Probation, Pardon, & Parole, Department of

We need to find out what system the parole board is using for these inmates..since June 2nd out of approx 115 inmates a total of 22 were approved for parole?? Is this insane? What in the world do these inmates need to do to show they have redeemed themselves and changes their lives around? Something needs done about this inmates are starting to think it's a racial issue..or it's because the state does not want to loose the money they make off these inmates..we need to do better then this to get control of our inmate population
