Letter of Intent Form

Pursuant to S.C. Code Section 2-20-330, each candidate who desires to be considered for nomination as a trustee must file a letter of intent to seek the office with the Commission.

This letter of intent is to be filled out by each individual applicant and submitted to the Commission when the applicant submits their application packet.

Once the Commission has received a hand delivery of the candidate's letter of intent and application packet, the Commission will then begin to investigate the candidate as appropriate.

Please fill out the following to be in compliance with the letter of intent:

Name: _____

Seat you are applying for: _____

Email Address: _____

Home Mailing Address: _____

Telephone Numbers _____
(including cell): _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Please fill out the above letter of intent completely, including signature, and return this document in person along with your completed application packet to the College and University Trustee Screening Commission.
