History

In 1710, the first free public school in SC was established. By 1811, a new law was passed to establish free schools throughout the state, which aspired to place at least one public school in each of the state's 44 election districts. The SC Constitution of 1868 provided the first guarantee of a free public school system, describing a modern system to be funded by state and local taxes, open to citizens of all races. This system became the foundation of the public school system used today.

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION Molly Mitchell Spearman

Molly Mitchell Spearman was elected as the 18th South Carolina State Superintendent of Education on November 4, 2014 and re-elected to a second term on November 6, 2018. Native to Saluda County, Mrs. Spearman's childhood laid the foundations of family, faith, and hard work that transcended into her professional career as an educator and civil servant.

Superintendent Spearman's career has spanned 18 years as a public school music teacher and an assistant principal. In addition to teaching and administration, she has served four terms as a member of the South Carolina House of Representatives, six years as Deputy Superintendent of the South Carolina Department of Education, and ten years as the Executive Director of the South Carolina Association of School Administrators. She holds a B.A. Degree in music education from Lander University, a Master's Degree in education supervision from George Washington University, and an Education Specialist degree from the University of South Carolina.

As the South Carolina Superintendent of Education, Mrs. Spearman has the experience and relationships needed to move South Carolina's education system forward. Superintendent Spearman strongly believes the foundation for student success lies in effective classroom teachers and principals who facilitate personalized learning for every student, every day. Her vision is for every South Carolina graduate to be prepared for the next step after graduation.

Superintendent Spearman is excited to keep a positive and forward thinking approach to South Carolina education to promote better schools and brighter futures.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the South Carolina Department of Education is to provide leadership and support so that all public education students graduate prepared for success.

gency Comments Additional comments from agency (optional)		The number of teachers fluctuate from year-to-year; however, many of those teachers serve as an adjunct teacher (part-time) and are only used if additional classes are needed In many cases, not all of the teachers that were employed by the program were used each year. No new positions have been allocated to the office since 2015-16 fiscal year. Overall study growth has been limited due to not being able to hire additional teachers to take on more

		The number of course titles in the VirtualSC course catalog has increased each year based on student, school and parent feedback on needed courses. As new courses are added to the catalog the number of instructional materials also increases as each new course could contain several additional resources that need to be purchased for students. In addition to the new courses added, the staff involved with course development must also maintain the existing courses and ensure that all courses are standards aligned, ensure renewed on a 6 year cycle, which results in a higher net cost every 6 years in that category.

The contents of this chart are considered sworn testimony from the agency director.

addition to the new courses added, the staff involved with course development must also maintain the existing courses and ensure that all courses are standards aligned, ensure that unit goals are measurable and that the course objectives are aligned to assessments throughout the course. Each year many courses go through a revision process as standards change to ensure that all courses are standards aligned. So, staff are regularly involved in both new course development as well as on-going course revision. FY 2016-17 was a large renewal year for many of the program's instructional materials. This created a higher expenditure than in other years. Many instructional materials are

		This includes all functions of providing online professional development to educators statewide on various topics, including: Read to Succeed, technology integration, and online teaching. The primary costs associated with this program are costs of the technology used to create, develop and maintain the online courses, a registration system for educators to enroll into courses, and staff to oversee the program as well as teachers to facilitate the online professional development courses. The online PD program experienced major growth between the 15-16 and 16-17 fisca years due to the growth and demand for online Read to Succeed courses. In addition, the program is working directly with other agency offices to provide support for PACE, Read to Succeed, Teaching and Learning Standards, Online Teaching Endorsement, and many other popular PD opportunity for educators. The popularity of the program has continued to expand since 16-17 resulting in increased enrollments.

Intent SBE Reg. 43-236; 1.76

The Department of Education shall develop a curriculum, aligned with state content standards, organized around a career cluster system that must provide students with both strong academics and real-world problem solving skills. Students must be provided individualized educational, academic, and career-oriented choices and greater exposure to career information and opportunities. This system must promote the involvement and cooperative effort of parents, teachers, and school counselors in assisting students in making these choices, in setting career goals, and in developing individual graduation plans to achieve these goals. (Section 59-59-20 (A)).
