Natural Resources, Department of

I think you shouldn't have to jump through hoops and fill out a bunch of paperwork and pay extra amounts of money and wait just to buy a salvaged boat! They make you go in the back and talk to some other ladies just to buy a boat if there is no title. I can understand if it is registered stolen. But when its someone's grandfather's boat but they don't have the title there should be a better way. Maybe like the way the DMV issues salvaged titles for instance! And whoever the public relations person is for DNR, if this was on the DNR website you probably would have more public participation instead of disgruntled employees sounding off. I didn't know this thing was available until a buddy of mine told me. It's almost near the end of the window to make comments! Thank you for the opportunity!
