Superintendent’s Report
Budget Update

The Superintendent began his report by outlining the projected budget compared to year-to-date expenditures ending June 30, 2018. A motion was made by Chairman Ragley to accept the budget. All were in favor.

Staffing

Palmetto Unified School District has a total of approximately 151 positions available statewide, totaling a 33% vacancy rate. There is a national and state shortage of certified teachers. The shortage is even greater considering correctional education.

SC Code of Law

Volume 9, Title 24, Chapter 25, Section 10 (established in 1981) states, “There is hereby established a special statewide unified school district within the South Carolina Department of Corrections to be known as the “Palmetto Unified School District No. 1.”

Special Presentations

The superintendent invited Ms. Nena Staley to assist him in giving out awards.

Grievances and Assaults

In 2008 under the auspices of Palmetto Unified an agency wide Character Education Initiative was implemented with the intent of creating a more positive climate and increasing employee and inmate morale. Decreases in assaults and grievances are the targeted measures of effectiveness. Winners received an aluminum 30 inch tree, and previous year winners received a recognition plate to place on their tree. Awards were presented as follows:

- Level I Grievances
  - 1st Place Palmer, Representative: Ms. Bartelle, Warden McFadden
  - 2nd Place: No Reduction

- Level I Assaults
  - 1st Place: Palmer, Representative: Ms. Bartelle, Warden McFadden
  - 2nd Place: Livesay, Representative: Dr. Thompson, Warden Dodkin

- Level II Grievances
  - 1st Place: Kershaw, Representative: Lieutenant Hunter, Warden Ford
  - 2nd Place: Evans, Representative: Corporal Davis, Warden Stonebreaker

- Level II Assaults
  - 1st Place: Kershaw, Representative: Lieutenant Hunter, Warden Ford
  - 2nd Place: Turbeville, Representative: Associate Warden Leamon, Warden Cothran

- Level III Grievances
  - 1st Place: No Reduction
  - 2nd Place: No Reduction

- Level III Assaults
  - 1st Place: Broad River, Representative: Ms. Waters, Warden Stephan
  - 2nd Place: Perry, Representative: Ms. Bratton, Warden Lewis

Academic Attainment for 4th Quarter FY 2018

- Approximately 324 GED’s have been awarded which is 135% of the 240 goal (Implemented new GED in 2015)
- Vocational completers is at 2,333 which is 77% of the 3000 goal
- WorkKeys (Career Readiness Certificates) have been earned by 626 which is 56% of the 1,100 goal
d. On the Job Training (OJT) awards have been issued to 2,942 participants which is 91% of the 3,200 goal

e. Employability Skills Curriculum is at 234 which is 195% of the 120 goal

f. Department of Labor Apprenticeships completers is 36 which is 113% of the 32 goal (Authorized in 2015)

In FY 2018, the District's Academic Goal was 4,395 which is 57% of the 7,692 goal.

Noteworthy in 2018

In FY 2018, the District received an “All Clear” audit from the Office of Special Education, for the Federal Title I N&D grant, and for the Accreditation Standards from the State Department of Education.

EFA Membership/Funding

The Education Finance Act (EFA) enrollment continues to decline. The 135 Day Average Daily Membership (ADM) was approximately 439. As the number of students decline so does funding.

School Improvement Council (SIC)

The SIC is mandated by the Education Improvement Act (EIA) and serves as an advisory committee to the District and assists in the preparation, implementation and evaluation of the five year plan and updates and in developing the Annual Report to the Public. Dr. Reagan presented each member with a wooden Plexiglas token of appreciation crafted by carpentry students. The members of this council are as follows: Beverly Holiday, John Barkley, Dexter Lee, Gwen Bright, Mike Brown, Joette Scarborough, Jannita Gaston, John Shipman, Steve Harbin, and Charlette Taylor, SIC Chair.

Student Average Daily Attendance Rate/ Educational Services Application

In 2018, the average student daily attendance rate was between 30 to 40 percent. The district wide goal is 80 percent. Dr. Reagan announced that the database is a work in progress and teachers must maintain hard copies of their attendance.

Student Academic Achievement

According to The RAND Report on the effectiveness of correctional education, inmates who participate in correctional education experienced a 43 percent reduction in recidivism. Inmates exposed to computer-assisted instruction; learned slightly more in reading, and substantially more in math. Every $1 spent on Correctional Education reduces incarceration costs by $4 to $5.

Academic Cup of Excellence

Leath Adult Education Center is the agency's overall winner across all three levels by exceeding the district's SAI Index of 616. The School Leader, Ms. Tammy Cunningham received the superintendent's Cup of Academic Excellence for a year, a recognition plaque, and a box of office supplies as well as bragging rights for one year. Warden Yeldell was assigned a laptop computer for one year.

2018 Palmetto School District Teacher of the Year

The District Superintendent and Chairman of the Board announced Ms. Tina Stahlman as the 2018 Palmetto Unified School District Teacher of the Year (TOY). Ms. Stahlman is a Lead Teacher at Kershaw. Ms. Stahlman is an exceptional teacher as evidenced by the accolades administrators, colleagues and students bestow on her. She is a dedicated Lead Teacher who exemplifies professionalism in her interactions with students and staff.

Ms. Stahlman received a rocking chair handcrafted by student inmates from Manning Reentry/Work Release Center and a reserved parking at Kershaw Correctional Institution. She will also receive, as all South Carolina District Teachers of the Year, a $1,000.00 check from the SC Department of Education and the opportunity to vie for the State Teacher of the Year title.
In Closing
The Chairman opened the floor for board members to provide remarks. Several board members expressed how wonderful and fulfilling graduation ceremonies are, congratulated all of the award recipients, thanked the certified teachers for their commitment, and indicated how impressed they were with the dedication of the PUSD staff.

With no other business on the agenda, Chairman Ragley made a motion that the meeting be adjourned at 10:58 AM. The motion was unanimously approved.

The next Board Meeting is scheduled for November 15, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

Lauren Alston, Recording Secretary

Introduction of New Board Member
Chairman Ragley acknowledged the new board member, Dr. M. Elaine Richardson, and asked her to introduce herself. Dr. Richardson is retired from Clemson University as the Director of the Academic Success Center and Director and Professor Emerita of Emeritus College. She serves as a board member on two other boards.

Ms. Beverly Holiday asked PUSD staff members to introduce themselves.
The following information was presented to the Board Members by Ms. Holiday and Mr. Shipman:

Student Enrollment
Total EFA (students enrollment is 474, and the total ABE enrollment is 1,794.

Average daily attendance is low (estimated at 20% as many institutions remain on partial lock down since April 2018. Manning, Camille Graham, and Leath are exceptions; at these institutions, students are being allowed to attend school regularly. The other institutions are working on a tiered gradual release system. Many teachers go to the dorms to provide packets of assignments and/or work with students directly in the dorms.

Staffing
Palmetto Unified School District has an approximate 30% vacancy rate. There is a national teacher shortage and better economy affects staffing, particularly vocational areas.

On the bright side, NeoGov, the new online application system will help streamline the process. PUSD has had an increase in applicants and several new hires.

Superintendent Selection Process
Ms. Rita Crapps presented information on the superintendent’s selection process. Section 24 25 90 (Code of Laws). Superintendent and other personnel to be employed according to the South Carolina Department of Correction policies and procedures. The superintendent of the district and all other education personnel shall be employed, supervised, and terminated according to the South Carolina Department of Corrections' personnel policies and procedures.

Ms. Rita Crapps stated that superintendent position will be posted on NEOGov and SCASA for three weeks. State laws dictate the South Carolina Department of Corrections to screen and vet all the applicants.

Budget Report
Financial spreadsheet was provided to Board Members.

2019 Academic Goal Attainment – 1st Quarter
GED’s/HS Diplomas – Goal 300; Attained 57 (19% of goal)
Vocational Certificate – Goal 3,000; Attained 361 (12% of goal)
WIN – Goal 1,100; Attained 128 (12% of goal)
OJT Awards – Goal 3,200; Attained 455 (14% of goal)
DOL Apprenticeships – Goal 30; Attained 0 (0% of goal)
Totals – Goal 7,630; Attained 1051 (14% of goal)

New Career Readiness Programs
Information Technology (IT) Computer Repair Program – propose to place two programs: one at Camille Graham and one at Turbeville. We have surplus equipment that could be used to learn basic repairs; other equipments would need to be purchased. Both Wardens have approved this idea.

Commercial Driver’s License (CDL) Program – propose to purchase a CDL simulator and place program at Manning as part of a part-time evening program. Mr. Reynolds, Carpentry instruction has agreed to teach this class; he currently is a certified CDL holder.
Heavy Equipment Operator (HEO) Simulators, Bulldozers, Backhoes, Graders, and etc. – propose to purchase a mobile simulator that would travel to selected institutions to provide HEO instructions to students on an as-needed rotation schedule.

Tiny House to be built and sold through Manning Carpentry program. If successful, expand to other programs (precursor to full size house build at Manning).

Teacher Certifications Updates

SCTS 4.0 – Student Learning Objectives (SLO); Evaluation cycle, GBE vs. Formal education. All educators within their licensure renewal cycle will need to complete the Read to Succeed requirements in order to have their licensure renewed. There are different Read to Succeed courses/requirements based on position/certification areas.

In Closing

With no other business on the agenda, Chairman Ragley made a motion that the meeting be adjourned at 10:58 AM. The motion was unanimously approved.

The next Board Meeting is scheduled for January 10, 2019, at 10:00 a.m., PUSD Board Room.
