Employees need raises to keep up with economy.Wait times ,public flow makes it hard for employees to seek time off and when able to get time off there's the possibly the vacation or plans ,doctor appointments may be have to rescheduled.More emphasis seems to be on wait times and not the employees.Seems to be one agency that has a lot of turnovers.Lost real good employees due the work environment being stressful and private sectors paying more for the same type of jobs.Cost of living is higher in some areas more than others. Work hours seem to be longer and no overtime pay during work week.Just comp is given for over 40 during work week.
