A. Glossary of Terms

1. Glossary of agency terms.

Term, Phrase or Acronym	Meaning of the Term, Phrase or Acronym
AUTHORITY/JEDA/SC JEDA	SC Jobs-Economic Development Authority, established in 1983 by the SC Legislature to promote and develop the business and economic welfare of the State; serves as the statewide conduit issuer of special obligation revenue bond and acts on behalf of the Borrower to access financial markets and capital.
SSBCI	State Small Credit Business Initiative. SSBCI, part of the federal Small Business Jobs Act of 2010, was funded with $1.5BN to bolster state programs supporting small business lending. Treasury awarded funding based on proportion of unemployed persons as a percentage of the national total to each state.
BDC	Business Development Corporation, established in 1958 by the SC Legislature to promote business and industry in the state, is a non-bank commercial lending company which serves as a certified community development financing institution.
SFAA	State Fiscal Accountability Authority - established by the state Restructuring Act of 2014 (Act 121) whose mission is to provide oversight of the State of SC and to meet the needs of the public sector
JBRC	Joint Bond Review Committee is a six member committee of the General Assembly which monitors policies and procedures relating to the approval of the issuance of state general obligation and institutional bonds
SC CCED	SC Coordinating Council for Economic Development was established in 1986 by the General Assembly to coordinate economic development efforts through the state; council consists of the heads of 11 state agencies concerned with economic development; SC Dept. of Commerce, SC Ports Authority, SC Department of Parks, Recreation & Tourism; SC Department of Agriculture, SC Technical College System, SC Research Authority, SC Department of Employment & Workforce, SC Department of Revenue, SC JEDA, SC Department of Transportation
PAB	Private Activity Bonds are tax-exempt by or on behalf of the local or state government for purposes of providing special financing benefits for qualified projects. The financings are most often for projects of a private user, and the government generally does not pledge its credit. Private activity bonds are sometimes referred to as conduit bonds.
IRB	Industrial Revenue Bonds (also known as known as Industrial Development Bonds) are a municipal security debt issued on behalf of private sector company and intended to build or acquire factories or heavy equipment or tools. IRB are a variety of private activity bond.

CONDUIT DEBT	Conduit Debt is limited-obligation revenue bonds or similar debt instruments issued by a state or local governmental entity for the express purpose of providing capital financing for a specific third party that is not a part of the issuer's financial reporting entity. Although conduit debt obligations bear the name of the governmental issuer, the issuer has no obligation for such debt beyond the resources provided by a lease or loan with the third party on whose behalf they are issued.
MUNICIPAL BOND	Municipal Bonds are available in both taxable and tax-exempt versions; tax-exempt bonds generate income which for most investors, is exempt from federal and, in many cases, state and local income taxes.
TAX CREDIT	A Tax Credit is an amount of money a taxpayer can subtract from taxes owed to their government. Unlike deductions or exemptions, which reduce the amount of taxable income, tax credits reduce the actual amount of taxes owed, dollar for dollar.
QECB	Qualified Energy Conservation Bonds, part of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. One of several types of tax credit bonds authorized under Internal Revenue Code Section 54A, which allow credit to investors that hold such bonds, one or more of the quarterly credit allowance dates and must be issued for capital expenditures incurred for reducing energy consumption in publicly owned buildings by at least 20%; implementing green community programs; rural development involving the production of electricity from renewable resources any qualified facility generating electricity from wind, closed loop biomass; open loop biomass, geothermal or solar, small irrigation, hydroelectric, gas from biodegradation of municipal solid waste, marine and hydrokinetic renewable; and trash combustion facilities.
ARRA Act	American Recovery & Reinvestment Act of 2009 was a stimulus package enacted by the 111 th US Congress and signed into law by President Obama whose primary objective was to save existing jobs and create new ones as soon as possible. Other objectives were to provide temporary relief programs for those most affected by the recession and invest in infrastructure, education, health, and renewable energy.
BABs	Build America Bonds were taxable municipal bonds that featured federal tax credits or subsidies for bondholders. BABs were introduced in 2009 as part of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act to create jobs and stimulate the economy. BABs expired in 2010.
RZEDB	Recovery Zone Economic Development Bonds; part of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. Recovery Zones were defined as any area designated by the

RZFB	 issuer as having significant poverty, unemployment, rate of home foreclosures or general distress. The issuer may elect to receive a direct federal subsidy equal to 45% of the interest payable on the interest payment date. Volume Cap limit is $10MM Bonds had to be issued prior to Jan 1, 2011. Recovery Zone Facility Bonds; part of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. Recovery Zones were defined as any area designated by the issuer as having significant poverty, unemployment, rate of home foreclosures or general distress. Bonds which may be used to finance certain commercial and distribution property within recovery zones for a qualifying business. 95% of net processed must be used for Recovery Zone property and bonds must be issued prior to 1 Jan 2011.
PFA	Wisconsin Public Finance Authority was created for the purpose of issuing tax-exempt and taxable conduit bonds for public and private entities nationwide. PFA is sponsored by the National Association of Counties, the National League of Cities, the Wisconsin Counties Association and the League of Wisconsin Municipalities.
VC Fund	Venture Capital Fund are investment funds that manage the money of investors who seek private equity stakes in start-up enterprises with strong growth potential. These investments are generally characterized as high risk/high return opportunity. Generally, venture capital investments are only accessible to professionals.
CDBG	Community Development Block Grants. CDBG is a federal grant program funded by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.
VOLUME CAP	The federally mandated volume cap limits the maximum issuance allowed for some categories of qualified PABs. Qualified 501(c)(3) bonds for nonprofit entities are a notable exception (most of JEDA's bond issuances are for nonprofits and do not require volume cap). State volume cap ceilings are established annually based upon annual state population figures. The 2020 per capita PAB volume cap is $105, which is approximately $540 million for South Carolina. The SFAA controls the allocation in SC. The State Housing Authority is the biggest user of allocation in SC, mostly going toward multi-family housing and mortgage revenue bonds. Any unused allocation at the end of each year generally is given to the Housing Authority and is available for the next three years. There is currently over $1 billion in carryforward allocation, in addition to the current year allocation.

7.	Role and responsibilities of the agency compared to its counterpart entities, if any, at the federal and local levels.	Federal counterparts There is no federal counterpart to JEDA; however there are several national issuers which are not connected with the federal government with the authority to issue conduit debt nationwide which are direct competitor to JEDA and which have issued conduit debt in South Carolina.
		Local counterparts JEDA is the only "qualified' statewide issuer of conduit debt for South Carolina. JEDA can issue bonds for hospitals, healthcare facilities, senior living communities, educational facilities, private universities, any non-profit organization, solid waste facilities and small manufacturing facilities.

Cities & Counties can issue bonds for hospitals and industrial development bonds; they cannot issue bonds non-profit entities.

SC State Housing Authority and local housing authorities can issue bonds for multi-family housing.

Other political subdivisions of the state (i.e.: Lexington Medical Center) can issue bonds for themselves

DOLLARS OF BONDS Through 6.30.2020

SSBCI PROGRAM

State Small Business Credit Initiative created through the Federal Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 to strengthen state programs which support financing of small business. Treasury awarded $1.5BN to 47 states. Act #30 of 2011 designated JEDA as authorizing agency to implement the SSBCI program on behalf of South Carolina and to contract with BDC to administer the SSBCI program. In 2011, SC received an award of $17.99MM which was deployed in capital access and other Credit Support Programs. As of Dec. 2019, the program has made over $46MM in loan participations with 32 participating banks; gross loans totaling $211MM, with the average loan amount being $916,000. Overall, the loans were for companies which impacted a total of 5,223 employees, of which 1,075 were new jobs created.

QUALIFIED ENERGY CONSERVATION BONDS [QECB] & RECOVERY ZONE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BONDS [RZEDB] PROGRAMS

Build America Bonds (BABs) were taxable municipal bonds featuring federal tax credits for bondholders and were introduced in 2009 as part of Federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) of 2009 to create jobs and stimulate the economy. Qualified Energy Conservation Bonds [QECB] and Recovery Zone Economic Development Bonds [RZEDB] were implemented by the federal government to fund infrastructure and facility improvements in areas of significant unemployment and poverty.

Counties and the cities of Columbia and Charleston each received an allocation of volume cap which it could use to issue Recovery Bonds and QECB bonds for eligible projects or could allocate its volume cap to other eligible issuers (state or political subdivisions authorized to issue bonds). Proceeds of the issue had to be used to finance eligible projects located within the jurisdiction of the issuer. The county or city could also waive its volume cap, at which time their allocation reverted back to state pool to be reallocated. South Carolina received a total volume cap allocation of $115,051,000 in Recovery Zone Economic Development Bonds; $172,562,000 in Recovery Zone Facility Bonds; $46,475,000 in Qualified Energy Conservation Bonds. JEDA was tasked to serve on the Advisory Committee and as custodian of records for the allocation and reallocation under American Recovery and Reinvestment Act [ARRA] program for South Carolina. The Recovery Zone programs expired in Dec. 2010. The Qualified Energy Conservation Bond Program expired in Dec. 2017.

ACCELERATOR PROGRAM

Working in partnership with the USC Center for Entrepreneurial and Technological Innovation to provide early stage investments in promising technology startup companies participating in USC Technology Incubator program. JEDA provided a total of $339,000 in to a total of 15 participating companies in three separate accelerator cohort groups in 2014, 2015 and 2017.

LEGISLATIVE CHANGES TO IMPROVE EFFICIENCY

- 0 March 2017- worked with legislators to develop legislation which became enacted as Act#80 passed 5/17/2017 with an effective date of 6/1/2017. This legislation amended Section 41-43-100 and 41-43-100 to transfer the approval process for JEDA bond issuances from the State Fiscal Accountability Authority to the SC Coordinating Council on Economic Development. This change was necessary given the infrequency of the SFAA meeting schedule, coupled with the advance submission deadlines required for projects to be considered on the SFAA agenda. Since the SCCCED is also an economic development engine as part of the SC Department of Commerce, they are familiar with JEDA and its mission and have regular monthly meetings, which allows for efficiency and certainty for JEDA projects and financing timelines. The change in approval processes has created a more seamless process for Borrowers, eliminating excessive waiting times, delayed or canceled meetings and an ability for projects to realize cost savings given a speedier process. This process additionally provides savings to the Borrower, in that JEDA manages the entire process, including submission of documents to attendance at meetings, functions previously conducted by bond counsel.
- March 2019- worked with legislators to develop legislation which became enacted as Act# 53 effective 5/16/2019. This legislation amended Section 41-43-100 relating to the Public Hearing Notice required under Federal Tax Law (TEFRA), allowing for the public hearing on a project seeking to issue bonds through JEDA to be conducted by JEDA in lieu of the hearing being conducted at the county or city where the project is located. Notice of the public hearing is published on the JEDA website, and in the newspaper of general circulation where the project is located and notice of the hearing is provided the Clerk of the County (or City) where the project is to be located. This amendment was sought to comport with changes authorized under Federal tax law change effective 4/1/2019, as well as improving efficiency and reducing cost to the Borrower.

10. 3-4 agency challenges. Briefly describe 3-4 agency challenges and preparations, if any, to address these issues.

NATIONAL ISSUERS

Because the local approval processes can be onerous and the timelines for approvals often can be uncertain, coupled with restrictions on JEDA's ability to issue bonds only in South Carolina, entities which have authority to issue conduit debt nationwide have been created. For example, as early as 2010, the Wisconsin State Legislature created the Public Finance Authority whose mandate is to issue taxable and tax-exempt debt nationwide with no economic impact requirement. Lacking the statutory authority for changes to JEDA's enabling legislation, JEDA will continue losing transactions to these national issuers.

VOLUME CAP ALLOCATION

The current process of volume cap allocation is obsolete and was put in place during a time when volume cap was at a premium, and projects in South Carolina were competing heavily for such allocation.

• Ceiling allocation statute defers projects over $10 million until after July 1 unless the SFAA determines that the positive impact on the State is of such significance that approval of the allocation is warranted prior to that time

- Frequency of SFAA meeting have decreased from ten years ago, and submission deadlines have increased, placing additional constraints on setting financing timelines for projects.
- Per State statute, volume cap allocation expires after 90 days, if bonds are not issued.
- There is limited demand for volume cap allocation, with hundreds of millions of unused allocation expiring each year.

Controlling Law IRC Code Section 146

THREAT OF ELIMINATION OF PRIVATE ACTIVITY BONDS &

OBSOLETE FEDERAL RULES REGARDING INDUSTRIAL REVENUE BONDS

The constant threat of elimination of private activity bonds by the federal government has been an ongoing concern which would have a devastating impact on JEDA, since it would eliminate the primary operating deliverable of the agency. Additionally, Internal Revenue Codes governing industrial development bonds have not been updated since 1986, resulting in nearly unviable restrictions on financing small manufacturing facilities using conduit bonds:

Summary of major drawbacks:

- o $10MM maximum tax exempt issue
- o $20MM cap ex limit for 3 years prior to and three yrs following issue
- o $40MM aggregate nationwide outstanding bond debt

REVISIONS TO FEDERAL TAX CODE IMPACTING INDUSTRIAL REVENUE BONDS

In cooperation with, and as member of national associations like the Council for Development Finance Agencies (CDFA) and the National Association of Health and Educational Facilities Finance Authorities (NAHEFFA), whose missions align with JEDA in advocacy and maintaining strong voices with Capitol Hill and government and federal administration about matters impacting the development finance industry.

 Revitalizing Tax-Exempt Bonds – rules governing tax-exempt bonds are largely the same they have been for over 30 years (since Tax Reform Act of 1986).
 Several tax exempt categories would benefit enormously from legislative reform taking into account the advanced state of the American economy, as well as the current challenges state and local governments face

11. 3-4 emerging issues. Briefly describe 3-4 emerging issues anticipated to have an impact on agency operations in the upcoming five years and preparations, if any, to address these issues.

II. Agency Records, Policies, and Risk Mitigation Practices

A. Records and Policies Management

12. (A) Agency's records management policy and the position or division responsible for managing this policy.	JEDA's records management policy is that aged records for closed bond transactions are catalogued, boxed and stored onsite under the care and custody of the South Carolina Department of Commerce. Due to the Internal Revenue Service records retention requirement (Section 1.6001-1(e) for conduit bond issues, documents must be retained for as long as the bonds are outstanding plus three years after the final redemption date of the date bonds. This rule is also consistent with specific record retention requirements under section 1.48-5(d)(6)(iii)(E) of the arbitrage regulations. The Administrative Manager serves as Records Custodian. Current and recently redeemed and refunded bond issues are stored in fireproof filing cabinets for the duration of the bond issue.
(B) Agency's status in regards to compliance with the records management policy and explanation for non-compliance, if the agency is non-compliant.	Due to the nature of conduit bond transactions and the fact that many bonds have maturity dates up to 35-40 years, having ready access to bond files is imperative. The Internal Revenue Service routinely audits bond issues even after maturity or refunding. These audits are extremely time sensitive and as the conduit issuer of the bonds, JEDA serves as primary contact and responder to the Internal Revenue Service on audits, thus having the ability to readily access the files without delay is imperative. JEDA does not currently utilize the SC Department of Archives & History for records storage.
13. Agency's schedule for regularly reviewing and updating, as necessary, all agency policies and explanation for lack of a schedule, if the agency does not have a schedule.	JEDA staff, along with its Board of Directors, review its enabling statutes, bylaws and policies and updates them, as necessary. There is no formal schedule for this review process.
14. (A) Agency's status in regards to compliance with S.C. Code Ann. §1-23- 120(J) that requires agencies to conduct a formal review of its regulations every five years.	The agency is compliant with S.C. Code Ann. §1-23-120(J). (1) JEDA has reviewed its Regulations and has begun the process to repeal them due to their obsolescence, in accordance with this article. Drafting Notice was published in the State Register on 2-28-2020.
(B) Last time the agency conducted a formal review of its regulations.	2019/2020

16. Does the agency receive data from other state agencies, which require manual entry? If so, identify the state agencies and the associated data received.	No

B. Internal Audit and/or Other Risk Mitigation Practices

17	. (A) Agency's internal audit process and/or other risk mitigation practices.	NOTE: JEDA is a two-person agency and any separation of duties or challenges identified by external auditors related to internal audit controls have been addressed by developing protocols which have satisfied any findings identified linked thereto:
		JEDA issues conduit bonds to finance qualifying projects for non-profits, educational facilities, small manufacturers and solid waste disposal facilities.
		JEDA reviews each application and supplemental documentation to ensure compliance with requirements for conduit issue; engage with bond counsel, issuer counsel, trustee counsel, lenders, trustee, financial advisors, underwriters to ensure project proceeds through process. Monitors appropriate approvals are received; [a] project inducement by JEDA board; [b] conduct TEFRA hearing; [c] request issuer counsel approval by SFAA; [d] request trustee from Treasurer; [e] ensure volume cap allocation requested (if applicable); [f] submit project to and represent project before Coordinating Council for Economic Development for approval of bond issuance; [g] final bond approval by JEDA board; [h] coordinate closing of bond transaction with all members of financing team.
		Once transaction is closed, ensure that issuer fee is paid and posted accurately. Updated Bond Closing Summary Report and forward to Executive Director
		Monthly, prepare post issuance compliance self-certification and annual fee invoicing for projects based on anniversary month issue; prepare summary report for Executive Director
		Prepare annual audit of all outstanding bonds at conclusion of fiscal year and provide summary total to external auditor.
		Disbursements are supported by invoices which are reviewed and approved by Executive Director.
		JEDA is not part of state payroll system and is not part of SCEIS systems, has contract bookkeeper who performs all accounting duties and enters payroll data, which is processed by ADP Payroll Services.
		[See CASH RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENT POLICY attached on page 31]
		JEDA is subject to an annual external audit which is conducted by an audit firm selected by the SC Office of the State Auditor. Since 2017, the audit firm awarded the JEDA audit is Mauldin & Jenkins. From 2008-2016, Brown CPA was awarded the contract to perform the audits. The audit is performed at the conclusion of our fiscal year, June 30 ^{th.} Audit is submitted directly to the Office of the State Auditor and Comptroller General and generally available by mid-September. All audits are available for viewing on the website of the OSA: https://osa.sc.gov/reports/

(A) Other questions that may help the Committee and public understand how the agency operates, budgets, and performs	JEDA was created by an Act of the General Assembly [Section 41-43-10], is a quasi-public instrument of the State which promotes the business and economic welfare of South Carolina by assisting in the financing of public and private projects throughout the State. JEDA serves as a statewide conduit issuer of special obligation revenue bonds and acts on behalf of the borrowing entity to access financial markets & capital. JEDA serves non-profit organizations, including educational facilities, healthcare facilities, and other non-profit organizations such as foundations, museums, Goodwill Industries and YMCA; small manufacturing facilities as well as solid waste disposal facilities which qualify for tax-exempt and taxable financing. JEDA's mission is to advance the economic welfare of the State with focus on job creation and retention. JEDA is completely self-funded agency and supports its operation primarily with revenues generated through its bond issuing activities. The Authority operates at no cost to South Carolina tax payers nor from dollars appropriated by the South Carolina General Assembly or federal government. JEDA bonds involve no state funding, incur no pecuniary liability or charge upon the general credit of the State or the Authority, or against the taxing powers of the State.

CASH RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS POLICY

JEDA is a small agency whereby complete segregation of duties is difficult to achieve. Internal controls over cash receipts and disbursements begins with separating functions that would not allow one individual to complete a transaction from start to finish. The current staff consists of the Executive Director, Administrative Manager and a part-time bookkeeper. JEDA utilizes QuickBooks and maintains all of its own accounting records. All payroll functions are contracted with ADP. The bookkeeper is the only individual that can make entries into the accounting and payroll systems. The Executive Director and Administrative Manager are limited to read only access and report capabilities.

Cash Receipts:

All invoices are originated by the Administrative Manager and given to the bookkeeper for recording as receivables. These mainly consist of bond issuer fees and annual fees. The Executive Director is provided either a copy or listing of fees billed. JEDA contracts with the Department of Commerce for certain office services. This includes receiving all checks mailed to JEDA and depositing directly into JEDA's checking account utilizing the Desktop Deposit system. The checks and deposit receipts are then given to the Administrative Manager and bookkeeper for recording. Occasionally, checks are received directly by JEDA and deposited in the bank by the Administrative Manager. These instances are noted on the deposit receipts.

Cash Disbursements:

Invoices are received by the Administrative Manager where they are stamped with the incoming date and forwarded to the Executive Director for approval. All invoices must be approved by the individual receiving the goods and/or services, as well as the Executive Director. The bookkeeper prepares all cash disbursements and payments based on approved invoices. Upon payment of a bill/invoice, a duplicate stub containing the payment date, check number and expense account is stapled onto the bill. The check along with the invoice copy are then forwarded to the Executive Director and Administrative Manager for signature. All checks are required to have two signatures. The checks and necessary accompanying materials and are then mailed. The paid invoices are filed in the monthly accounting folders.

The Budget & Finance Committee is provided a listing of all checks paid in excess of $500 for review at their quarterly meetings.

Any check greater than $25,000.00 (except for payroll transfers) is required to have approval by a member of the Board of Directors, designated by the Chairman.

Bank Reconciliations:

The Executive Director reviews the bank statements and check images for any unusual transactions before forwarding to the bookkeeper. All bank accounts should be reconciled in a timely manner by the bookkeeper. The Executive Director reviews all bank reconciliations.
