Making South Carolina a Safe Place to Work and Live

LLR Mission & Vision

Mission

The mission of LLR is to promote the health, safety and economic well-being of the public through regulation, licensing, enforcement, training and education.

Vision

LLR will provide responsible regulatory oversight. We will work with licensees, boards, associations, and citizens to achieve the shared goals and interests of our state. LLR will cultivate an atmosphere of trust, integrity, innovation, compliance and accountability with our partners, leading to a better future for citizens. Through the agency's work, LLR will reduce injuries in the workplace, fire-related injuries and fatalities, and licensee misconduct through education and enforcement.

Professional Licensing Historical Highlights

1817 - The state legislature passes a law requiring each apothecary to obtain a license. The law also establishes examination and license prerequisites for the practice of pharmacy.

1875 - Board of Dentistry is established.

1891 - Physicians first become licensed.

1915 - Board of Accountancy is established.

By 1991 there are 37 licensing boards created as separate and distinct state agencies.

Labor Historical Highlights

1903 - First state labor law passed to address issue of child labor.

1936 - The Department of Labor is created.

1972 - South Carolina becomes the first state to have a state-administered OSHA plan approved by U.S. Department of Labor.

1985 - The General Assembly enacts the South Carolina Elevator Code and the South Carolina Amusement Rides Safety Code.

1986 - The South Carolina Payment of Wages Act is enacted.

State Fire Historical Highlights

1958 - The Commissioner of the South Carolina Department of Insurance is designated the “State Fire Marshal, ex officio” by law.

1966 - Office of State Fire Marshal transferred from the Department of Insurance to the Division of General Services in the State Budget and Control Board.

1969 - Statewide training program created for public sector and private industry firefighters under the state technical education system.

State Fire Historical Highlights

1974 - The South Carolina Institute of Fire Technology (later renamed the South Carolina Fire Academy) opens near Columbia Airport under the direction of Midlands Technical College.

1979 - The South Carolina Fire Commission is created in an effort to bring the Office of State Fire Marshal and the SC Fire Academy together.

1986 - The SC Fire Academy is transferred from the State Technical Education Board to the Division of State Fire Marshal within the State Budget and Control Board.

LLR History Highlights

1993 - The Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation is created through the South Carolina State Government Restructuring Act. The law merges into one agency the former Department of Labor, Office of State Fire Marshal, SC Fire Academy, and 37 professional and occupational licensing boards.

1993 - A groundbreaking ceremony is held for a new SC Fire Academy near Monticello Road in Columbia.

1995 - The 208-acre campus of the SC Fire Academy opens.

LLR History Highlights

1996 - The “Engine Bill” is passed to define LLR’s administrative functions and creates uniformity where applicable to the different licensing acts.

1997 - The State Massage/Bodywork Panel is established.

2003 - The Perpetual Care Cemetery Board is established (after previously being sunsetted).

2006 - Panel for Dietetics is established.

2010 - Soil classifiers and landscape architects are transferred from DNR to LLR.
