

State Artificial Intelligence Task Forces & Advisory Bodies

A state-by-state comparison, as of September 2026

Sources & Methodology

This document combines research conducted in September 2026 to identify AI task forces, advisory councils, commissions, and study committees in 49 states (South Carolina excluded)

Two important notes:

- Bill statuses reflect the most recent information found.
- 'No dedicated AI task force identified' means no standing task force, council, commission, or study committee was found at the time of this report. This does not necessarily mean the state has no AI-related activity at all (many states without a task force still have targeted AI laws, private sector guidance, or agency policies).
