This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

I have served as a Circuit Court judge for almost thirteen (13) months. The experiences this year have been both intellectually rewarding and humbling, knowing that the posture of a parties' case may rest on my ruling in civil matters and that my sentences may often have long-term ramifications for criminal defendants as well as their victims, families and communities. I have fully embraced the gravity of my role as a Circuit Court judge and work hard to fairly and objectively decide the issues before me. I strive to be prepared, knowledgeable about the law and importantly, to be attentive, respectful and courteous to litigants. I have always appreciated those judges who actively listened to the cases and evaluated my legal arguments such that my goal is to emulate these characteristics.
