This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

I believe that my parents influenced and guided me to strive to act in accordance to the highest standard of morality. Every day, I try to make informed, educated decisions based on research, information, morality, and equity. During my tenure as both an attorney and a Circuit Court judge, I have had the opportunity to have relationships with mentors who are highly respected in the legal community.

I believe that judicial temperament and patience is of the utmost importance. I believe in permitting attorneys to make their arguments in completion. Both oral arguments, written memoranda, and legal research are all components whereby I base my decisions. I take my position as a member of the Judiciary seriously and have strived to make thoughtful, deliberate, and ethical decisions.
