Agency’s Recommendations*

General

LEGISLATIVE OVERSIGHT - OVERVIEW

Foundation

The South Carolina State Constitution requires the General Assembly to provide for appropriate agencies in the areas of health, welfare, and safety and to determine their activities, powers, and duties.¹⁰ Stated public policy provides that this “continuing and ongoing obligation of the General Assembly is best addressed by periodic review of the programs of the agencies and their responsiveness to the needs of the state's citizens”.¹¹ The periodic reviews are accomplished through the legislative oversight process.¹² Specific statutes relating to legislative oversight are included in South Carolina Code of Laws § 2-2-5 et seq.

Purpose and Schedule

The stated purpose of legislative oversight is to determine if agency laws and programs are being implemented and carried out in accordance with the intent of the South Carolina General Assembly and whether or not they should be continued, curtailed, or even eliminated.¹³ The South Carolina House of Representatives’ Legislative Oversight Committee (“House Oversight Committee” or “Committee”) recognizes that a legislative oversight study informs the public about an agency.¹⁴ To accomplish legislative oversight, the specific task of the Committee is to conduct a study on each agency at least once every seven years.¹⁵ To guide the work of the Committee in completing its task, a seven-year study schedule is published in the House Journal the first day of each legislative session.¹⁶

Information Considered

Oversight studies must consider: (1) the application, administration, execution, and effectiveness of laws and programs; (2) the organization and operation of agencies; and (3) any conditions or circumstances that may indicate the necessity or desirability of enacting new or additional legislation.¹⁷ Evidence or information relating to a study may be acquired by any lawful means, including: serving a request for information on an agency; deposing witnesses; issuing subpoenas that require the production of documents; and, with certain exceptions, requiring the agency to prepare and submit a program evaluation report by a specified date.¹⁸ Testimony given to the investigating committee must be under oath.¹⁹ All witnesses are entitled to counsel, and they shall be given the benefit of any privilege which they may claim in court as a party to a civil action.²⁰ Certain criminal provisions are applicable during the legislative oversight process, including contempt of the General Assembly.²¹ Joint investigations with the South Carolina Senate (“Senate”) or with other committees in the South Carolina House of Representatives (“House”) are authorized.²²

AGENCY STUDY - ACTIONS

House Oversight Committee's Actions

On January 7, 2015, the House Oversight Committee approved a proposed seven-year study schedule for the Speaker of the House.²³ The Speaker approved the recommendations, which were published in the House Journal on January 13, 2015.²⁴ The Committee approved First Steps for School Readiness (“agency” or “First Steps” or “initiative”) as the third agency to be studied on February 5, 2015.²⁵ While not an agency in the traditional sense, the Committee has determined First Steps for School Readiness is an agency for purposes of legislative oversight.²⁶

The Committee notified the agency about the study on February 10, 2015. As the Committee encourages collaboration in its legislative oversight process, the Speaker, standing committee chairs in the House, members of the House, Clerk of the Senate, Joint Citizens and Legislative Committee Children, and the Governor were also notified about the agency study. The Honorable Mia S. McLeod serves on both the House Oversight Committee and the Joint Citizens and Legislative Committee on Children.

Subcommittee Studying the Agency

The Education and Cultural Subcommittee (“Subcommittee”) of the House Oversight Committee is studying the agency. The chair of the Subcommittee is the Honorable James E. Smith, Jr., the primary sponsor of the legislation that established the agency.²⁷ Other members are: the Honorable Gary E. Clary, the Honorable Joseph H. Jefferson, Jr., and the Honorable Tommy M. Stringer.²⁸

Meetings with the Agency

At this point in its study, the Subcommittee has met with the agency on two occasions. Executive Director Susan DeVenny (“agency head”) and First Step’s Board of Trustees Chair Ken Wingate provided the Subcommittee with a brief overview of the agency during an introductory meeting on February 24, 2015.²⁹ On May 12, 2015, the agency head and other agency staff met with the Subcommittee and provided testimony under oath in response to questions from the Subcommittee.³⁰

Information from the Public

From May 1, 2015, until May 31, 2015, the Committee posted an online survey to solicit comments from the public about First Steps and other agencies. There were 1,788 responses, with at least one coming from each of the 46 South Carolina counties.³¹ These comments are not considered testimony.³² As noted in the survey, “input and observations from those citizens who [chose] to provide responses are very important . . . because they may help direct the Committee to potential areas for improvement with these agencies.”³³ The public may continue to submit written comments online.³⁴

Information from the Agency

The Committee asked the agency to conduct a self-analysis by completing and submitting a Restructuring Report, Seven-Year Plan for cost savings and increased efficiencies, and Program Evaluation Report. The agency submitted its Restructuring Report and Seven-Year Plan, which were combined into a single report this year, on March 31, 2015.³⁵ The agency did not provide the number of hours required to complete the process since its “Board’s strategic plan is ongoing”, but it reported that 40 hours were required to complete the combined report.³⁶ The agency submitted its Program Evaluation Report on June 19, 2015, after being granted a thirty day extension by the Committee.³⁷ Both reports are available online.³⁸

Committee Staff’s Actions

Committee staff obtain, review, and provide highlights of relevant information in the staff study.³⁹ Relevant information may include: an agency restructuring report; an agency seven-year plan for cost savings and increased efficiencies; an agency program evaluation report; another submission to a legislative or executive entity, such as an agency accountability report; comments from the public concerning the agency; any information submitted by a legislative standing committee in the House of Representatives; and any information submitted by individual Members of the House.

Committee staff may also make recommendations to the Subcommittee based on the staff study.⁴⁰ The Subcommittee may follow some, all, or none of the staff’s recommendations and conduct any further study it desires. The staff study is intended for the internal use and benefit of Members of the House, and it does not reflect the views of the House, House Oversight Committee, or any subcommittees.⁴¹

Next Steps

The staff study will be shared with the agency.⁴² The agency has the option to provide a written response within ten business days for inclusion in the study.⁴³ This staff study, and any agency response, will be shared with the Subcommittee and legislative standing committees in the House of Representatives that share subject matter jurisdiction.⁴⁴

The Subcommittee may review the staff study and, if one has been submitted, the agency’s written response in order to determine what other tools of legislative oversight should be used to evaluate (1) the application, administration, execution, and effectiveness of the agency’s laws and programs, (2) the organization and operation of the agency, and (3) any conditions or circumstances that may indicate the necessity or desirability of enacting new or additional legislation pertaining to the agency.⁴⁵

Agency Organization and Operation

Creation and Reauthorization

The First Steps Initiative was created by Act 99 of 1999.⁴⁶ At the time it was the nation’s third public-private early childhood initiative.⁴⁷ Since its inception in 1999, over 20 states have developed similar models.⁴⁸

The First Steps initiative is a “broad range of innovative early childhood development and education, family support, health services, and prevention efforts to meet critical needs of South Carolina’s children through the awarding of grants to partnerships at the county level”.⁴⁹ The initiative consists of a Board of Trustees (“State Board”), the Office of South Carolina First Steps (“State Office”), and Local First Steps Partnership Boards (“Local Board”).

First Steps was originally created as a time-limited initiative, and it remains one under current reauthorization provisions. Act 99 of 1999 included a sunset provision that was to end First Steps on July 1, 2007, unless it was reauthorized by the General Assembly.⁵⁰ The General Assembly reauthorized First Steps until July 1, 2013, with Act Number 412 of 2006.⁵¹ Reauthorization provisions were included in the General Appropriation Act for Fiscal Year 2013-14 and Fiscal Year 2014-15.⁵² In June of 2014, the General Assembly reauthorized the First Steps Initiative again until July 1, 2016. Visual Summary Figure 2 provides a timeline of First Steps’ reauthorization provisions.

In 2014, the Office of First Steps Study Committee was established and tasked with, among other things, making recommendations about the agency’s structure.⁵³ The Office of First Steps Study Committee is scheduled to provide recommendations to the General Assembly by January 1, 2016.⁵⁴ The Honorable Raye Felder serves on both the House Oversight Committee and the Office of First Steps Study Committee.

General Responsibilities

The agency’s website describes First Steps as “the state’s comprehensive early childhood education initiative.”⁵⁵ A number of agencies provide a variety of services to children in South Carolina, including: Children’s Trust of South Carolina, Continuum of Care, Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Services, Department of Disabilities and Special Needs, Department of Education, Department of Health and Environmental Control, Department of Juvenile Justice, Department of Mental Health, Department of Social Services, Developmental Disabilities Council, Foster Care Review Board, Guardian ad Litem Program, John de la Howe School, Department of Health and Human Services, School for the Deaf and Blind, and Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School.⁵⁶

In its Restructuring and Seven-Year Plan Report, the agency was asked to provide its mission. The agency states that its mission is to “(1) provide parents with access to the support they might seek and want to strengthen their families and to promote the optimal development of their preschool children; (2) increase comprehensive services so children have reduced risk for major physical, developmental, and learning problems; (3) promote high quality preschool programs that provide a healthy environment that will promote normal growth and development; (4) provide services so all children receive the protection, nutrition, and health care needed to thrive in the early years of life so they arrive at school ready to learn; and (5) mobilize communities to focus efforts on providing enhanced services to support families and their young children so as to enable every child to reach school healthy and ready to learn.”⁵⁷ The legal foundations for the agency’s mission are found in statute.⁵⁸

Additionally, in its Restructuring and Seven-Year Plan Report, the agency was asked to provide its vision. The agency states that its vision is to “[c]onnect South Carolina’s high-risk children to coordinated, individualized interventions designed to improve their educational and developmental trajectories.”⁵⁹

Tasks for which the agency states it has a responsibility include:

- Sponsoring the Nurse-Family Partnership, Parents as Teachers, and other evidence-based supports to high-risk families;

- Providing services through BabyNet, which is an early intervention program for disabled and developmentally delayed infants and toddlers;
- Providing First Steps 4K and Early Head Start services, mostly within private preschool settings;
- Providing trained technical assistants to work on-site with child care providers;
- Awarding scholarships that give high-risk children the option to be enrolled in early education settings that exceed the minimum state standards; and
- Operating a six-week summer home visitation program that links the families of high-risk, rising kindergarteners with their child’s future kindergarten teacher.⁶⁰

To assist in understanding First Steps responsibilities as it relates to BabyNet, a review of these definitions may be helpful:

- "IDEA" is an abbreviation for a federal law, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 USC § 1400, et seq.)⁶¹
- "Part C program" means a program of early intervention services to infants and toddlers with disabilities required in each state by IDEA and for which First Steps is designated as the lead agency to administer the Part C program in South Carolina⁶²
- "BabyNet" is the interagency early intervention system that is the Part C program in South Carolina⁶³
- "Maintenance of effort" means the requirement of Part C program that relevant state and local agencies maintain a specified level of financial support for early intervention services in compliance with federal regulations (34 CFR 303.124)⁶⁴

First Steps is required to ensure that BabyNet complies with the maintenance of effort requirement by coordinating with all agencies that provide early intervention services in this State to make certain they properly document all Part C expenditures annually.⁶⁵

Table 3. Services and products the agency states it has a responsibility to provide⁶⁶

A South Carolina Legislative Audit Council (“LAC”) review of the First Steps Initiative in 2013 identified several operational problems.⁶⁷ Some identified problems were:

- The Trustees on the Board had not properly been attending meetings, and the Board had made significant corporate decisions without a quorum present;
- The agency used questionable statistics to support a claim that a decrease in the number of students who repeated first grade as an indicator of its success (First Steps disputes this finding by LAC);
- The agency had reported expenditure amounts in its annual report that differed from the amounts in the Governor’s Detail Base Budget to a significant extent (First Steps asserts the issue has been addressed in partnership with the Comptroller General by clearly distinguishing First Steps funding from the Department of Education funding); and
- The state appropriations acts did not specifically delineate appropriations for Local Boards in the line item for early childhood services since the State Office was also providing some of the same services.⁶⁸

Act 287 of 2014 addressed concerns identified in the 2013 LAC audit and enacted new accountability provisions for the initiative “to assess student progress, evaluate the performance of programs, and require state funds to be spent only on programs that are considered proven or promising according to research and evidence.”⁶⁹

An explanation of the agency’s structure may be helpful in understanding how it provides services.

The State Board

The State Board oversees, and is accountable for, the entire First Steps initiative.⁷⁰

The State Office

The State Office is under the supervision of the Board. The Board employs, by a majority vote, a Director of the State Office and all other staff necessary.¹¹⁴ The Director, with the approval of the Board, can hire necessary staff.¹¹⁵ Figure 5 is the organizational structure, as provided by the agency.

The State Office reports the above organization is a result of partnership feedback during First Steps’ recent legislative reauthorization process (2012-2014).¹¹⁶ This feedback led to reorganization of the State Office in an effort to improve effectiveness and responsiveness.¹¹⁷ The State Office states the changes included creating a dedicated Chief Partnership Officer position; restructuring the local technical assistance function; and filling the Finance and Operations Officer, a position the State Office chose to terminate during the recession to keep local direct services funds in place.¹¹⁸

Trends in authorized full-time equivalent positions (“FTEs”) at the State Office over the past ten years are summarized in Table 6 and Figure 7.¹¹⁹ According to the State Office, the BabyNet Program has resulted in the majority of increases in FTEs.¹²⁰

Authorized FTEs

Note: The number of authorized FTEs for First Steps this year is more than 6 times the number of authorized FTEs the agency had ten years ago.

Other
Coordinate the Initiative with all other state, federal, and local public and private efforts to promote good health and school readiness of young children and support for their families ¹³³

Local Boards

Each county in the state must be represented by a Local Board, but each county is not required to have its own separate Local Board.¹³⁴ A Local Board may represent more than one county, but must provide services within every county it represents.¹³⁵ To be designated as a Local Board, the entity must be a private nonprofit corporation organized under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, which are commonly referred to as charitable organizations.¹³⁶

A Local Board is comprised of individuals with resources, skills, knowledge, and interest in improving the readiness of young children for school. In accordance with the bylaws the State Board establishes for each Local Board, a Local Board must maintain a total minimum membership of 12 and a maximum membership of 30 elected, appointed and designated individuals.¹³⁷ The elected and appointed members comprise the voting majority of the board.¹³⁸ The chairman of a Local Board must be elected by majority vote of the board.¹³⁹ The chairman shall serve a one-year term, and may be elected to subsequent terms not to exceed a total of four consecutive years.¹⁴⁰ The terms of a Local Board member is four years and membership on the Local Board may not exceed eight consecutive years.¹⁴¹ A list of all Local Board members is published in the Local Board's annual report.¹⁴²

There are established parameters for local boards. No more than four individuals from any of the following categories may be elected to sit on a Local Board:

- Prekindergarten through primary educator;
- Family education, training, and support provider;
- Childcare or early childhood development/education provider;
- Healthcare provider;
- Local government;
- Nonprofit organization that provides services to families and children;
- Faith community;
- Business community;
- Philanthropic community; and
- Parents of preschool children.¹⁴³

The remainder of the Board is comprised of one member appointed by each of the following entities located within the Local Board coverage area:

- Department of Social Services;
- Department of Health and Environmental Control;
- Head Start or early Head Start;
- County library; and
- Each of the school districts in the county.¹⁴⁴

To assure that all areas of the county or multicounty region are adequately represented and reflect the diversity of the coverage area, each county legislative delegation may also appoint up to four members with two members appointed by the Senators and two appointed by the House of Representative members.¹⁴⁵

Local Boards may hire staff to assist in the performance of its responsibilities.¹⁴⁶ However, overhead costs of a Local Board’s operations may not exceed 8% of the total state funds appropriated for Local Board grants.¹⁴⁷ The State Board shall contract with an independent cost accountant to provide recommendations as to an adequate, and not excessive, overhead cost rate for Local Boards no later than July 1, 2017. Once these recommendations are received, the State Board may adjust the overhead percentage for the Local Board.

Local Boards have varied responsibilities, which are described in Table 7.

Table 7. Responsibilities of a local board

Responsibilities of a Local Board
Operations and procedures
Adopt bylaws, as established by the State Board, which must include the creation of a periodic meeting schedule ¹⁴⁸
Keep accurate records of the Local Board’s board meetings, board member's attendance, programs, and activities for annual submission to the State Board ¹⁴⁹
Implement fiscal policies and procedures as required by the State Office and as needed to ensure fiscal accountability of all funds appropriated to the Local Board ¹⁵⁰

Determination of needs, creation of strategic plan and implementation

Develop a strategic long-term plan for meeting the area needs related to the goals of the initiative ¹⁵²
Develop specific initiatives to implement the elements of the strategic long-term plan; and integrate service delivery where possible ¹⁵³
Coordinate and oversee the implementation of the comprehensive strategic plan including, but not limited to, direct service provision, contracting for service provision, and organization and management of volunteer programs ¹⁵⁴
Annual reports and continual assessment of needs in the coverage area
Collect information and submit an annual report by October first to the State Board, and otherwise participate in the annual review and three-year evaluation of operations and programs. ¹⁵⁵
Update a needs assessment every three years (changed from create and annually revise) ¹⁵⁶

Public Comments about the Agency

In the Committee’s recent public survey, more people chose not to provide input about this agency than chose to do so.¹⁵⁷ Notably, 1,195 survey participants skipped the question asking their current opinion of the office.¹⁵⁸ There were diverse statements from the 195 who provided written comments about the agency, a total of 36.84% indicated they were either not familiar with the agency (9) or stated they had no comments about the agency (5).¹⁵⁹

Relationships

The agency reports having various partners, customers, and stakeholders. These terms are defined in Figure 8. Table 8 summarizes information provided by the agency about these relationships.¹⁶⁰

Agency's Funding and Strategic Plan

The Committee's oversight reports have asked the agency for information about all sources of funding and the amount the agency is actually spending to achieve each portion of its strategic plan. Since all money available to Local Boards flows through the State Board, the information below is separated into Sources of Funding for the State Board and State Office, followed by an explanation of funding for the Local Boards.

Funding - State Board and State Office

There are two separate funds available to the State Board. The Board administers and authorizes disbursements from both funds, and the money in both funds may be carried forward from year to year.¹⁶³

Table 9. Types of funds available to the State Board

Type of Fund	Description
Donations	One fund accepts nongovernmental grants, gifts, and donations from any public or private source for the Initiative. ¹⁶⁴ Each donor may designate up to half of their contribution to specific counties or a county. ¹⁶⁵ Both the designated and undesignated funds may be used to meet the local match required in § 59-152-130. ¹⁶⁶
Appropriated Funds	A separate fund within the state general fund is established for monies that may be appropriated by the General Assembly for the Initiative. ¹⁶⁷

Historical information about the amount appropriated from the General Assembly to the State Board during the past ten years is provided in Table 10, and Figure 9 includes information about those amounts from the same period. Information about all sources of funding for the State Board during the last two years and anticipated funding this coming year is provided in Table 11.

Funding - Local Boards

Sources of Funding - State Grants and Private Donations

Each year, a Local Board must apply with the State Board to receive grant funding. The amount of grant funding provided to each Local Board is determined via formula funding. Each Local Board may also apply for, receive, and expend other federal, state, and local funds, grants, and private donations in order to improve evidence-based programs.²⁰³

Conditions to Receive State Grants

“As a condition of receiving state funds, each Local Board must be subject to performance reviews by the State Office, including, but not limited to, local board functioning and collaboration and compliance with state standards and fiscal accountability. If any significant operational deficiencies or misconduct is identified within the Local Board, the State Board must identify a remedy with input from the local legislative delegation.”²⁰⁴

In addition, each Local Board must provide an annual match of at least 15%.²⁰⁵ This minimum match can be adjusted by the State Board based on an individual Local Board’s capacity.²⁰⁶ A Local Board may obtain the match funds by applying for other federal, state, and local funds as well as private donations.

A Local Board’s grant must be contingent on the General Assembly’s appropriation of funds to use for offering grants.²⁰⁷ To obtain a grant, a Local Board must qualify by meeting the grant requirements established by the State Board.²⁰⁸

The State Board establishes internal evaluation policies and procedures for Local Boards for an annual review of the functioning of the Local Board, implementation of strategies, and progress toward the interim goals and benchmarks.²⁰⁹ Local Boards must agree to participate in such an evaluation in order to receive a First Steps grant.²¹⁰ “Subsequent grant approval and grant allocations must be dependent, in part, on the results of the evaluations. If an evaluation finds no progress has been made in meeting local goals or implementing strategies as agreed to in the First Steps grant, the grant may be terminated.”²¹¹

The purpose of the evaluation is to assess progress toward achieving the First Steps goals and to determine the impact of each strategy in supporting improved school readiness.²¹² During the course of the evaluation, if an evaluator determines that any state agency has failed to comply with the coordination and collaboration provisions as required in this chapter, the final report must reflect that information.²¹³

Funding Formula for State Grants

The State Board establishes a formula, which includes the identification of the most relevant and effective factors, by which the allocations for qualifying Local Board grants are calculated.²¹⁴ The Board identifies the factors, develops the funding formula, and promulgates them in regulation.²¹⁵ The factors used in the funding formula and the weight given to each factor must reflect that the intent of the General Assembly is to ensure the money allocated to each Local Board is in proportion to the following: (a) population of eligible children; (b) population of at-risk children; and (c) population with below average income.²¹⁶ The State Board is required to publish the grant qualification requirements and funding formula on its website.²¹⁷ Information about the funding formula, which is also on the First Steps website, is provided in Table 12.²¹⁸

Limitations on How State Grants can be Spent

Grant funds spent by Local Boards must be used to address the needs of young children and their families as identified in the Local Boards' comprehensive plans.²¹⁹ The funds must be used to expand, extend, or improve the quality of provided services if there is evidence as to existing programs' effectiveness; offer new or previously unavailable services in the area; or increase access to services.²²⁰

Grant funds may not supplant comparable current expenditures by counties or state agencies on behalf of young children and their families, and may not be used where other state or federal funding sources are available.²²¹ Also, funds received by a Local Board may not be used for capital expenses, new construction, or to renovate, refurbish, or upgrade existing facilities without prior approval by the State Board.²²²

Since 2014, at least 75% of state funds appropriated for programs must be used by the Local Board for evidence-based programs.²²³ No more than 25% of state funds appropriated for programs to a Local Board may be used for evidence-informed programs.²²⁴ Any part of the initiative within the county strategic plan using local district resources within a school district must be conducted only with approval of the district's board of trustees.²²⁵ All private and non-state funds must be used exclusively for meeting the goals and purpose of First Steps.²²⁶ These funds are subject to review by the State Office and State Board.²²⁷

Agency Plan, Taxpayer Investment, and Agency Performance

On the following pages is condensed information about the agency's strategic plan, state's investment in it and the agency's performance. The agency is not required to submit its strategic plan, via the Accountability Report, to the General Assembly and Governor.²²⁸ However, to assist the agency with providing the Committee with information about its strategic plan, the agency was provided a copy of the 2014-15 Accountability Report Guidelines.

A review of some key definitions from the 2014-15 Accountability Report Guidelines ("Accountability Report Guidelines") may be helpful in understanding information relating to a strategic plan. As defined in the Accountability Report Guidelines, a Goal (G) is "[a] broad expression of a central, strategic priority for an agency; a statement of what the agency hopes to achieve - typically in the long-term - that is qualitative in nature. At the highest level, each agency's goals should logically and naturally derive from the agency's mission statement. They should also be clearly connected to state government's overarching responsibilities in fields ranging from education and economic development to transportation and public safety."²²⁹ As defined in the Accountability Report Guidelines, a Strategy (S) is "[a] concise statement of a high-level approach an agency is taking in pursuit of a goal. It is a descriptive, complex action comprised of multiple action steps. Starts with action verbs like develop, design, establish, enhance, implement, etc. Includes completed details for budget, staffing, IT, marketing campaign and facility implications."²³⁰ As defined in the Accountability Report Guidelines, an Objective (O) is "[a] specific, measurable and achievable description of an effort that the agency is actively implementing over a defined period of time as part of a broader strategy to meet a certain goal."²³¹

Other helpful definitions are:

- $ Spent on Goal or Objective: These figures are taken from the "Grand Total" column of the agency's Strategic Investment Chart of the Program Evaluation Report. The chart asked the agency to list its expenditures in these years that were related to accomplishment of each objective.
- How Agency Measures Its Performance: This information is obtained by matching the Associated Objectives and Performance Measures in the Performance Measures Status Chart of the Program Evaluation Report.²³²

Condensed Details of the Agency's Strategic Plan

Tables 13 and 14 provide condensed details about the State Board's strategic plan. Table 13 lists the State Board's goals in order based on the percentage of total money spent toward each goal. The total amounts were calculated by adding together the total spent for each objective, or strategy if there were not amounts provided by the objectives, under that goal.

The data in Tables 13 and 14 highlight how the State Board is investing the money it receives from the people of the state (state appropriations and donations). The performance measures reflect a view of the return the people are receiving on that investment.

Table 13. State Board's goals in Fiscal Year 2014-15 in order from largest to smallest based on the percentage of total money spent toward each goal.²³³ The goals for the Initiative are specifically outlined in statute.

Agency's Highlights and Issues

Highlights

Some of the highlights provided by First Steps State Office include:

- In 2006, First Steps was the first in the nation to require use of interactive assessments within home visitation programs;²⁴⁰
- A 2010 external evaluation found,
 - 54% of participants who scored at a low quality of parenting improved to a moderate quality of parenting, 44% who had moderate parenting skills moved to high quality, and 11.9% who had low quality parenting at pre-test increased their skills to high quality; and²⁴¹
 - Parents and children participating in First Steps family strengthening programs demonstrate improvements in early literacy, with parents increasing their use/demonstration of key early literacy strategies by 32% (pre to post) and children increasing their own demonstration of these behaviors by 33%;²⁴²
- The outcomes of South Carolina's BabyNet early Intervention System consistently meet or exceed national averages on measures of key school readiness skills based on the following figures from fiscal year 2013: 82% of enrolled children increased their demonstration of positive social emotional skills (16% above the national average of 66%); 82% increased their acquisition and use of knowledge and skills including early language (11% above the national average of 71%); 82% of BabyNet clients increased their ability to use actions to meet their personal needs (11% above the national average of 71%); 59% of children were functioning within age expectations by the time they exited BabyNet in the use of appropriate behaviors to meet their needs and demonstrating positive social-emotional skills-both key prerequisites to school success according to First Steps;²⁴³
- A 2013 analysis by the SC Education Oversight Committee suggests that students participating in the Child Development Education Pilot 4K Program (CDEPP) - when matched against non-participating students with similar risk factors - were 7% more likely to score "Exemplary in Reading" as 3rd graders. These same students were 6% less likely to score "Not Met in Reading."²⁴⁴
- In 2013, 100% of participating teachers reported that parents participating in Countdown to Kindergarten, a First Steps program, were as or more involved than non-participating parents. This included involvement in activities such as parent/teacher conferences, attending school events and activities; maintaining contact with teachers, and volunteering in classroom or school activities.²⁴⁵
- A 2014 birth-outcome analysis conducted by DHEC's Bureau of Maternal Child Health showed that low-income mothers receiving Nurse-Family Partnership home visitations, a First Steps Program, were 63% less likely to require admission to a neonatal intensive care unit; half as likely to be born pre-term (less than 37 weeks); and half as likely to be born at a low birth weight;²⁴⁶
- First Steps' State Office reports serving
 - 391,450 constituents through its Local Boards' program from 2004 through 2014;
 - 7,183 constituents through its 4K program from 2006 through 2015; and
 - 25,059 constituents through its BabyNet program from 2009 through 2015.²⁴⁷
- From 2001-2012 Local Boards have raised $97,329,428 locally to match $213,413,977 in State funding.²⁴⁸

Current and Emerging Issues

The State Office does not report any current or emerging issues. According to the State Office, it has recently completed a “reform and reauthorization process” that “resulted in significant organizational and governance changes.”²⁴⁹

Potential Negative Impact, if the Agency’s Programs are Not Performing Well

In an effort to facilitate its ability to highlight potential problems at First Steps, the Committee asked the State Office to state the most potential negative impact on the public that may occur as a result of the First Steps’ programs not performing well. The Committee also asked at what level the State Office thinks the General Assembly should be put on notice of the potential problem. Table 15 brings together all of the potential negative impacts reported by the State Office.²⁵⁰

Table 15. Potential negative impact, if the agency’s programs are not performing well²⁵¹

Program	Potential negative impact	Level at which the agency thinks the General Assembly should be put on notice
Local Partnerships and Partnership Supports (i.e. Local Boards) Program Effectiveness and Efficiency Ranking: 1 (1 is most effective and efficient)	The most recent external evaluation of First Steps suggested that Local Boards are the "batteries" powering discussion of the needs of South Carolina's young children. Their underperformance would result in decreased efficiency and collaboration, the loss of a key community portal for families and the diminished capacity of funded services.	Local Boards are held to a detailed set of program accountability measures, reviewed as part of their annual grant application. The General Assembly should be put on notice if the number of conditionally approved (potentially underperforming) strategies rises.
First Steps 4K Program Effectiveness and Efficiency Ranking: 2	If the First Steps 4K program were to underperform, students would not receive a high-quality 4K experience- limiting school readiness.	First Steps provides intensive monitoring of local 4K providers to prevent negative impact. The General Assembly should be put on notice in the event that First Steps 4K results lag significantly behind those of public schools.
BabyNet Program Effectiveness and Efficiency Ranking: 3	If BabyNet underperforms SC children will not receive timely early intervention services, diminishing their chance of entering school ready to succeed.	BabyNet was moved to First Steps in 2010 as a 17-year-old system with chronic federal performance deficits. First Steps has worked diligently in the years since to reconstitute a system of general supervision and enact policies required by the federal government to the benefit of its client families. While this corrective action is ongoing, First Steps thanks the General Assembly for its attention to program needs in the proposed FY16 budget. New staff and resources hold the potential to significantly impact SC's federal Part C performance.
Policy and Accountability Program Effectiveness and Efficiency Ranking: 4	Without an effective policy, oversight and accountability functions, the efficacy of the public's investment in First Steps could not be assured.	First Steps undergoes regular performance reviews, with the most recent finding that the initiative is meeting legislative goals partially due to effective accountability and fiscal structures within the State Office. The General Assembly should be put on notice in the event this is no longer the case.

Early Head Start – Child Care Partnerships Program Effectiveness and Efficiency Ranking: Not ranked (agency stated this is a new program)	If this grant program underperforms, eligible children and families will not receive high-quality care and education.	State Office did not provide a level at which the General Assembly should be put on notice.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Agency’s Recommendations

Note: A summary of the agency’s recommendations are listed in Visual Summary Table 3 on page 13.

According to the State Office, the agency has recently completed a “reform and reauthorization process” that “resulted in significant organizational and governance changes.”²⁵² The State Office reports that the State Board is working on a systemic strategic plan, and it may have operational recommendations in the future.²⁵³

The State Office does recommend the Subcommittee review the references to First Steps found in law, and consider deleting two provisos as well as modifying five others. The State Office has provided bases for its suggestions in its Program Evaluation Report.

Committee Staff’s Recommendations

Note: A summary of staff’s recommendations are listed in Visual Summary Table 3 on page 13.

Staff respectfully requests the Subcommittee give consideration to the agency’s recommendations as well as the staff recommendations regarding potential areas for further study. Staff’s recommendations are based upon consideration of: (1) the application, administration, execution and effectiveness of laws and programs; (2) the organization and operation of the agency; and (3) conditions or circumstances that may indicate the necessity or desirability of enacting new or additional legislation.²⁵⁴ Other considerations include: percentages of total money spent by agency in certain areas, potential negative impacts, agency recommendations, and public comments.

Receipt of Report from First Steps Study Committee

Additionally, staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee consider deferring its approval of a Subcommittee study of the agency until the Subcommittee has had the opportunity to receive and review the comprehensive report regarding governance from the First Steps Study Committee. This report is scheduled for release January 1, 2016. This allows the Subcommittee to continue its study of the agency and have the benefit of a current comprehensive study regarding the governance of First Steps.

Performance Measures and Benchmarks

Staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee discuss and seek clarification about how the agency currently uses, and could expand the use of, performance measures and benchmarks to demonstrate to the public how it uses resources efficiently, and how its efforts are producing results in the families and children with whom it interacts. Most of the performance measures provided state only the number of visits, calls, or screenings as opposed to addressing the effectiveness of the agency’s action in producing actual positive outcomes.

Table 16. Sample of First Steps Output Measures

First Steps Performance Measure	Analysis by LOC Staff of what is measured
Local partnership education and support calls/webinars ²⁵⁵	First Steps holds monthly calls/webinars as a communication vehicle with and for Local Boards, with additional instances scheduled as needed. This metric measures the number of calls/webinars, which is helpful because the State Office is required to provide technical assistance, consultation, and support to Local Boards. However, this does not measure whether the calls/webinars are actually helpful or produce any substantial results.
Individualized technical assistance hours to support strategy implementation and local partnership planning ²⁵⁶	This is similar to the measure above, but it counts the number of individualized hours as opposed to the number of calls/webinars. Again, it measures the amount of time spent, but does not measure whether that time was spent efficiently or if there was any positive outcome.
Clients served through First Steps 4K ²⁵⁷ or BabyNet Clients served ²⁵⁸	This measure counts the number of clients served through First Steps 4K or BabyNet. It does not provide any information on whether the service provided was ultimately beneficial to the clients served.
Child care providers participating in Quality Enhancement are receiving high-quality technical assistance and support ²⁵⁹	The wording of this measure implies Quality Enhancement is high-quality technical assistance and support. However, this metric does not measure the quality of the assistance and support provided. It also does not provide any information as to whether the assistance was ultimately helpful. It only measures the average number of technical assistance visits per month. A potential measure to consider may be the number of repeat assistance requests on the same topic, with the goal being zero, as this would illustrate the initial technical assistance and support was clear, helpful, and understood by the child care provider the first time.

Output measures, like the samples in Table 16 above, do not provide information on the ultimate outcome of the visits, calls or screenings, nor whether any benefits were actually provided to the families or children. While the majority of First Steps’ performance measures are not outcome measures, the following three are,

- Home visitation clients are increasing their parenting skills²⁶⁰,
 - Method of Measurement: Adult clients assessed via videotaped assessment Keys to Interactive Parenting Scale (KIPS) within 45 days of entry or when the child is two months of age; then assessed six to nine months later and annually thereafter as well as upon program exit if possible.²⁶¹
- Home visitation clients are increasing their interactive literacy skills²⁶², and

- Method of Measurement: Adult and child assessed via Adult Child Interactive Reading Inventory (ACIRI) within 45 days of entry or when the child is 30 months of age; then assessed six to nine months later and annually thereafter as well as upon program exit if possible.²⁶³
- Child care providers participating in Quality Enhancement are improving the quality of their services.²⁶⁴
 - Method of Measurement: Baseline Environmental Rating Scale (ERS) administered in classrooms within 90 days of starting technical assistance (TA) visits, then post-ERS six to nine months later and annually thereafter.²⁶⁵

These are outcome measures because they measure scores on the different tests prior to and after the home visitation, or participation in Quality Enhancement, thus showing the outcome of the output (i.e. visit, etc). Unfortunately, the outcome of participating in Quality Enhancement program has been a lower score on the Environment Rating Scale each of the last two years (1.17 in 2013; 0.97 in 2014; 0.83 as of 4/30/15).²⁶⁶

Also, First Steps points to first grade retention data.²⁶⁷ However, First Steps use of this data has been questioned. The Legislative Audit Council found the methodology utilized was improper for several reasons and First Steps was reporting questionable statistics to the public by stating the implementation of early childhood development and education programs had coincided with a decrease in the percentage of students who repeat first grade and thus a large financial savings to the state.²⁶⁸ First Steps strongly disagreed with LAC's assertion and, in its recent Annual Report, clarified that it does not use first grade retention as a measure of the effectiveness of First Steps' programs, but a measure of the state's collective success in preparing young children for school.²⁶⁹

While First Steps states the General Assembly eliminated the state's common school readiness metric in 2008, there were statewide metrics the year First Steps started in 1999 through 2008. Cognitive Skills Assessment Battery (CSAB) was utilized from 1999-2001 and SC Readiness Assessment (SCRA) was utilized from 2001-2008. The Subcommittee may wish to request data related to performance on those assessments of children in First Steps' programs versus children with similar risk factors not in First Steps Programs. This information may provide a historical perspective the Subcommittee can utilize when analyzing how First Steps used scores from the statewide tests to adjust its programs and resources to obtain the most effective outcomes.

Based on the above, staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee discuss performance measures with First Steps to help the agency move toward using additional outcome measures, rather than relying so heavily on output measures, as a way to more clearly demonstrate its successes. Also, staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee discuss with the First Steps Study Committee whether or not the tests First Steps currently uses to measure its performance with home visitations and Quality Enhancement are the most appropriate means by which to measure those outcomes.

Collection and Utilization of Data to Focus Resources on Most Effective Programs

If First Steps State Office began collecting data in 2004, which would allow four years after first starting to obtain a solid presence in all 46 counties, the State Office would now have data on the long-lasting impact of its initiative since those participating in the initiative's programs in 2004 would now be completing middle school (i.e. 4 years old in 2004 would make them 14 in 2014). While some students may have moved during this time, there should still be a good pool from which to obtain this type of longitudinal data as First Steps' State Office reports serving 391,450 constituents through its Local Boards program from 2004 through 2014; 7,183 constituents through its 4K program from 2006 through 2015; and 25,059 constituents through its BabyNet program from 2009 through 2015.²⁷⁰

This longitudinal data may help First Steps focus efforts and resources on those programs which are most effective instead of continuing to expand its operations. While the State Office only lists a total of five programs in its Program Effectiveness Chart, its 2016 local partnership program matrix shows more than five.²⁷¹ According to the 2016 local partnership program matrix the State Office and Local Boards operate a total of 48 different programs grouped into four categories: (a) Parenting - 27 programs; (b) Early Education - 11 programs; (c) School Transition - 3 programs; and (d) Health - 7 programs.²⁷² This is double the amount they operated with state funds in fiscal year 2011-12, at which time the Legislative Audit Council recommended the General Assembly amend state law to limit the number of state-funded First Steps programs.²⁷³ While there may be value provided by all of the programs, a set limitation on the number of programs, may help ensure First Steps staff, and taxpayer dollars, are focused and utilized in the most effective and efficient manner.

Based on the above information, staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee discuss further with First Steps the collection and utilization of longitudinal data. In particular, how First Steps utilizes this information to identify the most successful programs and determine which of those it can operate most efficiently so other programs can be handled by outside entities or eliminated.

Collaboration with Other Agencies

First Steps Vision 2013 strategic plan, which was adopted in December 2009, states,

“In order for South Carolina First Steps to fulfill both these Vision 2013 goals and its own legislative mandate to serve as the state’s interagency leadership board for young children-providing venues at both the state and local levels for child serving agencies, organization, parents and private service providers to ensure the optimal and coordinated use of limited resources - it must work more aggressively to communicate, coordinate and collaborate with partner agencies and other key stakeholders.

This mandate, outlined broadly in the First Steps enabling legislation, takes on new significance in light of ... the Board’s current proposals to explore service coordination models based - in large part - on linking high-risk clients to the services of partner agencies.”²⁷⁴ (emphasis added)

Staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee further discuss with First Steps the actions taken to more aggressively coordinate and collaborate with partner agencies. In addition, staff recommends the Subcommittee request the data First Steps uses when determining which actions to continue or eliminate based on their effectiveness in linking high-risk clients to the services of partner agencies, including, but not limited to, information provided to Local Boards with details on services provided by other agencies, etc. Lastly, staff respectfully recommends the Subcommittee reach out to entities First Steps listed as partner agencies in the Restructuring and Seven-Year Plan Report to obtain feedback from those agencies on their working relationship with First Steps.

Staff respectfully recommends a review of the laws the agency has identified for potential revision. Some of the agency's recommendations have the goal of updating laws to match current facts. The agency has provided bases for its suggestions in its Program Evaluation Report.

(The Legislative Audit Council concluded that first grade retention, as used by First Steps, may not be a valid or reliable metric for demonstrating the effectiveness or financial impact of early childhood programs for the following reasons: (a) First Steps did not report the retention rates of students who had been participants in early childhood programs versus students who had not; (b) The retention rate data cited did not result from a formal evaluation of the effectiveness of early childhood programs. The methodology of a formal evaluation would address self-selection bias, in which families who enroll their children in early childhood programs may be different than families who do not, even when the families have similar demographics; and (c) South Carolina does not have statewide criteria for retaining students. Retention rates can be affected by criteria that vary from location to location and across time based on differences in local policies and the judgment of the children’s educators and/or parents.)

The Honorable James Smith, Chair

House Legislative Oversight Committee
Solomon Blatt Building Room 228

Columbia, SC 29201

September 16, 2015

Dear Representative Smith,

On behalf of the SC First Steps Board of Trustees, please accept our thanks for the thorough work of committee staff in preparing the Staff Report on South Carolina First Steps.

As you know, First Steps' enabling legislation was reauthorized and extensively reformed under Act 287 of 2014. We are pleased to report that these changes are already taking root in positive ways, with carefully-considered modifications to our state board structure paving the way to increased interagency collaboration, new evaluation requirements lending themselves to the detailed analysis of individual program investments, and a new legal definition of "school readiness" opening important cross-sector conversations about preparing the state's youngest learners for school success.

In January of 2015, Compass Evaluation and Research published the most recent external evaluation of the First Steps initiative, with evaluators concluding that:

1. First Steps' public-private structure and model of shared governance generate a high degree of value-added at both the state and local levels. (p.xxxi, p. 196)

Compass cites multiple examples of value-added by the First Steps initiative, including:

- Systems efficiencies such as non-duplication of services,
- Leveraging of available resources to support community needs, and
- Benefits that accrue to multiple family members.

2. First Steps is finding and serving the state's most high-need clients. (p. xxxi, p. 197)

Echoing previous evaluations, Compass notes First Steps' considerable success "in finding and serving the state's most high-risk children and families, with evidence suggesting a large percentage of current clients possess two or more readiness risk factors."

3. First Steps is meeting legislated goals. (p. xxxii, p. 197)

First Steps is investing "in multiple efficient and evidence-based strategies for ensuring children have reduced risk for major physical, developmental, and learning problems and can enter school healthy and ready to succeed. For example, children's pre-literacy skills are being addressed through family strengthening programs and available data suggest progress in child and family outcomes."

4. First Steps has a statewide fiscal and programmatic accountability structure in place to guide and provide oversight to local partnerships. This structure supports the translation of state-level priorities into practice. (p. xxxiv, p. 200)

Evaluators note that "First Steps has developed and implements processes to track expenditures and to regularly communicate with local partnerships regarding their expenditures, to ensure fiscal accountability, full expenditure of funds, and important internal control measures." In regards to program implementation, “the team commends First Steps on the development and use of Program Accountability Standards,” which they find to be “comprehensive and aligned with best practices.”

5. At the state and local levels, First Steps serves as the “battery” powering many of the state’s key early childhood conversations and practices. (p. xxxv, p. 200)

Discussing the initiative’s collaborative, state and local, public and private structure, Compass notes that “First Steps often and in many ways reaches beyond a circle of agencies and administrators to engage local community stakeholders such as parents, educators, and the Community of Faith in investing in early childhood, with investments occurring on the family, caregiver, and neighborhood level. It is these investments that often make the difference for at-risk and high-need children, as these children often require attention and support from multiple sources.”

The evaluators recommended that that First Steps:

1. Review and refine its evaluation design to align with new evaluative and accountability requirements. (p. xxxv, p. 201)

Given updated statutory requirements, “the nature of this recommendation is to ensure a comprehensive system of evaluation exists, with associated opportunities for technical assistance, training, and data quality reviews. These opportunities also can be used to expand or enhance existing monitoring efforts, to ensure high quality and verified data are available for evaluation and accountability purposes.”

2. Consider discussions and strategies for ongoing systems development. (p. xxxvi, p. 203)

“The data collected in this evaluation might allow state and local partnerships to engage in deeper conversation regarding what it means to have an early childhood system, how such a system might be conceptualized, and the different benefits that may result from continuing strengthening and development of the system.”

The First Steps Board of Trustees is currently responding to each of these recommendations within a strategic planning process, the results of which will be made available to the committee in December. We look forward to continuing our work with the House Legislative Oversight Committee and hope you will not hesitate to reach out if there are ways that our Board or staff can be of additional assistance to the committee.

Respectfully,

Susan W. DeVenny
