AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OVERVIEW

The Administrative Law Court (ALC or Court) is an independent agency and court of record within the Executive Branch. The ALC has six (6) Administrative Law Judges (ALJs), including a Chief Judge. Each ALJ is elected to a specific seat by the South Carolina General Assembly and may employ other staff as authorized by the General Assembly to hear and dispose of matters within its statutorily mandated jurisdiction. The ALC hears many types of cases involving state agencies except those cases arising under the Consolidated Procurement Code, the Public Service Commission, and the Workers' Compensation Commission. (See Age of Disposed Cases below for specific case types filed with the Court). The Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings (OMVH) is a division of the ALC and has four (4) hearing officers plus staff, who are appointed and hired respectively by the Chief Judge, who serves as the Director of the Office. The OMVH conducts contested cases regarding certain decisions issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The ALC is always improving upon how it protects data and Information Technology (IT) assets against increasing cyber threats and vulnerabilities. The ALC depends heavily on network and information systems for essential operations and data security. A culture of awareness regarding security risks is our standard at the ALC and we accomplish that with a multi-layered security and defense approach focusing on sophisticated and blended cyber-attacks. The ALC places extremely high importance on the cyber security education of all agency employees, making sure users stay informed. We recognize that the first line of defense in maintaining the security and integrity of our IT assets and networks starts with informed IT personnel and network users.

RISK ASSESSMENT AND MITIGATION STRATEGIES

The Chief Judge is statutorily responsible for assigning a specific ALJ to each case filed with the Court. At the OMVH, the cases are automatically assigned to a hearing officer based on specific geographic regions. The Chief Judge is also responsible for the administration of the Court and the OMVH, including budgetary matters and supervision of the support staff. The other ALJs have supervision of their administrative assistant/law clerk. There are currently no plans in development to change the structure or organizational framework and procedures of the Court or to recommend that the General Assembly make any statutory changes. However, we continue to closely monitor our results and performance measures to determine if any future changes will be necessary.

Each ALJ is individually responsible for ensuring the fair and prompt disposition of the cases assigned to his or her office. The greatest risk to the public if the Court fails to timely dispose of cases is the possibility of cases becoming moot before they can be resolved, which could negatively affect the parties involved. Although the litigants often ask for continuances due to discovery and scheduling issues, the Court seeks to balance those requests with timely review to ensure a court system that is fair and prompt for all litigants. The primary support for a court to efficiently and timely dispose of its docket is to have adequate resources to do so. This may be in the form of additional judges, staff, or funding that is not reliant on fees.

FILINGS WITH THE COURT BY JURISDICTIONAL TYPE

The Court has jurisdiction over four types of matters:

Contested cases. ALJs preside as the fact finder in contested cases involving departments of the executive branch of state government in which a single hearing officer, or an administrative law judge, is authorized or permitted by law or regulation to hear and decide these cases, with certain exceptions. The ALC’s contested case jurisdiction is outlined in S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-600(A).

Appeals. ALJs hear all appeals from final decisions of contested cases heard by state agencies pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act, Article I, Section 22 of the South Carolina Constitution, or another law, except for appeals from final decisions of the Public Service Commission, the State Ethics Commission, the Procurement Review Panel, and the Workers Compensation Commission. The ALC’s appellate jurisdiction is defined in S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-600(D). The Court also hears appeals pursuant to Al-Shabazz v. State, 338 S.C. 354, 527 S.E.2d 742 (2000) and Furtick v. South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services, 352 S.C. 594, 576 S.E.2d 146 (2003).

Regulation hearings. ALJs preside over public hearings held during the promulgation of regulations by a department of state government for which the governing authority is a single director. Upon the conclusion of a regulation hearing, an ALJ issues a written report including findings as to the need and reasonableness of the proposed regulation. If the report includes a finding of a lack of need or reasonableness, the report may include suggested modifications to the proposed regulation. For more information concerning regulation hearings, refer to S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-111.

Requests for injunctive relief. The ALC has jurisdiction to hear requests for injunctive or equitable relief filed by state agencies that are authorized by law to seek such relief. The ALC may review and enforce an administrative process issued by a department of the executive branch of government, such as a subpoena or cease and desist order. In addition, a party aggrieved by an administrative process issued by an executive branch agency may apply to the ALC for relief from the process. Under the South Carolina Administrative Procedures Act, ALJs have the power to issue those remedial writs as are necessary to give effect to its jurisdiction. Further, ALJs have the same power at chambers or in open court as do circuit court judges, including the power of contempt.

The number of appellate cases filed with the ALC (excluding appeals from the Department of Corrections (SCDC) and the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services (SCDPPPS) has increased significantly over the years. When appeals from SCDC and SCDPPPS are included in the statistical analysis, the number is even higher. (See charts below). This increase in SCDC and SCDPPPS appeals is attributed in large part to recent “prevailing wage” issues related to the Prison Industries Program and the South Carolina Court of Appeals’ decision in Torrence v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 433 S.C. 633, 636, 861 S.E.2d 36, 38 (Ct. App. 2021), reh’g denied (Aug. 4, 2021), cert. denied (Aug. 3, 2022).

Agency Mission

Adopted
in:

1994

The Court's mission is to provide a neutral forum for fair, prompt, and objective hearings for person(s) affected by an action or proposed action of State agencies or departments within the Court's jurisdiction. Prior to the creation of the Court, citizens who had a dispute with a state agency and wanted to challenge any action related to the dispute had to appear before hearing officers employed or contracted by that particular agency. However, the Administrative Law Court now provides separate adjudicatory proceedings from agencies which conduct the investigative and policy-making functions. The ALC also offers a forum to enforce the decisions of administrative agencies. In fulfilling its function, the Court places a very high value on its ability to be fair and neutral to all litigants that appear before it and continues efforts to improve those results.

The Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings (OMVH) was created in 2005 as an office within the ALC and its mission is to provide a neutral forum for fair, prompt, and objective hearings for persons affected by certain actions or proposed actions of the SC Department of Motor Vehicles, ensuring due process and respecting the dignity of all.

Agency Vision

Adopted
in:

2014

The Courts vision, including OMVH, is to provide a technologically advanced court, easily accessible by all customers and stakeholders, to ensure the fair, prompt and objective resolution of all cases.
