Yes. In 2003, I was made aware of allegations made by a former client, Timothy Joseph, who claimed that I, along with an assistant solicitor, a private attorney, and a judge were involved in illegal behavior. Specifically, the client, while serving a sentence, alleged that I had financed his criminal activity and received merchandise that he received through his unlawful activity. This matter was thoroughly investigated by South Carolina Law Enforcement and deemed unfounded. Since the allegation, the client committed additional offenses and was subsequently sentenced to the Department of Corrections.

47. Have you ever been sued by a client? Have you ever been a named party (personally or professionally) in or had a pecuniary interest in any civil or criminal proceedings? If so, give details, including, but not limited to, dates, and resolutions.

In 2005, I was served with a foreclosure action on my previous home located at 3841 Clement Road, Columbia, South Carolina 29203. At the time, my ex-husband was responsible for the mortgage payment and I was unaware the payment was behind. Upon learning of the delinquency, I brought all payments current.

In 2005, while undergoing the screening process for Fifth Circuit Family Court, Judicial Seat 1, Jane Shuler informed me that a federal client, Erick Hopkins had filed charges against me in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina-Charleston Division. I was never served with any documents, therefore am unaware of the specifics of the allegations. However, I was notified by Assistant United States Attorney Mark Moore after an arrest of one of Mr. Hopkins' family members. While executing a search warrant at the residence, a stack of mail was located addressed to me at that address. It was later determined that my former client was sending mail to a relative at that location addressed to me in order to avoid the prison reading "legal mail." I was advised by Ms. Shuler that the case was ultimately dismissed.

In April of 2004, a former client Latoya Lyles and her boyfriend Taukedrick Roberts sued me in magistrate court in Richland County for seven thousand five hundred dollars. IN the lawsuit, Ms. Lyles alleged that I was responsible for loss she sustained due to her being arrested because a bench warrant for failure to appear in court was issued against her. I provided information that I was not retained until after the date the bench warrant was issued. In addition, the lawsuit was not brought against me until approximately four and a half years after the alleged wrongdoing. The criminal charges against Ms. Lyles were ultimately dismissed. The case against me was dismissed with prejudice pursuant to a motion for summary judgement.

How would your use of social media or other similar types of Internet sites be affected if you were serving in a judicial capacity?

I ensure that my privacy setting are updated. I do not engage in any prohibited political activity, and I never discuss my duties as a judge or any cases that I may have. 58. Provide any other information that may reflect positively or negatively on your candidacy, or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek. This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

My family, faith, legal career and education are all life experiences that have equipped me with the necessary tools to serve our state as a family court judge for the past eleven years. Since my initial election in 2010, I have suffered a great loss, losing both of my greatest cheerleaders, my parents. The loss of my parents has been my daily fuel, enabling me to be a judge that is knowledgeable, fair, exhibiting the appropriate demeanor and temperament toward any and every person that comes before me. I strive daily to uphold the principals which were strongly instilled in me by my parents. Growing up, I watched both of my parents serve and counsel those in need with compassion. With that in mind, I am acutely aware that the decisions I make on a daily basis will strongly impact the lives of those that appear before me. I am passionate about issues that affect children and families and I am eternally grateful that the traits of honesty and fairness have propelled me forward to doing the very best I can do each and every day.
