(c) I passed the bar exam on my only attempt in late July, 1985.

10. Describe chronologically, since graduation from law school, your legal experience. Please include a list of all positions held in which you worked in a legal capacity. Describe the general character of your practice and divide it into periods with dates if its character changed over the years. Please also describe the extent to which you were involved with the administrative and financial management of each of these entities, including management of trust accounts.

March 1982 through November 1985 (when I was sworn into the bar) I worked at the Saleeby, Cox and Bledsoe law firm located in Hartsville, SC as a law clerk. The majority of my work for Saleeby, Cox and Bledsoe was during the summer and between the fall and spring semesters. I worked as a clerk for the SC Senate Judiciary Committee during my second year of law school which was the fall of 1983 and spring of 1984.

November 1985 through July 1989 – I was an associate attorney at the Saleeby, Cox and Bledsoe law firm. During my years at the Saleeby firm I handled many different areas of practice including personal injury, criminal, workers compensation, civil litigation, probate matters, real estate and domestic.

In July 1989 I left the Saleeby firm and joined with then solo practitioner David M. Beasley (both of us grew up in Lamar, SC) to form the firm of Beasley and Warr in Hartsville, SC. Later, attorney John M. Ervin III joined our firm. In 1993 James H. Lucas and Fred W. Auman, III left the Saleeby firm and joined our practice. In 1994 Beasley was elected Governor and left the practice of law. During the years from 1989 to 1994 I practiced primarily in the areas of personal injury, real estate, probate, domestic law and I was regular counsel to Carolina Bank & Trust Company. I also handled general civil litigation matters. In 2005 H. Thad White Jr. joined our firm. In 2009 Fred W. Auman III left our office and began a solo practice. Our firm has been known as Lucas, Warr & White since 2009.

For approximately the past fifteen (15) years I have steadily increased my practice in Circuit Court mediation and serving as special referee in non-jury matters. I have heard many civil matters as special referee and in recent years I have mediated many cases in primarily Darlington County and Florence County. Otherwise, I still do some personal injury practice, real estate, probate, general civil litigation and business formation and transactions. I remain as regular counsel to Carolina Bank & Trust Company which I have done since 1989. I have not been a practitioner in the Family Court for the past several years, but I have approximately thirty years of experience in Family Court matters.

From 1989 to 1994 I jointly managed our firm's regular and trust accounts with David Beasley. After Beasley left the practice I became the office manager as to financial management and management of trusts accounts. I continue that role currently at Lucas, Warr & White.

11. Please answer the following:
  - (a) If you are a candidate for Family Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience within each of the following Family Court practice areas: divorce and equitable division of property, child custody, adoption, abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice. Include information about cases you have handled in each of these practice areas, or if you have not practiced in an area, describe how your background and procedural knowledge has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Family Court judge. Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Family Court judge within the past five years.

My experience in the Family Court began as soon as I was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1985. I began at that time to handle divorce and child custody matters. Additionally, I was frequently appointed to represent parties in DSS cases and to serve as a guardian in those matters. I have handled a few adoptions but I have not been involved in an adoption for many years. As to equitable distribution, I believe I am capable not just from my legal experience, but also I was an accounting major in college and I have business experience outside of the practice of law. In the DSS appointments I received for many years I handled a variety of matters dealing with abuse and neglect of minor children and juveniles who had experienced trouble. I have represented parents accused of neglecting or abusing children and I have often served as guardian for children in DSS cases and in child custody disputes. Through the years I handled many divorce cases which at times were contested as to divorce, child custody and equitable distribution.

I have not been a practitioner in Family Court for the past several years. However, I do have about thirty years of experience in the Family Court.

I have in recent years heard a wide variety of cases as special referee. I believe I have learned a good deal about dealing with emotional parties and anger between litigants. Serving as special referee has also given me experience in ruling on matters during a hearing, handling objections and dealing with other unpredictable matters which arise.

I have combined my service as special referee with an increasing case load as Mediator. I mediate many different types of matters pending in the Circuit Court and I believe I do so efficiently.

12. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench?
  - (a) Federal: I have not appeared in Federal Court in the past five years. In the earlier years of my legal career when I practiced more heavily in general civil litigation I appeared a fair number of times in Federal Court.
  - (b) State: In the past five years I have been to trial in only one jury trial (automobile accident) as we now settle many matters at mediation. I have appeared in many non-jury matters such as on motions and I have appeared on a regular basis before a special referee or Master-in-Equity. I have handled many foreclosure matters for a banking client before a special referee or Master-in-Equity in the past five years.

56. Are you active on or a member of a social media or Internet site such as, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Instagram, etc.?

If so, please list the account names for each account and the relevant platform.

How would your use of social media or other similar types of Internet sites be affected if you were serving in a judicial capacity?

I have a Facebook account and a LinkedIn account. I rarely use LinkedIn. As to Facebook, I do on occasion use it to send birthday wishes or like a picture of a friend or their child. I rarely comment. I have shared a few items over the years about USC Gamecock sports or a similar item. I never make any comment about or share any political matter or any potentially sensitive issue. If serving in a judicial capacity I would never make any comment and possibly would terminate any such account.

57. List all civic, charitable, educational, social, and fraternal organizations of which you are or have been a member during the past five years and include any offices held in such a group, and any professional honors, awards, or other forms of recognition received and not listed elsewhere.

58. Provide any other information that may reflect positively or negatively on your candidacy, or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek. This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

I was raised in a rural community in Darlington County. We lived on the farm where my father and grandfather also were raised. My mother also grew up in a farm family not far away in Florence County. As a child I had all of my grandparents near me and I was regularly with them. My parents both grew up working hard on the farm and that was expected of me also.

When I was eight years old I was told my time to work in the tobacco field had arrived. I was excited about it until I actually got started. The difficulty of the work and the heat all day was extremely tough, but it made me realize life is not easy and every day would have its challenges. My father often gave me serious tasks to handle at a young age. Out of necessity, I learned how to be self disciplined.

My father Preston Warr farmed, operated an agricultural retail business, operated a tobacco sales warehouse, served in the state House of Representatives and for twenty-five years served as a part-time Magistrate in Darlington County. I was with him on many occasions as he handled a wide variety of issues and conflicts. Obviously, I am favorably biased toward my father, but he was an outstanding Magistrate who could read people and he was always courteous and kind to them. Although he retired from that position over twenty-five years ago, I still hear stories from people who were in law enforcement and others with civil matters who tell a story about appearing in Magistrate Court with my father. He settled many disputes and seemed to have an almost magical way of helping fighting neighbors or family members in a dispute to forgive, reconcile and move on.

I believe my father was a good listener and always treated even the most difficult people with respect and courtesy. On occasion I saw him change a hostile litigant into a cooperative and contrite person by simply treating that person with patience and listening or maybe telling that person a story that somehow related to them.

My mother also had great impact on me as to how to treat others. She was a very outgoing person who loved other people and she held my two sisters and me to a high standard in our behavior and conduct toward others. I learned many great lessons from wonderful parents and they no doubt largely shaped who I am today.

If I am elected to a judicial position, I would do my best to do my duty to our state and its citizens, and also to honor the way I was taught by my parents as I saw how they conducted their lives.

As a lawyer practicing since 1985, I have experienced representing many types of people. I have had clients who were clearly good, honest people trying to live in the right way and I have had clients who were not honorable or honest. I have represented them all to the best of my ability and I have learned much about human behavior from these experiences. I also noticed many years ago that when people are going through a divorce it is usually the worst time of their lives. Often as a lawyer you see people in Family Court who are not in their normal state of mind due to their anxiety, fear and worry about what is about to happen with their lives, children, and with their finances. I believe a Family Court judge should consider these factors and understand that people in this difficult stage in life need patience from the bench and they need to know they will be fairly heard. Many other matters that come before the Family Court are similar in that the participants are appearing about a matter that is of critical significance in their lives. Participants in any type of matter, witnesses, lawyers and court personnel all deserve a patient, caring and hopefully wise judge. I would strive every day to live up to that standard.

I have seen good and bad in many people. I have been through many types of storms in life with these people and I believe I have the balanced perspective which is needed to serve as a judge.

I believe my life's experiences and the blessing of being raised by hard working parents who demanded a lot from me have prepared me for effective service as a judge.
