Given my minimal social media footprint, my use of social media should not be affected by serving in a judicial capacity.

Provide any other information that may reflect positively or negatively on your candidacy, or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek. This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

For nearly 27 years, my professional career has involved administrative law. As a result, I have an appreciation for the far-reaching impact that administrative law has on the citizens of South Carolina. I have the unique experience of having worked on cases at the Administrative Law Court from every point of view: a judge's, a private citizen's, and a state agency's. As an Administrative Law Judge, I would be able to draw on this experience in order to perform my duties impartially. In addition, my longstanding participation in SCAARLA and the Administrative Law Court Rules Committee has enabled me to remain informed about developments in the court's jurisdiction.

Throughout my career, I have prided myself in following the letter of the law and advising my client how to comply with it. By focusing on the law and applying it to the facts of each case, I would strive to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary every day. I am thorough in my approach, listening to both sides, processing the information, and conducting any necessary research before drawing conclusions. All my life experiences—personal and professional, good and bad—have led me once again to apply for Seat 4 at the Administrative Law Court. My foundation in administrative law combined with my strong work ethic and desire to do the right thing have prepared me to be a fair, impartial, and diligent Administrative Law Judge.

(a) Law Clerk/Temporary Attorney, South Carolina Department of Revenue (August 1998 to May 1999)

During law school, I clerked for Dean Secor, Assistant Attorney General, who prosecuted criminal tax matters assigned to the Attorney General's Office. After completing the bar exam, I returned to work for Mr. Secor while searching for a permanent position. In private practice, I worked primarily with E. Crosby Lewis, Esquire. My practice focused on administrative law (mostly matters involving the Department of Health and Environmental Control) but I gained experience in civil matters as well. I prepared briefs, motions, pleadings, and proposed orders; researched legal issues; conducted discovery; prepared for and conducted depositions; prepared for trial; and supervised the firm's law clerks.

(e) Legal Counsel for the State Budget and Control Board—South Carolina Retirement Systems (March 2004 to January 2007)

Initially, I managed the agency's entire docket of Administrative Law Court cases including preparing cases for trial, conducting discovery, preparing for and conducting depositions, and filing pleadings; managing all disability matters at the Director's level and on appeal; and drafting Final Agency Determinations. During this time, I worked on cases for Chief Judge Ralph K. Anderson, III, and Judge S. Phillip Lenski. My responsibilities included researching, summarizing, and evaluating motions, petitions, transcripts, and briefs; attending administrative hearings; and drafting and reviewing orders. I also updated and maintained the court's website content, which included overseeing a project in which the staff attorneys and I scanned all orders from 1995 to 2014 in a searchable portable document format and uploaded them to the website.

(j) Director of the Legal Division/Deputy Administrator/General Counsel, South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (March 2014 to present)

19. Please answer the following:

- (a) If you are a candidate for Family Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience within each of the following Family Court practice areas: divorce and equitable division of property, child custody, adoption, abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice. Include information about cases you have handled in each of these practice areas, or if you have not practiced in an area, describe how your background and procedural knowledge has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Family Court judge. Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Family Court judge within the past five years.
- (b) If you are a candidate for Circuit Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience in criminal matters, including any cases handled over the past five years, and include a brief description of the issues involved. Further, please provide a brief written description of your experience in civil matters, including any cases handled over the past five years, and include a brief description of the types of matters handled, issues involved, and procedural history. Please include information such as the primary areas in civil court in which you practice, and whether you represent plaintiffs, defendants, or both. You may go back further than five years if you feel it would assist the Commission with its assessment of your experience. If you lack experience in an area, describe how your background and procedural knowledge has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Circuit Court judge, or how you would compensate for your lack of experience in this area. Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Circuit Court judge within the past five years.
- (c) If you are a candidate for Master-In-Equity, please provide a brief written description of your experience in the Master's court, including any cases handled over the past five years, and include a brief description of the issues involved. Please include the frequency of your appearances before a Master-In-Equity or a Circuit Court judge within the past five years.
- (d) If you are a candidate for Administrative Law Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience before an Administrative Law Judge, including any issues discussed and the frequency of your appearances before the Administrative Law or Circuit Court within the past five years.

During the past five years, I have appeared on behalf of the Department of Consumer Affairs in only one case at the Administrative Law Court. The Department of Revenue required a court order to provide our office access to records regarding a deceased individual who had not placed preneed trust funds into a trust account or insurance prior to death. Our agency filed the documents provided by the Department of Revenue to get access to those records. Our agency has been a party in at least ten other cases during the past five years. For those cases, I supervised the attorneys who appeared on behalf of our agency, which included making policy decisions as well as reviewing and editing documents prior to filing. In those cases, the issues involved a funeral home accepting funds for preneed arrangements without a license and without putting the funds into trust or insurance, denial of applications for a license (mortgage broker, credit counselor), refusal to provide access to books and records, and penalties for delinquent filings of mortgage log data.

 - (a) federal: none
 - (b) state: three or less times per year

 - (d) other: 90% (administrative)
22. During the past five years:
 - (a) What percentage of your practice was in trial court, including cases that settled prior to trial? Less than 5%
 - (b) What number of cases went to trial and resulted in a verdict? None

 - (d) What number of your cases settled after a jury was selected but prior to opening statements? Not applicable
 - (e) Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, second chair, or co-counsel? Chief counsel
 - (f) For sitting judges seeking a judgeship different than your current position, during the five years prior to your election to the bench, what percentage of your practice was in trial court, including matters that settled prior to trial? Not applicable
23. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in trial court, appellate court, or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.

(a) S.C. Dep't of Consumer Affairs v. Cash Central of S.C., LLC, 435 S.C 197, 865 S.E.2d 789 (Ct. App. 2021). In this case, the Department sued an online lender that failed to comply with the Consumer Protection Code, particularly the requirement to file and post a maximum rate schedule, prior to offering triple-digit interest loans to South Carolina consumers. The Department sought refunds of excess charges paid by consumers, which included all interest collected over 18% annual percentage rate. The trial court ruled that the lender was excused from refunding excess charges based on the defenses of bona fide error pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 37-3-201(6), bona fide error pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 37-5-202(7), and substantial compliance. On appeal, the Court of Appeals reversed the trial court, holding that unless and until the lender complies with the requirements to file a maximum rate schedule with the Department and post the required disclosures on its website, the lender is not authorized to contract for or receive finance charges in excess of 18% annual percentage rate.

(b) Portfolio Recovery Assocs., LLC v. Campney, 441 S.C. 36, 892 S.E.2d 321, (Ct. App. 2023), cert. dismissed, 445 S.C. 564, 915 S.E.2d 512 (2025). This case involved the issues of whether consumer debt incurred pursuant to a lender credit card is a consumer credit transaction under the South Carolina Consumer Protection Code, Title 37 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, as well as whether the obligation of an original creditor to send a consumer a notice of right to cure transfers from the original creditor to an assignee upon assignment. The Department filed a brief of amicus curiae at the Court of Appeals arguing the answer to both questions was yes. The Court of Appeals agreed and ruled that lender credit card debt is a consumer loan and, therefore, a consumer credit transaction. As a result, the notice of right to cure requirements contained in the South Carolina Consumer Protection Code apply to lender credit card debt. The Court of Appeals also ruled that the notice of right to cure requirements must be met before an assignee can accelerate the debt. On appeal to the Supreme Court, the Department filed a brief of amicus curiae addressing new arguments made by the debt buyer/assignee, including whether the National Bank Act preempts South Carolina's right to cure requirements. The Supreme Court ultimately dismissed the appeal as improvidently granted.

(c) Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, Arkansas Office of the Attorney General, and South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs v. Kern, et al., 6:20-cv-00786 (D.S.C. 2021). Plaintiffs filed a joint complaint in federal court in February 2020 alleging Kern, Sutter, and Upstate Law Group (ULG) helped broker companies target retired veterans and other pensioners with high-interest loans. Specifically, Kern, Sutter, and ULG aided in creating contracts that were illegal and void based on federal and state law, misrepresenting the type of transaction to consumers and collecting payments from consumers. The Department of Consumer Affairs also alleged the attorneys and company engaged in unconscionable debt collection by filing court actions against consumers who took out the loans. Federal law prohibits someone from acquiring the right to receive a veteran's pension payments. South Carolina law prohibits the "sale" or assignment of earnings for payment or security of payment for a consumer loan, regardless of whether the consumer is a veteran. "Earnings" includes periodic payments from a pension, retirement, or disability program. The combination of these laws allowed military and non-military consumers in South Carolina and across the nation to benefit from the settlement reached by the parties, which included $750,000 for consumer refunds as well as bans on brokering or offering pension loans, collecting money related to pension loans, and providing financial services in South Carolina unless acting in the regular course of practicing law.

(d) Anderson v. S.C. Retirement Systems, 06-ALJ-30-0008-CC (Interlocutory En Banc)

This case involved a question about the Retirement Systems' interpretation and application of its disability statute. Prior to this case, two separate Administrative Law Judges had issued orders resulting in conflicting interpretations. One judge found that the disability statute required an application to be filed while a member was in service. Another judge found that the member merely needed to prove his disability arose while he was in service. After the Anderson case was filed, the Court granted the Retirement Systems' request for en banc consideration in order to maintain uniformity of its decisions. The Court heard oral arguments and ultimately issued a unanimous ruling that a member must be in service when he files his application for disability retirement benefits. It is my understanding this was only the second time the Court had held an en banc hearing after the Court added Rule 70.

(e) Duvall v. S.C. Budget and Control Board, 377 S.C. 36, 659 S.E.2d 125 (2008)

In this appeal, Mr. Duvall challenged the Retirement Systems' calculation of his monthly retirement benefit. When calculating Mr. Duvall's benefit, the Retirement Systems included a payout made at retirement for 45 days of unused annual leave as allowed by statute. Mr. Duvall, however, sought to include in his salary a payout made prior to retirement for additional unused annual leave. Significantly, Mr. Duvall argued that because he was not a state employee but rather an employee of the Municipal Association of South Carolina, the 45-day cap on unused annual leave did not apply to him. The Court held that the legislature's provision for the inclusion of a payout for 45 days of annual leave applies to all participants in the retirement system, regardless of whether they are state employees. This appeal was significant because it promoted equity in the calculation of retirement benefits.
