6. (A) Organizational Units Details Chart.

See attached chart.

(B) Has the agency ever conducted an employee engagement, climate, or similar survey? If yes, when was the last one and who conducted it?

Our agency conducts an employee satisfaction survey each year. SAF's Human Resource Department last conducted a survey in July 2019.

(C) Does the agency conduct employee engagement, climate, or similar surveys on a regular basis? If yes, what is the frequency?

Yes. July of each fiscal year.

 Role and responsibilities of the agency compared to its counterpart entities, if any, at the federal and local levels. SAF provides workers' compensation coverage for all South Carolina state agencies and those counties, municipalities, agencies and institutions thereof that elect to have coverage through SAF. The following entities provide similar coverage on the federal and local levels:

Federal counterparts

Civilian employees of the United States are covered under the Federal Employees Compensation Act (FECA), which is administered by the Department of Labor's Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP).

Local counterparts

South Carolina Association of Counties

A statewide organization, providing statutory workers' compensation coverage for county governments.

Municipal Association of South Carolina

A cooperative local government program providing self-funded workers' compensation protection for municipal employees.

South Carolina School Board Insurance Trust

An insurer of workers' compensation coverage to South Carolina school districts.

*Please note, the local counterparts are SAF competitors when it pertains to non-state agency policyholders.

8. Organizational Chart.

D. Successes and Issues

9. 3-4 agency successes. Briefly describe 3-4 agency successes.

- 1) After fourteen years, the State Accident Fund has a new Executive Director. As a result, many changes have occurred at SAF in the past year. The agency has increased its size 24.6%. This includes the addition of several new positions (Human Resources, Benefits, Inspector General, and Governmental Affairs/Program Manager), more adjusters, and additional safety and Information Technology personnel. These additional employees will help foster an improved work place and provide our policyholders with improved services to assist their injured workers, and ultimately, limit their out of work status.
- 2) The working organization of the agency has been revamped to encourage a better working environment with advancement opportunities for employees and the agency Organizational Chart has been updated to better reflect the operations of the agency.
- 3) SAF has changed its claims handling to reflect a philosophy of pro-active service for injured workers. New settlement and mediation procedures and new service vendors to minimize case expenses.
- 4) We are utilizing new Actuaries to assist SAF in producing better rates for our policyholders resulting in significant savings for South Carolina.

10. 3-4 agency challenges.

Briefly describe 3-4 agency challenges and preparations, if any, to address these issues.

- 1) The replacement of the current case management system remains a challenge for the State Accident Fund. Although this was underway some years ago, the selected system, after successful RFP, filed for Bankruptcy, leaving the Fund with the challenging task of selecting a new vendor utilizing the State's procurement process. We are currently working with Procurement Services to publish a new Request for Proposal (RFP).
- 2) The lease for SAF's office space expired in 2014. Since that time, it operated on a month-to-month agreement with the current landlord. Upon her arrival as Executive Director, Amy Cofield immediately began working with Real Property Services to select a new office location. After a state RFP, a new location was selected and approved by the Joint Bond Review Committee (JBRC) and State Fiscal Accountability Authority (SFAA) in October 2019. The agency is expected to move prior to October 1, 2020, and it expects multiple challenges in managing costs and maintaining operational efficiency during that time.
- 3) Under prior management (2004-2018), SAF lost over 150 policyholders. As the agency seeks to regain the business from these prior policyholders, as well as potential new policyholders, it faces competitive challenges from other workers' compensation insurers.

4) As a State Agency, SAF is dependent on State Procurement and the Requests for Proposal (RFP) process to retain needed services and vendors to assist in the performance of our core functions. The agency has faced, and continue to face, delays in the procurement processes, which have negatively affected our ability to secure timely contracts for vital vendors and services.

11. 3-4 emerging issues. Briefly describe 3-4 emerging issues anticipated to have an impact on agency operations in the upcoming five years and preparations, if any, to address these issues.

1) House Bills 4147 & 4777

Members of the House have proposed two bills involving presumptions regarding PTSD in first responders (H. 4777) and certain occupational diseases in firefighters (H. 4147). SAF insures many of the State's police departments, fire departments, and other public safety entities. If passed, these two bills could have a significant impact on SAF and these employers, to include increased claims costs and premiums. SAF will continue to monitor these two bills and adjust procedures as necessary if passed.

2) Staff Retention

As the unemployment rate remains low and the economy continues to progress, the discrepancy in compensation between state and private industry will make it increasingly difficult to hire and retain quality employees. SAF is working to provide advancement opportunities within the agency and foster a positive work environment.

3) Technology and security of information.

Cyber security and insurance technology changes pose challenges for SAF, as a state agency, to keep up with trends and advancements within our industry especially in light of cost and selection restrictions imposed by state regulations. SAF has hired additional qualified IT staff and updated our systems and infrastructure, and is working to develop a comprehensive information security program. SAF is keeping up with those challenges by purchasing a Cyber Liability Policy procured by SFAA and providing additional staff training regarding the protection of information.

4) Medical Marijuana

The legalization of medical marijuana is spreading throughout the United States. As a result, workers' compensation carriers are being faced with the challenges of managing the use of medical marijuana in claims and the consequences of intoxication in the workplace and increased liability. SAF will continue to monitor laws in South Carolina and address concerns as they arise.

II. Agency Records, Policies, and Risk Mitigation Practices

A. Records and Policies Management

12. (A) Agency's records management policy and the position or division responsible for managing this policy.

In accordance with provisions of Title 30, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, Sections 30-1-10 through 30-1-140 the State Accident Fund follows the below approved retention schedule.

Under the leadership of SAF's new Executive Director, SAF is in the process of reviewing all agency policies and making revisions as necessary. Going forward SAF will formally be reviewing its policies every five (5) years.
r S 1 a f	A) Agency's status in regards to compliance with S.C. Code Ann. §1-23-120(J) that requires agencies to conduct a formal review of its regulations every five years.	The statute does not currently permit the agency to promulgate regulations.
c	B) Last time the agency conducted a formal review of its regulations.	N/A s	C) Last time the agency submitted new or revised regulations to the General Assembly.	N/A c a (How the agency collaborates with other agencies to seek funding e.g. grant and federal funding).	N/A c a n id a	Does the agency receive data from other state agencies, which require manual entry? If so, dentify the state agencies and the associated data received.	SAF receives premium audit data from all state agencies. This data, mostly consisting of payroll information, is entered manually in SAF's underwriting system in order to formulate annual premium. SAF receives case specific data from agencies, e.g., wage information, employment history, incident reports, etc., related to active workers' compensation claims.

B. Internal Audit and/or Other Risk Mitigation Practices

17. (A) Agency's internal audit process and/or other risk mitigation practices.

• Claims Staff Audit

In addition to their annual EPMS evaluation, Claim Adjusters are audited annually to ensure proper work performance in accordance with the law. Reviewed are areas such as timely payment of benefits, correct reserving practices, and proper settlement of claims.

Accounting Monthly Reconciliations

Accounting conducts reconciliations of bank accounts, fund accounts, premium, and claims activity and conducts a monthly budget review of expenditures.

• Email and Web Content Filter

SAF uses email and web content filters to mitigate cyber security risks such as phishing, malware, and ransomware infections.

• Separation of Duties

SAF mitigates risk with separation of duties including multi-level approval processes and least privileged access. This is true for all departments.

• Secured Recycle Bins

SAF disposes of all Protected Health Information (PHI) via a secured shred disposal company.

Contract Attorney Evaluations

At the close of each legal file, the claims adjuster provides feedback regarding the contract attorney's performance and overall handling of the file. Management and our Executive Director review these evaluations to ensure proper assignment and handling of SAF's legal files.

Training

SAF regularly provides training in all departments including, but not limited to, Claims, Legal, Human Resources, Safety and Security, and IT.

Human Resources

SAF's Human Resources Department implements several risk mitigation processes to ensure proper hiring and a productive work environment. Those processes include, but are not limited to, background and reference checks to reduce negligent hiring, exit interviews to identify trends or patterns, I9 Audits to ensure compliance with hiring and labor practices, and education for employees regarding time and attendance policies to avoid Fair Labor Standard Act violations.

These statutes and regulations are extremely cumbersome and conflicting, and cause significant confusion and subsequent litigation. This requirement ultimately forces uninsured employers genuinely believe they are exempt from the Act because they maintain a work force of less than four employees. Because, however, they failed to file a Form 38 with the Commission, they, as well as the taxpayers of South Carolina, become liable when the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Uninsured Employers' Fund steps into their shoes to pay their uninsured claims, and then, afterward, prosecutes a collection action against them.
