This case involved a prominent citizen who was charged with DUI after being involved in a wreck that killed 3 teenagers. This case had large amount of community interest. The defendant did not appeal the sentence but continues to update me from prison as to his work educating and assisting other inmates.

- (b) State v. James Richard Bartee, Jr.; 2012GS3700597:

This case involved a former Secret Service Agent who ran for Sheriff of Oconee County. I ruled that he did not meet the eligibility requirements for that Office. During a weekend continuation of the hearing, the party was charged with attempting to obtain the services of a person to kill the Judge and the complainant. He was later sentenced for the crime and did not appeal my Order. I was required to work with SLED constantly for 4 days.

- (c) State v. Heather Sims; 2013GS2605244:

This was a murder case in Horry County. I was required to hold a full week of Stand Your Ground hearings during the summer prior to the fall trial. The trial itself was televised live at times and lasted for 4 full weeks. Some of the best experts in the world testified. One attorney was partially deaf and both attorneys were very aggressively representing their clients. The trial was the most challenging courtroom experience of my entire life. The jury found the defendant Guilty of Voluntary Manslaughter. That guilty verdict was overturned on Appeal and the Court of Appeals ruled that Double Jeopardy had attached. It was an important learning experience.

- (d) Phillip Ashley, et al v. Anderson County School District 2 School Board, et al;
2019CP0401118:

This case is currently on Appeal. It is another case with a huge community interest. I have ruled that a School Board Member's resignation was complete upon delivery to the Board. There is only one case from the early 1900's that served as precedent. My order will be the second case on this topic.

- (e) State v. Billy Cartrette:

This case is an old criminal case. No records have been found. I decided not to send the defendant to prison but instead sent him to drug treatment. He is one of the rare success stories. He sends me a greeting card every month updating me on his successful life, family, and faith. It was a simple case in which I took a chance on a defendant and it worked. It is my favorite case.
