legislature intended to use the term 'agency' in the last sentence of the section above quoted. Several rules of statutory construction are useful in making that determination

The paramount rule of statutory construction is to discern and give effect to the intent of the legislature in enacting a statute, Anders v. S.C. Parole and Community Corrections Board, 279 S.C. 206, 305 S.E.2d 229 (1983); Bankers Trust of S.C. v. Bruce, 275 S.C. 35, 267 S.E.2d 424 (1980). In seeking legislative intent in statutory construction, our courts have not considered themselves necessarily bound by the apparent meaning of words but have instead considered statutes as a whole in light of conditions existing at the time of enactment and the purpose sought to be accomplished. Fulghum v. Bleakley, 177 S.C. 286, 181 S.E. 30 (1935).

Applying these principles to the paragraph quoted above, in light of the questions posed, it becomes apparent that the primary thrust of Section 174 is that aircraft owned and operated by the State of South Carolina be utilized only for official business of the State. There is also a clear intention, expressed in the second sentence quoted above, that agencies owning and operating aircraft (such as SCWMRD) be able to furnish air transportation to the Governor, Constitutional Officers, members of the General Assembly, and members of State boards, commissions and agencies. This language is modified by the last sentence in the section cited, beginning with 'provided further'. A proviso such as this generally must be read together with the main provisions of the body of the act. State v. Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, 195 S.C. 267, 10 S.E.2d 778 (1940).

Utilizing these rules of construction, it appears that the legislature simply intended to impose some additional steps to insure that flights in agency-owned and operated aircraft are for official state business. In order to furnish transportation to a state official, an agency owning the aircraft must prepare and maintain in its file a statement that the flight was in connection with the 'official business of the agency.'

As to who must actually execute the sworn statement, there are two possible readings of the Act. One possible interpretation is that an official of the agency owning and operating the aircraft must certify that the flight is in connection with the official business of the agency operating the aircraft. However, when read together with the provision expressly authorizing agencies to furnish transportation to various state officials, this construction appears inappropriate. Where transportation is to be provided state officials not employed by an agency owning aircraft, it appears consistent with the intent and purpose of the act to require an official of the agency requesting such transportation to execute a sworn statement that the flight would be in conjunction with the official business of the agency. The term 'agency' as it is used the last two times in the proviso, refers to the Office of the Governor, Constitutional Officers, legislative bodies, or the various State boards, commissions and agencies for which air transportation may be furnished. This construction gives full effect to all provisions of Section 174, and is reasonable in that it requires those officials with particular knowledge of the need for a flight or the purpose for which it is intended. To subject an official of the aircraft-operating agency to the sanctions provided in the act, when that official might have no basis for knowledge of the purpose of another state official's flight, would be unfair and unreasonable. Statutes should be sensibly construed so as to avoid absurd or unreasonable application. Stephens v. Hendricks, 226 S.C. 79, 83 S.E.2d 634 (1954).

3 Therefore, although a final answer to this question can only be provided by our Supreme Court, it is the opinion of this office that Section 174 of the 1984-1985 Appropriations Act requires an official with the agency requesting a flight upon an aircraft owned by a separate agency to certify in a sworn statement that the flight is in conjunction with the official business of the requesting agency

Your final question asks whether or not a prohibition in the statute against travel to and from meetings of the General Assembly or committee meetings would preclude air transportation of Commissioners to meetings of the South Carolina Wildlife and Marine Resources Commission. The pertinent language reads as follows:

Official business shall not include routine transportation to and from meetings of the General Assembly or committee meetings for which mileage is authorized.

Obviously, the Legislature intended that this language apply only to meetings of the General Assembly and legislative committee meetings. Elsewhere in Section 174, when the authors of this section wished to include other State agencies, boards and committees, the phrase ' . . . State board, commission, or committee. . . ' has been utilized. Having previously employed such language, the fact that the legislature here referred only to 'meetings of the General Assembly' and 'committee meetings' in the same sentence, implied that other state boards and commissions were intended to be excluded. The language would not, therefore, include meetings of the Wildlife and Marine Resources Commission in its prohibition

Yours very truly,
M. Richbourg Roberson
Sr. Assistant Attorney General

The Honorable Jarvis Klapman
Member

Dear Representative Klapman:

Your letter to Attorney General Medlock regarding an interpretation of certain provisions of Proviso 129.40 of the 1987-88 Appropriation Act has been referred to me for a response. I shall address specifically the four questions you raise hereinafter; however, your central request deals with a clarification or definition of 'what constitutes 'official use' of state aircraft.' As I am certain you realize, 'official use' is difficult to define without resorting to a specific factual situation. [FN1] Thus, I shall discuss various general definitions of 'official use' or similar phrases and I shall analyze several cases, both within and without South Carolina, dealing with official use in the context of motor vehicles. I found no case which dealt with 'official use' in the context of aircraft transportation.

I. 'What defines official use?'

Proviso 129.40 of the 1987-88 Appropriation Act provides in part that '[a]ny and all aircraft owned or operated by agencies of the State Government shall be used only for official business.' 'Official business' is not 'defined' in their Proviso. Generally, words used in a statute are to be given their plain and ordinary meaning absent an express intention to the contrary. Worthington v. Belcher, 274 S.C. 366, 264 S.E.2d 148 (1980). I note no indication to give 'official business' any meaning other than its plain and ordinary one.

In statutory construction the primary consideration is the intention of the legislature. Citizens and Southern Systems, Inc. v. South Carolina Tax Comm'n., 280 S.C. 138, 311 S.E.2d 717 (1984). When interpreting a statute, legislative intent must prevail if it can be reasonably discovered in the language used, which must be construed in light of the intended purpose of the statute. Gambrell v. Travelers Ins. Co., 280 S.C. 69, 310 S.E.2d 814 (1983). However, when a statute is plain and unambiguous, it should be applied literally. Duckworth v. Cameron, 270 S.C. 647, 244 S.E.2d 217 (1978).

'Official act' is defined generally as one 'done by an officer in his official capacity under color and by virtue of his office.' Black's Law Dictionary, 1236, 4th Edition, 1968.

While we have found no South Carolina cases construing 'official business' in the context of Proviso 129.40 of the 1987-88 Appropriation Act, our Supreme Court has examined 'official business' as it relates to the Governmental Motor Vehicle Tort Claims Act and stated.

Under the settled law of this State governmental entities have no business except 'official business' and therefore the statutory phrase 'while in and about the official business of such governmental entity' merely imposes the requirement that the employee be about the business of the employer.

Morris v. S.C. State Highway Dept., 264 S.C. 369, 215 S.E.2d 430, 433 (1975) (J. Bussey, dissenting)

2 Obviously, no meaningful analysis of 'official business' can be undertaken without a specific fact situation to analyze (i.e. 'official business' is determined on an ad hoc basis). I shall examine two cases which have discussed 'official business.'

In South Carolina, acts of adultery between a physician and Plaintiff's wife, both of whom were employed by the Department of Mental Health, were held not official actions sufficient to subject the Department of Mental Health to liability under a theory of respondent superior. Morris v. Mooney, 288 S.C. 477, 343 S.E.2d 442 (1986). The reason for this conclusion was that the acts of adultery were not reasonably necessary to the accomplishment of the physician's employment and, thus, were not within his scope of employment.

In Felton v. E.E.O.C., 820 F.2d 391 (Fed.Cir. 1987), Judge Bissell discussed whether the use of a discussed government vehicle to transport a typist was appropriate under the following facts:

[O]n that morning Ms. Mitchell a Clerk-Typist in the Louisville Area Office in June, 1984, was on her way to work in her personal vehicle when it broke down on the expressway. She was picked up by an acquaintance and dropped off at her office. . . . [S]he called a car dealership to have her car towed to be repaired. She then telephoned her supervisor, Ms. Felton, who was the Acting Area Office Director at that particular time. This occurred between 7:00 and 7:30 a.m., prior to the 8:00 a.m. regular starting time for the office. Ms. Mitchell asked Ms. Felton if she could utilize the government vehicle used by the Louisville Area Office in order to go back to her vehicle on the expressway and secure it. Ms. Felton . . . initially . . . misunderstood Ms. Mitchell, and thought Ms. Mitchell wanted to take the government car to her home. She advised Ms. Mitchell that it was improper to do so. At that point, Ms. Mitchell explained she was not going to her home, but just going to secure her personal vehicle which had broken down on the expressway. . . . [A]lthough [Felton] normally considered such a request inappropriate, she believed that in order to make it more convenient for the office to have its only typist available to work, it would be to the government's benefit to allow Ms. Mitchell to utilize the government vehicle. Hence, Ms. Felton admitted she authorized Ms. Mitchell to utilize the car. Ms. Mitchell . . . took the government car and started toward the expressway when it also broke down. At that point, she called for assistance to get the government car towed and she also was picked up by an acquaintance who took her to her personal vehicle on the expressway.

820 F.2d at 392. Based on these facts Judge Bissell concluded that, while technically this use may have been 'nonofficial' in the mind of the employee who was disciplined for authorizing the use of the government motor vehicle, the use of the vehicle was for official purposes since the employee believed her authorization provided 'an arguable benefit' to the government. Thus, the court held that the finding that the employee authorized the use of a government vehicle for other than official purposes was not supported by the evidence. The Felton case demonstrates the subjective nature that surrounds any analysis of official use.

3 To summarize the foregoing and offer a 'rule of thumb' to officials of state government using state aircraft for official business, it is well to keep in mind that for an activity or use of an official in his business capacity to be official, such activity or use must be done in his official capacity, under color of his office. Such activity or use must be reasonably intended by the official to be one properly belonging to his office. Bailey v. Clausen, 192 Colo. 297, 577 p.2d 1207 (1976); People v. Raymo, 32 Misc. 2d 534, 223 N.Y.S. 2d 1014 (1962); People v. Norris, 40 Cal. 3d 51, 706 p.2d 1141 (1985). Any activity which a state official is invited or required to do that would not occur but for the public office or position he holds could thus be considered 'official business' for the purposes of using state aircraft.

For your information I have enclosed the regulation, (Reg. 19-603) as amended, dealing with the use of State motor vehicles. This regulation demonstrates that while it is possible to specify specific uses and non-uses for State vehicles all situations must be analyzed individually.

2. 'Which individual within an agency should be permitted to sign the statement of use?'

While it is not clear from your inquiry, I assume that your question relates to the portion of Proviso 129.40 which provides:

No member of the General Assembly, no member of a state board, commission or committee, and no state official shall be furnished air transportation by a state agency other than the Aeronautics Commission unless such agency prepares and maintains in its files a sworn statement from an appropriate official of the agency certifying that the member's or state official's trip was in conjunction with the official business of the agency.

It appears that 'appropriate official of the agency' refers to one who is positioned to swear to the connection between the official business of the agency providing the aircraft (other than the Aeronautics Commission) and the state official's use of the aircraft in connection with that business. The appropriate individual within an agency will vary from agency to agency and, therefore, any analysis obviously must be performed on a case-by-case basis. Frankly, without a specific fact situation it is difficult to distill or define the concept further than the language quoted above from the Appropriation Act.

3. 'Is it advisable that the signature of the requesting agency alone be certification that the flight is for official business?'

An opinion from this Office is designed to address questions of law. The wisdom or advisability of a statute lawfully enacted by the General Assembly and signed into law by the Governor is not a matter of legal analysis and, therefore, is not a matter on which this Office is empowered to opine.

4. 'Should the agency specify the exact purpose of the flight?'

Proviso 129.40 of the 1987-88 Appropriation Act provides in part that:

No member of the General Assembly, no member of a state board, commission or committee, and no state official shall use any aircraft of the Aeronautics Commission unless the member or official files within forty-eight hours after the time of departure of the flight with the Aeronautics Commission a sworn statement certifying and describing the official nature of his trip (emphasis added)

*4 It is clear from this above-quoted language that the 'official nature' of the trip must be described in affidavit form. This burden is placed on the official or member utilizing the state aircraft. Once this burden has been met, the official or member has complied with Proviso 129.40.

I hope the above information has been of assistance to you.

Sincerely yours,
Charles W. Gambrell, Jr.
Assistant Attorney General

3/23/05 flight from Columbia to Charleston	Gov. Sanford C. Allen	Gov. Sanford originally had a press conference scheduled for Charleston with Sen. Lindsay Graham and Sen. Jim DeMint in support of the Governor's income tax cut proposal. While in the Charleston area, Gov. Sanford also had planned to promote his tax cut proposal in a television interview and at a GOP event. At the last minute, Gov. Sanford had to reschedule and move his press conference to testify at a Senate subcommittee hearing that was considering his tax cut proposal. Although Gov. Sanford missed the originally scheduled press conference in Mt. Pleasant, he kept his commitment to appear at the other official events he had scheduled in the Charleston area. Thus, Gov. Sanford traveled on a state plane (DNR) to attend an in-studio television interview in Charleston to discuss and promote his income tax cut proposal. On the way to the interview he stopped by his dentist office for 15 minutes to have a tooth checked, and later in the evening he attended a GOP event. But for the official business he was already conducting in Charleston, Gov. Sanford would not have made a visit his dentist, which was incidental to his official business in the area. Gov. Sanford attended the GOP event in his official capacity to promote his income tax proposal and President Bush's social security plan. Gov. Re: Complaint C2010-020
In the Matter of Governor Mark Sanford
Your File No. 27049/1500

Dear Mr. Bowers,

During our investigation of the above-captioned matter, we have reviewed a total of 78 flights on privately owned aircraft listed on Governor Sanford's calendar for the years 2004 through 2008. A review of the Governor's Statements of Economic Interests forms filed with the State Ethics Commission for the same period revealed that 17 of the flights reviewed were disclosed.

In accordance with Section 8-13-1120 (9) of the South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976, as amended, a public official is required to disclose the source and description of any gift, including transportation, from any person, if there is reason to believe the donor would not have given the gift but for the official's position.

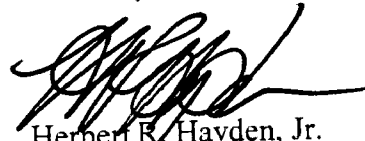

Enclosed are copies, in chronological order, of the Governor's calendar depicting those 61 flights which were not disclosed. Please note there is no "friends and family" exception in the statute or the regs. Please review each flight with your client. The question which must be answered in considering whether to disclose a gift is whether the gift would have been given if Governor Sanford was not Governor. Regardless of whom the donor may be, including friends or family, if the answer to that question is "no" then the gift must be disclosed.

If any of these or other flights should have been disclosed, the Governor may file an amended attachment to his Statement of Economic Interests for the appropriate year. If the Governor contends that a particular flight is not disclosable, he must provide the name, address, and telephone number of the donor. In addition, he must answer the following questions about each donor of each flight which he contends is not disclosable..

1. What is the relationship of the donor and the Governor?
2. How long has this relationship existed?
3. How many times did the donor provide flights for the Governor prior to January 2003, and what were the date(s) and purpose(s) of those flights?

A response is required no later than October 19, 2009.

Sincerely,

Herbert R. Hayden, Jr.
Executive Director

APPOINTMENT DETAILS

(7:45 AM - 8:00 AM) 7:44am Call-in Interview: Joe LaStringer WFIS (Fountain Inn)

(Mansion/Office)

Time: 7:45 - 8:00 am

Call-in: 7:44 am

Station: WFIS (Fountain Inn)

Host: Joe LaStringer

Primary: 864-962-9777

Backup: None available, smaller station

Notes: MS last on in November 2004. Topics would be veto overrides, end of session and roads (perfect opportunity to talk about changes needed at DOT).

(8:10 AM - 8:30 AM) 8:09am Call-in Interview: Ron Moore WLMA (Greenwood)

(Mansion/Office)

Time: 8:10 - 8:30 am

Call-in: 8:09 am

Station: WLMA (Greenwood)

Host: Ron Moore

Primary: 864-943-1350

Backup: None available, smaller station

Notes: MS last chatted w/ Moore in November 2004. Topics are vetoes, end of session and the kind of campaigning he plans to do between now and January 2006 to get his initiatives passed.

(8:45 AM - 9:00 AM) 8:45am TAPED Call-in Interview: Dave McIntosh WPUB/WCAM (Camden)

(Mansion/Office)

Time: 8:45 - 9:00 am

Call-in: 8:45 am

Station: WPUB/WCAM (Camden)

Host: Dave McIntosh

Primary: 803-438-9002

Backup: 803-238-2454

Notes: Important - MS last on in 2003. McIntosh is very big on his statewide guests localizing answers for Kershaw audience. Rarely does these interviews but agreed for MS. According to McIntosh, MS has taken lots of incoming in Kershaw County for vetoing Battle of Camden money/ PPIC among other things. MS did veto $200,000 in Battle of Camden funding, but the SC Conservation Bank gave it nearly $350,000 this year (which wouldn't have happened had MS not pushed to fund the conservation bank for the first time ever) and it also got another $300,000 from federal Save America's Treasures funding. Additional state funding could have come through competitive grants at PRT and MS should use this to enter trust fund/ government growth remarks. On PPIC, Kershaw School Board did ultimately vote to oppose PPIC but they at least gave the governors office a chance to present its case (only school board in SC that did that). Obviously theres a willingness to look at new ideas there and thats how change starts. MS should use this as an opportunity to go into the PPIC compromise for below average and failing schools that was sadly not even debated in the House. He could also point out that Camden High is in the States Top 10 in SAT performance, and so while the education product in Kershaw County is quite good, he has an obligation as governor to help kids in Allendale and Barnwell and Clarendon and Marion counties where the education product is not as good. Current unemployment picture in Kershaw is 6.6% - right at the state average. MS should obviously talk about the small business tax cut as a way of improving that number. When MS was elected in January 2003, the unemployment rate in Kershaw County was 8.1%, well above the state average.

per Rory: comfort should be the name of the game because it is going to be very hot- The launch of NASA's Space Shuttle Discovery and its seven-member crew will mark the second mission in the Return to Flight sequence. The mission, designated STS-121, will test shuttle safety improvements to build on findings from Discovery's flight last year.
- The STS-121 mission also will bolster the International Space Station, making a key repair and delivering more than 28,000 pounds of equipment and supplies, as well as a third crew member. Two spacewalks are planned during Discovery's 12-day mission. If there is enough electrical power, the mission will be extended by one day and a third spacewalk will be added.

- MS, Eckstrom and Ravenel are attending the Charleston So., College of Charleston and Citadel College Republicans Rally as our Fiscal Responsibility stop in Charleston because the College Republicans were already planning an event.

- They have invited all statewide candidates to attend and expect Andre Bauer to be there.

- Program:

Miss Charleston will sing the national anthem to open the event, with the Charleston Southern University Color Guard presenting flags. One of the student presidents (Kristen Munsey) will serve as emcee. She is readily aware that we will be departing during the event, and plans to handle segue from stage.

Kristen will introduce MS.

MS to speak for around 5-7 minutes and introduce Eckstrom.

Eckstrom to speak for 5-7 minutes and introduce Ravenel (5-7 minutes).

Ravenel to speak for 5-7 minutes.

There will be a brief break for these three to leave the stage, giving us 15 minutes for one-on-ones as event continues.

- Expect 150 people.

RE: Complaint C2010-020
In the Matter of Governor Mark Sanford

RECEIVED
2009 OCT 26 PM 4:05

Dear Mr. Hayden:

We are writing in response to your letter of October 8, 2009, in which you request information with regard to a series of flights on privately owned aircraft. For each flight referenced in your correspondence, you request that Governor (a) amend prior filings to include these flights or (b) provide detailed information as to why a particular flight "is not disclosable."

Please find attached a detailed spreadsheet that lists each flight referenced in your correspondence, along with the date of the flight and whether reporting is/was required. The chart also contains a column labeled "Information" that sets forth a detailed explanation with regard to each flight and states why reporting was/was not required. We contend that the vast majority of the flights at issue do not require reporting. Even though this is the case, we nevertheless request that, upon final disposition of this matter by the Commission, this correspondence and the attached spreadsheet (1) be treated as amendments to Governor Sanford's previous filings and (2) be made part of the public record. By this letter's amendment of previous filings to include even those flights for which no disclosure is required, the circumstances surrounding each flight will be made part of the public record upon final disposition of this matter. This will resolve any concerns about whether reporting is/is not required, and it also obviates any need to gather additional information as described in the second page of your letter.

As you know, the attached travel information has never been a secret, and Governor Sanford has never attempted to prevent its discovery. In fact, every flight referenced in your correspondence appears on Governor Sanford's public calendar, and the Office of the Governor provided his calendar to the media in response to FOIA requests. In those few instances in which a flight was omitted from a previous filing, the omission was inadvertent and unintentional and is therefore technical in nature.

We hope the information set forth above and in the attached spreadsheet answers all of your questions satisfactorily. Of course, please do not hesitate to contact us if you should have any additional questions or if you need any additional information. As you know from the Governor's cooperation to date, we will be pleased to respond promptly to any additional questions or concerns you might have.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours

Transportation on Privately Owned Aircraft

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
1	Flight from Columbia to D.C. on private aircraft provided by Sen. John McCain.	3/1/2004	No	Senator McCain was in South Carolina to attend an award ceremony for Judge Matthew Perry. He was returning to Washington and the Governor rode with him. The governor needed to be in Washington for official purposes on 3/3/04 and was scheduled to fly to Washington on the state plane. Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16). In addition, Sen. McCain is a long-time friend of Gov. Sanford dating back to the governor's service in Congress between 1995-2001, and Sen. McCain would have provided the flight regardless of the Governor's position. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
2	Flight from Charleston to Saratoga, Wyoming, for family vacation provided by First Lady's parents.	8/4/2004	No	This was a personal family trip, and the flight was provided by family members. Transportation would have been provided regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1); and § 8-13-710(C). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
3	Flight from family vacation in Saratoga, Wyoming, to Charleston provided by First Lady's parents.	8/10/2004	No	This was a personal family trip, and the flight was provided by family members. Transportation would have been provided regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1); and § 8-13-710(C). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
4	Flights around state to campaign for Sen. DeMint provided by Sen. DeMint.	11/1/2004	No	Flights to assist in Sen. DeMint's campaign at Sen. DeMint's request. Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." Only Sen. DeMint and his campaign derived value from these flights. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
5	Flight from Columbia to Charleston provided by Tom Risley – CEO of Vought.	12/1/2004	No	The governor was scheduled to deliver a major economic development announcement in Charleston. Representatives from Vought Alenia offered to provide the governor with air transportation, which the governor accepted in lieu of using the state airplane. Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute “anything of value” as it had no “pecuniary or compensatory worth” to the Governor and it was not “personal transportation.” The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
6	Flight from Columbia to Georgetown on private aircraft provided by Harry Butler.	12/11/2004	No	Flight provided to the Governor and his family to attend a Christmas party at long-time friend Harry Butler’s home. Harry Butler is a friend of the Governor and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor’s position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
7	Flight from Columbia to Stuart, Florida, on private aircraft provided by the First Lady's parents.	12/22/2004	No	This was a personal family trip to visit the First Lady's family for Christmas vacation and the flight was provided by family members. This flight was provided regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEL. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1); and § 8-13-710(C). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
8	Flight from Stuart, Florida, to Columbia on private aircraft provided by the First Lady's parents.	12/29/2004	No	This was a personal family trip to visit the First Lady's family for Christmas vacation and the flight was provided by family members. This flight was provided regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEL. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1); and § 8-13-710(C). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
9	Flight from Albany, Georgia, to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Harry Butler.	2/24/2005	No	The Governor returned with Harry Butler on his plane from a hunting trip back to Columbia. Harry Butler is a friend of the Governor and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEL. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
10	Flight from Asheville, North Carolina, to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Brad Smith.	4/22/2005	No	Governor flew with Brad Smith on his plane to attend a speaking engagement. Brad Smith was a long time friend of the Governor dating back to the early 1990s, and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
11	Flight taken by Jenny Sanford and Sanford boys from Charleston to Darlington for race.	5/07/2005	No	The Governor was not on this flight, and he has no duty to report flights taken by the First Lady or his children. The First Lady is not a "public official" who must file a SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1110(B). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
12	Flight from Sumter to New River (NC) Air Station on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo.	5/19/2005	No	Gov. Sanford and others flew on J.T. Gandolfo's plane to visit Camp LeJeune, NC. Gandolfo has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this transportation regardless of the governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. John T. Gandolfo) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
13	Flight from New River (NC) Air Station to Florence on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo.	5/20/2005	No	Gov. Sanford and others returned on J.T. Gandolfo's plane from a trip to Camp LeJeune, NC. Gandolfo has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this transportation regardless of the governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. John T. Gandolfo) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).
14	Flight from Columbia to Teterboro, New Jersey, on private aircraft provided by Harry Butler.	5/25/2005	No	The Governor flew with Harry Butler on his plane to a personal nonprofit organization event. Harry Butler is a friend of the Governor prior and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. Governor did not try to conceal this flight as he kept it on his schedule and disclosed it to the press pursuant to a FOIA request. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-320(9)(d).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
15	Flight from Johns Island to Coosaw on private aircraft provided by Brad Smith.	6/3/2005	No	Governor and his mother, Peg Peyton, flew with Brad Smith on his plane to attend Mrs. Peyton's 80th birthday party. Brad Smith was a long time friend of the Governor dating back to the early 1990s and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Statute of limitations bars Ethics Commission jurisdiction. 22	Flight from Hilton Head to Tallahassee, Florida, on private aircraft provided by Paul Barringer.	1/1/06	No	Gov. Sanford flew with Paul Barringer on Barringer's plane for a hunting trip. Barringer is a long-time friend of the Governor dating back to his service in Congress between 1995-2001. This flight was provided regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Paul Barringer) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).
23	Flight from Tallahassee to Brunswick, Georgia, on private aircraft provided by Paul Barringer.	1/2/06	No	Gov. Sanford flew with Paul Barringer on Barringer's plane returning from a hunting trip and going to an RGA event in Brunswick, GA. Barringer is a long-time friend of the Governor dating back to his service in Congress between 1995-2001. This flight was provided regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Paul Barringer) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).
24	Flight from Columbia to Anderson to Newberry on private aircraft provided by Robert Pulliam for GOP county conventions.	2/13/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's April 2006 campaign disclosure form. (Attached)
25	Flight from Columbia to Greenwood and Spartanburg on private aircraft provided by Dave Andrews for GOP county conventions.	2/20/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's April 2006 campaign disclosure form. (Attached)

26	Flight from Columbia to Moncks Corner and Summerville on private aircraft provided by Jim Hamilton for GOP county.	2/21/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's April 2006 campaign disclosure form. (Attached)
27	Flight from Columbia to Seneca to Sumter to Columbia on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo for Oconee and Sumter County GOP conventions.	2/25/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's July 2006 campaign disclosure form. (Attached) The flight was provided by Mr. Gandolfo using a "loaner" plane from Eagle Aviation (David Lipski) while Mr. Gandolfo's plane was undergoing maintenance at Eagle Aviation. (See attached Affidavits of Mr. John T. Gandolfo and David A. Lipski) This flight was inadvertently left off the April 2006 form and once this error was noticed, it was reported on the July 2006 form.
28	Flight from Columbia to Winnsboro to Rock Hill on private aircraft provided by Dave Andrews for GOP county convention.	3/2/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's April 2006 campaign disclosure form. (Attached)

30	Flight from Columbia to Conway on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo for GOP county convention.	3/9/2006	Yes	Unintentional nondisclosure of in-kind campaign contribution. Internal campaign database shows that an in-kind contribution was made by J.T. Gandolfo for this flight on 3/9/05 rather than 3/9/06. Therefore, it appears the campaign did not disclose due to this date error. This is a technical violation of campaign disclosure law and was not intended to evade the contribution limits under the Ethics Act. Gandolfo did not contribute the maximum amount in this election cycle, and he could have provided this flight without exceeding the contribution limits. Therefore, the Commission should deem this failure to report as a technical violation. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1372.
31	Flight from Columbia to Spartanburg to Columbia on private aircraft personally owned by George Dean Johnson.	4/2/2006	No	The Governor flew with George Dean Johnson on his aircraft for a hunting trip. George Dean Johnson has been a friend of the Governor since 2001 and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. George Dean Johnson) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
32	Flight from Columbia to Savannah on private aircraft personally owned by Art Fields.	4/23/2006	No	The Governor flew with Art Fields to meet with the development director of Palmetto Bluff. Art Fields has been a friend of the Governor since the mid-1990s and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Arthur Fields) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).
33	Flights from Columbia to Rock Hill, Spartanburg, Greenwood, Aiken, and Camden on private aircraft provided by Fred Price.	6/7/2006	No	Gov. Sanford flew on Fred Price's plane to attend several budget-related press conferences around the state. Fred Price has been a friend of the Governor since approximately 2004 and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Fred Price) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).

34	Flight from Walterboro to Cape Canaveral to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Bill Stern.	7/1/2006	No	Gov. Sanford and his family flew with Bill Stern and his family on Stern's plane to view the space shuttle launch. Bill Stern is a friend of the Governor and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).
35	Flight from Mt. Pleasant to Aiken to Mt. Pleasant on private aircraft provided by Johnny Evans for campaign events w/ Aiken and Edgefield County GOP.	8/28/2006	Yes	This is a technical violation of campaign disclosure law and was not intended to evade the contribution limits under the Ethics Act. Evans did not contribute the maximum amount in this election cycle, and he could have provided this flight without exceeding the contribution limits. Therefore, the Commission should deem this failure to report as a technical violation. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1372. Furthermore, Johnny Evans has been a friend of the Governor since prior to 2003 and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Johnny Evans)
36	Flight from Columbia to Seneca to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Marion Hope for Apple Festival Parade.	9/8/2006	No	Gov. Sanford and his family flew on Marion Hope's plane to attend a personal event - parade festival. Marion Hope has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Marion Hope) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).
37	Flight from Columbia to Greenwood on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo for GOP candidates dinner.	9/18/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's October 2006 campaign disclosure form. (Attached)

43	Flight from Greenville to Charleston on private aircraft provided by Gary Shahid.	10/17/2006	No	Gov. Sanford flew on Gary Shahid's plane to attend an economic development announcement and rotary meeting for official state business. Gary Shahid has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1). Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).
44	Flight from Charleston to Kingstree to Orangeburg to Clemson to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Foster McKissick.	10/21/2006	No	Gov. Sanford and his family flew on Foster McKissick's plane to attend personal events – parade, football games. Foster McKissick and his family have been friends of the Governor since the 1990s and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. Foster McKissick III) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).
45	Flight from Columbia to Conway to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Gary Davis for gubernatorial election debate.	10/29/2006	Yes	This is a technical violation of campaign disclosure law and was not intended to evade the contribution limits under the Ethics Act. Davis did not contribute the maximum amount in this election cycle, and he could have provided this flight without exceeding the contribution limits. Therefore, the Commission should deem this failure to report as a technical violation. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1372.

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
46	Flight from Columbia to Charleston to Florence to Greenville to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Greg Thompson.	11/2/2006	Yes	Gov. Sanford, Comptroller Gen. Richard Eckstrom and candidate Thomas Ravenel flew on Greg Thompson's plane which was provided by the SC GOP to attend a campaign event. This appears to be a campaign contribution to or campaign expenditure by the SC GOP, and, therefore, the flight should have been reported by the SC GOP. This inadvertent and unintentional nondisclosure is a technical violation of campaign disclosure law and was not intended to evade the contribution limits under the Ethics Act. SC GOP did not contribute the maximum amount in this election cycle, and it could have provided this flight without exceeding the contribution limits. Therefore, the Commission should deem this failure to report as a technical violation. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1372.
47	Flights scheduled from Columbia to Aiken, Greenville, Rock Hill, Myrtle Beach, Charleston, and Hilton Head on private aircraft provided by Gary Whitman for campaign events.	11/6/2006	No	The Governor did not take these flights because he was having "eye problems" as reflected on his calendar. As widely reported in the media, the Governor's corneas were burned. Because he did not take these flights, he had no obligation to report them.
48	Flight from Charleston to Greenville and Columbia and Augusta on private aircraft provided by Stephen Davis for campaign events.	11/7/2006	Yes	This flight was reported on Gov. Sanford's January 2007 campaign disclosure form. (Attached)

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
49	Flight from Stuart, Florida, to Columbia on private aircraft provided by the First Lady's parents.	12/26/2006	No	This was a personal family trip to visit the First Lady's family for Christmas vacation, and the flight was provided by family members. This flight was provided regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1); and § 8-13-710(C).
50	Flights from Columbia to Atlanta to Columbia on private aircraft arranged by the Republican Governors Association.	4/18/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew on a plane arranged by the RGA and owned by Waffle House to attend the RGA Economic Growth Governors Forum. RGA arranges several flights for governors to attend RGA-related events. This flight is attributed to the RGA not the Governor, therefore the flight would not have to be reported by the Governor on his SEI form pursuant to § 8-13-1120(B)(3).
51	Flights from Columbia to Raleigh to Walterboro on private aircraft provided by Bob Luddy.	4/28/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew with Bob Luddy on his plane to attend a speaking engagement for the Civitas Institute. The SEI form indicates that $27 was disclosed as a travel reimbursement from Civitas. While part of the travel costs were disclosed, the flight was inadvertently not disclosed; however there was no intent to evade the disclosure laws under the Ethics Act. Therefore, the Commission should deem this failure to report as a technical violation. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1372.
52	Flight from Georgetown to Atlanta on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo.	5/6/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew on Gandolfo's plane to take a personal trip - Air Force Reserve duty. Gandolfo has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this transportation regardless of the governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. John T. Gandolfo) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).

#	Transportation	Date	Reporting Required?	Information
53	Flight from Columbia to Greenville to Savannah on private aircraft provided by Commerce Secretary Joe Taylor.	5/21/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew with Joe Taylor and another Commerce official for official economic development purposes of signing memo of understanding with China in Greenville and recruitment of Rolls Royce in Savannah. Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16). Furthermore, Taylor donated the use of his plane to the Department of Commerce for official business at no cost to the State. (See attached Affidavit of Secretary Joe E. Taylor, Jr.)
54	Flight from Savannah to Charleston on private helicopter chartered by the Department of Commerce.	5/21/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew with Joe Taylor and another Commerce official for official economic development purposes of recruitment of Rolls Royce in Savannah. This was not a gift because Commerce chartered the helicopter flight for official business, and therefore Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(16).
55	Flight from Columbia to Cape Canaveral to Columbia on private aircraft provided by Bill Stern.	6/8/2007	No	Gov. Sanford and his family flew with Bill Stern and his family on Stern's plane to view the space shuttle launch. Bill Stern is a friend of the Governor and would have provided this flight to the Governor regardless of the Governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).

56	Flight from Columbia to Albany, Georgia, on private aircraft arranged by the Republican Governors Association.	11/8/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew on a plane arranged by the RGA and owned by Randy Perkins to attend an RGA event. RGA arranges several flights for governors to attend RGA-related events. This flight was provided to and should be attributed to the RGA, not the Governor. Therefore the flight would not have to be reported by the Governor on his SEI form pursuant to § 8-13-1120(B)(3). Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." Only the RGA derived value from these flights. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).
57	Return flight from Albany, Georgia, on private aircraft arranged by the Republican Governors Association.	11/9/2007	No	Gov. Sanford flew on a plane arranged by the RGA and owned by Randy Perkins to return from an RGA event. RGA arranges several flights for governors to attend RGA-related events. This flight is attributable to the RGA, not the Governor. Therefore, the flight would not have to be reported by the Governor on his SEI form pursuant to § 8-13-1120(B)(3). Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." Only the RGA derived value from these flights. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).
58	Flight from Atlanta to Charlottesville, VA to Columbia on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo.	4/18/2008	No	Gov. Sanford flew on Gandolfo's plane to attend a personal event - his Darden Class of 1988 reunion. Gandolfo has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this transportation regardless of the governor's position. (See attached Affidavit of Mr. John T. Gandolfo) Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).

59	Flight from Columbia to Atlanta on private aircraft provided by J.T. Gandolfo.	6/3/2008	No	Gov. Sanford flew on Gandolfo's plane to attend an RGA Governor's Forum. Gandolfo has been a friend of the Governor prior to 2003 and would have provided this transportation regardless of the governor's position. Therefore, Gov. Sanford had no duty to report this flight on the SEI form. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-1120(A)(9)(a); § 8-13-710(B)(1).
60	Flight from Atlanta to Columbia on private aircraft arranged by the Republican Governors Association.	6/4/2008	No	Gov. Sanford flew on a plane arranged by the RGA and owned by Lance Toland to return from an RGA Governor's Forum. RGA arranges several flights for governors to attend RGA-related events. This flight is attributable to the RGA, not the Governor. Therefore, the flight would not have to be reported by the Governor on his SEI form pursuant to § 8-13-1120(B)(3). Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." Only the RGA derived value from these flights. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).
61	Flight from Columbia to Charleston, Myrtle Beach, and Greenville on private aircraft chartered by the SC Policy Council.	9/24/2008	No	Gov. Sanford flew on a plane chartered by SC Policy Council to attend press conferences around the state with the Policy Council and legislators. Flight was not a gift under the Ethics Act because it did not constitute "anything of value" as it had no "pecuniary or compensatory worth" to the Governor and it was not "personal transportation." The Governor was on official business and could have flown on the state plane. See S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100(1)(a) & (16).

Furthermore, I did not provide the listed air travel in order to obtain contractual or other business or financial relationships with the state. In fact, any business operations or activities in which I might be engaged are not regulated by the Office of the Governor.
5. I provided the air transportation because of my personal relationship with Mark Sanford, both before and after these flights.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

This the 13 day of OCT., 2009.

AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned affiant, Marion Hope, being first duly sworn, hereby deposes and says:

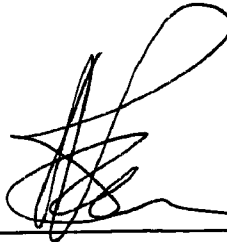

1. I am over the age of eighteen, suffer no legal disabilities, have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below, and am competent to testify.
2. On multiple occasions, I have been pleased to be able to provide private air transportation to business colleagues, friends, family members, and acquaintances. I first met Mark Sanford in approximately 1995 and have had the opportunity to get to know him personally since then. I consider Mark Sanford to be a friend.
3. As I have done for numerous other friends and acquaintances, I provided the air transportation listed below for Mark Sanford:

Date	Flight Description
9/8/2006	From Columbia, SC to Seneca, SC to Columbia, SC

4. I did not provide the air transportation listed above to Mark Sanford because of his position or public office. Furthermore, I did not provide the listed air travel in order to obtain contractual or other business or financial relationships with the state. In fact, any business operations or activities in which I might be engaged are not regulated by the Office of the Governor.
5. I provided the air transportation because of my personal relationship with Mark Sanford, both before and after these flights.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned affiant, Joe E. Taylor, Jr., being first duly sworn, hereby deposes and says:

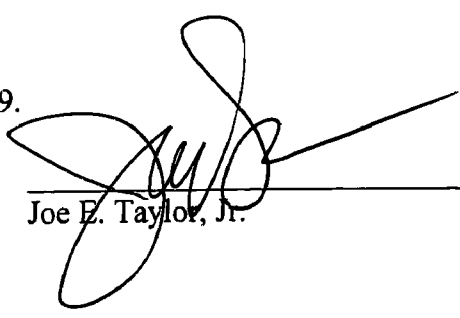

1. I am over the age of eighteen, suffer no legal disabilities, have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below, and am competent to testify.
2. I am the sole member of a LLC which owns an interest in an airplane (Tail #N803SC). I have provided this plane to the Department of Commerce, at no expense to the State, for certain economic development activities when needed.
3. Because of the need of an additional aircraft for this particular recruitment effort the air transportation listed below was provided to the Department of Commerce for a specific economic development purpose involving the recruitment of a company to South Carolina, and Governor Sanford flew on the plane for this economic development trip:

Date	Flight Description
5/21/2007	From Columbia, SC to Savannah, GA

4. The air transportation above was provided to the Department of Commerce, at my own personal expense, to assist in an economic development recruiting effort. No expenses regarding the use of this airplane have ever been charged to the State of South Carolina.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

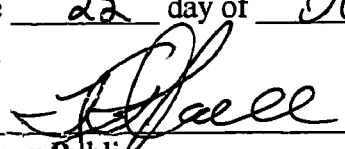

This the 22 day of Oct., 2009.
