Natural Resources, Department of

Re: Derrick Meggie has not been qualified for the positions he has held within the DNR. As Legislative Liason he did not keep staff fully apprised as to items that directly affected the agency. As Deputy Director of Outreach and Support Services Division he did not fully understand the operations of all of the services provided within his Division. He would take negative information from sources without first checking the complaint himself. Staff would receive negative reports from him concerning something that was completely incorrect. He would not listen to reason. Some incidents were placed in the records of the accused. He will not accept being wrong. It is always someone else to blame. He needs to understand his role better and the DNR policy on how to handle complains.
