So scdc have no overall concerns about this coronavirus and how it's affecting the inmates there and the second wave that's coming.. I would think in the heat of things they would consider releasing as many inmates as possible being that they're released with conditions, but 30 out of 69 inmates is not a good percentage at all. The thing is that we're coming to scdc scppp before we have to contact anyone else and get them involved.. if you look this up you will see that this same situation happened in Alabama about 2 months ago and ACLU of Alabama had to get involved they filed law suit against Alabama prison system and they had to revise their whole parole board system and their release percentage rating... All we're asking is that scdc have a look at what's going on with the coronavirus and how it's affecting everyone and consider releasing more inmates to condition supervision parole...Thank you for your time
