Corrections, Department of

When trying to get assistance, all inmates must fill out a form and give to a guard. This is for medical, classification, mental health, or any assistance needed. They then rely on the guard to ensure it gets to the right place. Sometimes this happens and others it is misplaced whether by accident, negligence, or cruelty. Once it is misplaced the inmate has no record that he or she has ever asked for assistance or filed a grievance. Why doesnt SCDC give them duplicate forms? If these forms were in duplicate form they could give one to the guard and retain one for their records. It's very disheartening for say a mental health patient to make a request multiple times and nothing to come of it only to be told their case worker never received a request
