Minority Affairs Commission

I am surprised that board some members that were appointed to the CMA Board, to help solve problems has ended up trying to tear it down. By going to the State House instead of working to solve it in house. I think someone need to remind this board member why he is there. It may be time for the Governor to look at replacing the board member that has not helped this commission in many years, his term has been up for many years, it's time to give him his gold watch and send him home.
