- III. In attendance from the South Carolina First Steps to School Readiness (First Steps) were the following: Dan Wuori (Deputy Director); Mark Barnes (Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer); and Julia-Ellen Davis (Interim Director). Representative Clary swore in the three representatives from First Steps.
- IV. Julia-Ellen Davis provided introductory comments to the Subcommittee.
- V. Representative Clary explained that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the finances of First Steps and the performance of the 4K program at First Steps, and to have a preliminary discussion of other programs at First Steps. Mark Barnes provided comments explaining the finances for First Steps. He, with the assistance of Dan Wuori, answered questions asked of him by Representatives Clary, Stringer, and Jefferson related to, among other topics, the sources of funding at the state and county offices of First Steps, the changes in the agency’s funding over time, and the differences between various areas of the agency’s budget.

Representative Clary summarized the nature of the Subcommittee’s requests for information relating to the agency’s 4K program, and asked the representatives from First Steps to summarize the agency’s response to the Subcommittee’s requests and to provide any additional relevant information that was not included in the agency’s submissions. Dan Wuori then testified about the agency’s 4K program, the agency’s relationships to the county partnerships, and the agency’s funding requests to the House Ways and Means Committee, and, with the assistance of Mark Barnes, answered questions asked of him by Representatives Jefferson, Stringer, and Clary.

- VI. Representative Clary referenced specific programs that were listed in the materials that the agency had submitted to the Subcommittee, and he asked the agency representatives to provide further information at the Subcommittee’s next meeting related to, among other things:
- (1) The basis of the agency’s decision to initiate some programs and/or end some programs;
  - (2) The number of constituents served by each of the agency’s standalone programs;
  - (3) The number of employees that the agency uses to staff its standalone programs;

- (4) The responsibilities of the agency as provided for in statute;
- (5) The amount of time the agency devotes to each county and the reasons therefore;
- (6) If first steps only could keep one program what would it be and why;
- (7) The program the agency believes best fulfills its purpose as provided for in statute; and
- (8) The program the agency would eliminate if it had to choose one and the reasons therefore.

Representative Clary explained that in the next meeting with the agency, the Subcommittee would also like to discuss the agency's program performance and the agency's governance.
