AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control (DHEC or the Agency) is an agency undergoing transformation—new leadership, new priorities and a new approach to the way we do business. Throughout the past year, under the leadership of a new executive management team, DHEC has established a strategic plan to guide our 3,400 employees in fulfilling our vision of healthy people living in healthy communities.

This recently unveiled strategic plan and roadmap charts a path toward modernization in service delivery, builds on our existing successes and aims to establish DHEC as a model of operational excellence in state government.

Our goal: To be the preeminent state public health and environmental protection agency in the nation.

DHEC is comprised of several thousand employees whose talents and dedication to public service improve the lives of South Carolinians every day. DHEC performs countless important functions impacting nearly every citizen of our state. The day-to-day activities of the Agency are extensive. Here's a snapshot of what "business as usual" looks like for DHEC:

- In State Fiscal Year (FY) 2014, we had 831,674 clinical client encounters for WIC, Preventive Health and Immunization services, including:
  - 596,662 WIC visits
  - 177,400 Preventive Health visits
  - 57,612 Immunization visits
- In 2015, our staff investigated a total of 363 acute disease outbreaks.
- During this same time period, our staff received and reviewed 55,254 reports of acute diseases (laboratory, morbidity reports).
- We also followed up and conducted contact investigations with 593 patients that were reported to have tuberculosis (TB) infection or disease (latent infection: 489, disease: 104).
- Through our follow-ups and contact investigations with these individual cases, our team identified 1,256 potential contacts.
- As of December 2015, DHEC's Environmental Affairs had over 30,000 active permits, including asbestos projects, private wells, septic tanks, industrial stormwater general permits, infectious waste generators, mines and more.
- In 2015, Environmental Affairs conducted over 90,000 inspections, covering programs as diverse as recreational waters and underground storage tanks to air quality.
- Also during this time, our Bureau of Environmental Health Service team responded to and investigated 46,188 complaints, ranging from rabies exposures to open burning to emergency response spills.
- During 2015, our Health Regulation team conducted over 8,020 inspections, including facility, construction, registrants of controlled substances, EMS agencies, ambulances and X-Ray machines. This includes:
  - 3,737 total facility inspections (including fire and life safety)
  - 398 construction inspections
  - 1,703 total inspections of registrant and controlled substances
  - 127 EMS agency inspections (out of 261)
  - 537 ambulance inspections (out of 1,881)
  - 1,394 X-Ray machine inspections
  - 132 facility inspections for radioactive materials
- DHEC's legal responsibilities currently touch on more than 360 state and federal statutes and regulations, and state provisos.

Over the past 16 months, the state has been impacted by many significant events, including statewide historic flooding, Hepatitis A in food service workers and TB outbreaks in various settings across the state.

DHEC continually prepares to respond to events that may impact the health of the public and the environment. Even with extensive preparation, sometimes the unexpected happens, such as the historic October 2015 flooding that impacted South Carolina. The Agency is proud of our successful response to both routine and extraordinary events, including the October 2015 flood.

AGENCY NAME:	Department of Health and Environmental Control
AGENCY CODE:	J040	SECTION:	034

October 2015 Flooding

Although DHEC is routinely prepared to respond to events impacting the health of the public and the environment, the October 2015 flood required a substantially increased level of action from the Agency. Despite the tremendous demands on Agency resources to oversee dams and staff mobile vaccination clinics, DHEC’s operations continued uninterrupted.

Collectively, DHEC staff expended more than 55,000 work hours on flood response and recovery. The Agency was able to mobilize, quickly identify problems and develop solutions, while continuing to provide the day-to-day services citizens require.

Hepatitis A Outbreak in Food Handlers

As part of normal operations, DHEC staff are continually prepared to respond to disease outbreaks. Occasionally, an outbreak response involves significant numbers of potentially exposed individuals, which requires an enhanced Agency response. That was the case in September 2015, when the Agency was notified by an Upstate hospital lab of a positive test result for Hepatitis A. DHEC staff immediately followed up with the hospital and began our investigation, including interviewing the patient, who worked as a food handler at a fast food restaurant. With a thorough interview of the patient and review of the medical record, staff quickly identified a related case in another food handler at a second location.

Within two days of notification, DHEC opened two vaccination clinics—providing the Hepatitis A vaccine to over 2,379 individuals in one weekend. An additional 2,596 individuals received vaccines during the following weeks for a total of 4,975 vaccinations administered in response to this event. A total of 277 DHEC staff from across the state provided the administrative and clinical support necessary to manage the potential outbreak. Additionally, the Agency staffed a call center through the weekends and for extended hours during the week to respond to questions and to provide accurate information regarding the need for vaccination. The outbreak was successfully managed and no patron of the restaurants has developed Hepatitis A.

Tuberculosis (TB) in South Carolina

The Agency is responsible for managing TB infection response in South Carolina. Last year, DHEC responded to 37 TB outbreaks in various settings, including a child care facility, a high school, multiple churches, dialysis centers, a nursing home and many other businesses. As part of DHEC’s TB outbreak investigations, 600 individuals were identified, assessed and tested. For all of these outbreaks, DHEC mobilized nurses, epidemiologists and administrative support from across the state to conduct large contact investigations. The state laboratory and the call center provided additional hours and resources to be responsive to individuals impacted by these investigations.

To be the preeminent state public health and environmental protection agency in the nation we are in the process of rebuilding our team, reinvesting in our infrastructure and strengthening our partnerships across the state. We face many challenges but are focused on tackling these challenges, some of which are discussed below.

SYSTEMS MODERNIZATION

As addressed in our $11.2 million recurring budget request, the Agency has many outdated or obsolete IT systems, including the DHEC data center and network. Substantial investments are needed to modernize these systems and remediating the data center at its current location is cost prohibitive. Therefore, through $8 million in funding provided by the General Assembly, the applications and the data stores will begin to be migrated to more modern hardware platforms in a secure data center. DHEC is working with the S.C. Division of Technology to successfully perform this migration and will pursue the additional funds necessary to fully complete this migration.

AGENCY NAME:	Department of Health and Environmental Control

Additionally, due to low bandwidth and outdated network equipment, the Agency is experiencing poor IT infrastructure performance, which interrupts services and productivity. To mitigate these problems, we are upgrading our network infrastructure and moving toward a four year routine life cycle management plan for network operations.

As a part of our goal of continuous improvement, DHEC is implementing numerous projects to advance our systems and processes. For example, once fully implemented, the South Carolina Infectious Disease and Outbreak Network (SCION) will allow DHEC staff to access information in a timely manner to initiate outbreak investigations, improve efficiencies related to surveillance, identify comorbidities and increase capability of managing contact investigations or outbreaks. The Agency is also employing an electronic document management system to securely digitize, access, sign and manage documents online from any device in order to reduce the amount of paper circulating throughout the Agency, improve process efficiencies and properly track and secure documents.

Two major projects we are currently pursuing include ePermitting and electronic health records. Both projects will require substantial Agency resources and funding, but will dramatically improve DHEC’s operations and our interactions with our customers. Through enabling online submission of forms and fees, a new ePermitting solution will not only expedite the permitting process but also improve transparency in permitting status for our customers. In addition, electronic health records will improve DHEC’s clinic operations and will allow for patient records to be easily and securely accessible in an electronic format, thereby improving staff and clinic productivity. This will also comply with the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH Act) and allow the Agency to continue to be eligible for Medicaid reimbursement.

FACILITY IMPROVEMENT

The Agency’s facilities are not suitable for a high-performance organization due to facility degradation, outdated structures and equipment and inadequate space. These adverse work conditions affect morale and reduce operational efficiency and productivity. The building conditions also impact customers receiving DHEC services and visiting DHEC facilities to conduct business.

DHEC’s aging facilities present potential safety issues and draw concerns of employees and visitors. In response to the LOC’s request for public input, several respondents expressed concerns over the safety of DHEC’s facilities. One respondent stated, “We are placed in buildings with poor infrastructure, bad air quality, mold and unsafe conditions.” Many DHEC locations struggle with building leaks, the presence of asbestos, prolonged temperature extremes due to frequent heating and air equipment outages, moisture issue – which increases the possibility of mold, electrical problems and potential trip hazards, such as torn flooring and broken pavement.

The Agency is partnering with the Department of Administration to evaluate our facility needs, especially those locations comprising the Central Office. The Department of Administration recognizes that DHEC’s Central Office locations have substantial deferred maintenance expenses and present significant space challenges. As such, the Agency and the Department of Administration are further evaluating DHEC’s options and potential hurdles, including funding, in pursuing Central Office consolidation. DHEC’s partnership with the Department of Administration will help when evaluating a feasibility study and cost benefit analysis of various redevelopment or relocation opportunities.

TALENT RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION

While DHEC has exemplary employees, it continues to struggle with talent recruitment and retention due to poor facilities and uncompetitive compensation. DHEC recognizes that we are unable to compete financially with the private sector for high-quality talent, and this was emphasized by numerous respondents to the Legislative

AGENCY NAME:	Department of Health and Environmental Control
AGENCY CODE:	J040	SECTION:	034

Oversight Committee’s request for public input. One respondent stated that, “employee salaries need to be [competitive] with other like services. [Turnover] is high and positions are difficult to fill due to extremely low salaries as compared to private industry, nonprofits, other states, and other agencies within South Carolina.” Another respondent expressed similar concerns: “Salaries are inferior to the private sector as well as other state agencies, particularly for seasoned staff.”

Career advancement opportunities, increased pay and challenging work are often identified as what employees and candidates seek from employment. To address these concerns, DHEC has worked with the Department of Administration to obtain increased hiring salary ranges for some key healthcare positions like pharmacists, nurse practitioners and epidemiologists.

As part of our ongoing efforts, the Agency continues to identify opportunities for advancement and to increase employee salaries. Additionally, DHEC is leveraging succession planning and career development to identify career advancement opportunities and challenging work as recruiting and retention tools.

Through recruiting, developing and retaining high-quality employees, DHEC is implementing strategies to fulfill our aspiration of becoming the premier employer in South Carolina and the nation a reality. To assist in this process, the recently-hired Talent Development and Recruiting Director is developing the Agency's recruiting strategy to increase the pool of talented applicants interested in working for DHEC. In addition, the Agency is implementing a comprehensive, electronic talent management system to include modules for succession planning, onboarding and performance review.

DHEC also recognizes that succession planning is vital for employee retention, and the Agency is identifying and grooming future Agency leaders through our newly implemented Leadership Excellence Achievement Program (LEAP). Consistent with our core value of inspiring innovation, the Agency pursued and received grant funding to begin this year-long invitation-only leadership program that targets high-performing employees with potential to attain management positions.

EMPLOYEE RETIREMENTS

Like many state agencies, DHEC is bracing for the upcoming wave of employee retirements and the loss of institutional knowledge. Approximately a quarter of DHEC’s employees (24.2%) are currently eligible to retire or will be eligible to retire in the next five years and an additional 10% of the Agency’s employees are active retirees and TERI employees, resulting in more than a third of DHEC’s workforce nearing retirement. Meanwhile, 42% of DHEC’s employees have been with the Agency less than five years. This disparity is concerning as it presents the challenge of succession planning and knowledge transfer. DHEC is aggressively working to prepare our workforce for the loss of this valuable knowledge and ensure continuity of operations at the highest level.

FUNDING

DHEC relies on funding from numerous sources and when this funding is reduced or eliminated, it greatly impacts the Agency’s ability to protect the health of the public and the environment. Operational budgets continue to be developed and we recognize that reliable, stable funding for basic Agency infrastructure is a key to ensuring consistent Agency operations and provision of services.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- I. Risk Assessment and Mitigation Strategies:
DHEC is in the process of performing an agency-wide risk assessment and resulting mitigation strategies. Notwithstanding this assessment, DHEC reviewed the potential negative impact if we fail to accomplish our goals and objectives as a part of our response to the Legislative Oversight Committee<sup>1</sup>. This review determined that if we fail to accomplish our goals and objectives there could be a substantial impact to public health and the environment in South Carolina. Examples include: disease outbreak; environmental contamination; increased mortality; decreased or delayed medical care and diagnosis; increased medical costs; decreased oversight; and the inability to respond to a public health or environmental disaster.

AGENCY NAME:	Department of Health and Environmental Control

The greatest potential impacts in DHEC’s ability to fulfill its vision and mission are the result of inadequate funding or statute/regulatory limitations. To mitigate the negative impact on the public, DHEC would need continued or increased funding, or support of statutory changes, if necessary. The General Assembly could help to resolve potential problems through continued or increased state funding, advocacy for federal funding or support of statutory changes.

II. Restructuring Recommendations:

As a part of our transformation, we are continually reviewing the way we do business. In our response to the Legislative Oversight Committee, DHEC evaluated our statutory requirements and presented potential modifications to these requirements<sup>2</sup>. As a part of our review, we considered whether modifications might be warranted due to the following criteria: Changes to be consistent with current science, terminology, and/or practices; Changes to improve efficiency (operational, regulatory, judicial, and/or fee structure); Changes due to recent court decisions; Changes due to current law not being mission critical; and Changes due to inadequate funding.

Based on this criteria, DHEC presented the recommendations to amend or eliminate the following statutes. The Agency would like to note that its recommendations are preliminary and have not been reviewed by potentially affected stakeholders. DHEC takes a very collaborative approach to pursuing statutory and regulation changes and would engage stakeholders for their feedback prior to moving forward with any proposed changes. Due to the preliminary nature of our recommendations, we do not yet have an outline or a plan to implement the restructuring recommendations.
