It has been my absolute honor to serve as a Family Court judge over the past five years. Every morning that I put on my judicial robe before the court day begins, I am very mindful of what it was like to be an attorney appearing before a judge; as well as the importance that each hearing has on litigants appearing before me. I do my best every day to treat everyone that enters the courtroom the way I would like to be treated if I were appearing before a judge. If I am blessed to be re-elected to another term as a Family Court judge, I will continue to be cognizant of the importance of my role, how my decisions effect everyone that enters the courtroom, and the importance of issuing rulings that are supported by the law.

36. Have you ever been sued by a client? Have you ever been a named party (personally or professionally) in or had a pecuniary interest in any civil or criminal proceedings? If so, give details, including, but not limited to, dates, and resolutions.

I have never been sued by a client. As previously reported during my prior judicial candidacy in which I was elected to the Family Court bench, I have been named as a defendant in a lawsuit(s) in the past. The causes of action filed against me were dismissed by the Court. Specifically, by Court Order filed September 28, 2017 (Case Number 2015-CP-10-3919) and February 20, 2018 (Case Number 2015-CP-10-3891), the Honorable J.C. Nicholson, Jr. granted Summary Judgment in my favor for the allegations alleged against me. The lawsuits were filed by my cousin, Athan Fokas. The docket numbers for the lawsuits are 2015-CP-10-3891 and 2015-CP-10-3919. The lawsuits were filed July 14, 2015 and July 15, 2015 respectively. These lawsuits arose from a dispute regarding exploring and potentially building additional rental units above an existing property located at 229 King Street, Charleston, South Carolina (229 King Street). My cousin, my brothers and I are co-owners of said property, which we all received interest in said property as a gift from our respective parents. I was not the only defendant named in the lawsuits. My brother Phillip Ferderigos (a law partner at Barnwell, Whaley, Patterson and Helm) was named as a defendant in case number 2015-CP-10-3891 and both my brothers, Phillip Ferderigos and Jacob Ferderigos, were named as defendants in case number 2015-CP-10-3919. As an officer of the Court, I attest hereto that it is my opinion and belief that my cousin's lawsuits were baseless. In fact, as stated above, the Honorable J.C. Nicholson, Jr. outright dismissed the lawsuits filed against me.

I was also a Plaintiff in two lawsuits related to the aforementioned matters. The docket numbers for the lawsuits were 2017-CP-10-3313 and 2017-CP-10-3474. The lawsuits were filed June 29, 2017 and July 10, 2017 respectively. These lawsuits involved the same inherited property located at 229 King Street, Charleston, South Carolina from Case Number 2015-CP-10-3919 and Case Number 2015-CP-10-3891 in which the Court granted Summary Judgment in my favor. Case Number 2017-CP-10-3313 was a lawsuit filed to evict a business occupying the first floor of 229 King Street and for damages. Case Number 2017-CP-10-3474 was a lawsuit against a dissociated member of the Limited Liability Company (LLC) that manages the rental units located at 229 King Street for actively competing against the LLC while he was a member of the LLC. These lawsuits resulted in a settlement agreement in my favor and the Final Order(s) resolving these matters were filed on February 14, 2020.

All of these lawsuits involved disputes with the same extended family member, my cousin, Athan Fokas. Additionally, all of the lawsuits were in regards to the same inherited property located at 229 King Street that each owner inherited from their parents. All of these matters have ended as of February 14, 2020 as set forth above. I have never been involved in any other lawsuits.

37. If you are in private practice, are you covered by malpractice insurance and, if so, how long have you carried malpractice insurance? If applicable, have you ever been covered by a tail policy? If so, please explain when you were covered by a tail policy. Not applicable

38. Have you ever, as a lawyer, judge, or other professional, been cautioned, sanctioned, or disciplined for lawyer, judicial, or other professional misconduct with or with a finding of misconduct? Has any jurisdiction found that you committed any misconduct? If so, give the details and describe any final disposition. Include any and all confidential and public sanctions, disciplines, letters of caution, or findings of misconduct of any kind. Private or confidential dispositions will be redacted.

[Yes and no responses are redacted for all candidates unless there is a public discipline.]

I was selected as a candidate by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission in 2014 and 2015 for the vacancy of Seat # 2 and Seat #3, Charleston County Family Court, respectively. I withdrew my nomination in both instances a few days prior to the vote when it became apparent that my opponent would likely secure sufficient votes to win the nomination. I chose to withdraw from the contest and seek nomination to the next vacant Charleston County Family Court seat.

46. Have you ever been engaged in any occupation, business, or profession other than the practice of law, teaching of law, or holding judicial or other public office? If so, give details, including a description of your occupation, business, or profession, the dates of your employment, and the name of your business or employer.

53. Describe any financial arrangements or business relationships you have, or have had in the past, that could constitute or result in a possible conflict of interest in the position you seek or currently hold. Explain how you would resolve any potential conflict of interest.

The only financial arrangements or business relationships I have or have had that could constitute or result in a possible conflict of interest relate to my current and/or past rental property businesses. In the past, I was a member of a limited liability company named Lantern Properties, LLC that leased a residential rental property. The rental property was sold and the LLC dissolved. Currently, I am a co-owner of a commercial property located at 229 King Street, Charleston, South Carolina. The owners use a property management group(s) to manage this property. A conflict may arise if a tenant or an employee of the management company were to appear before me in Family Court. I would resolve this conflict of interest by immediately recusing myself from the case as I would have previously made, or currently be making, a financial gain from a litigant before the Court.

54. Describe any interest you or a member of your immediate family has in real property:
- (a) in which there is a potential conflict of interest with your involvement in a South Carolina state or local public agency;

The only interest that I or an immediate family member has in real property that may constitute or result in a possible conflict of interest relates to my interests in a commercial property located at 229 King Street, Charleston South Carolina, of which I am a co-owner. A conflict may arise if a current or prior tenant were to appear before me in Family Court. I would resolve this conflict of interest by immediately recusing myself from the case as I would have previously made, or currently be making, a financial gain from a litigant before the Court.

None

- (c) which was sold, leased, or rented to a state or local public agency in South Carolina.

- (a) nature of any potential conflict of interest;

I am a one-sixth owner of 229 King Street, Charleston South Carolina. The total estimated value of the building is $3,420,000.00. The nature and potential conflict of interest regarding this property is that a conflict may arise if a current or prior tenant were to appear before me in Family Court. I would resolve this conflict of interest by immediately recusing myself from the case as I would have previously made, or currently be making, a financial gain from a litigant before the Court.

- (b) nature and value of any public improvements; and

Attach a copy of any contract or agreement.

If you prefer, you may attach broker or account records containing the requested information instead of listing it here. See attached.

Describe the campaigning you have done for this election and include a list of those individuals you have asked to campaign on your behalf and, to the best of your knowledge, those who have campaigned for you on their own initiative. No

61. Are you familiar with the 12 days' rule as provided by Section 2-19-25, which prohibits a candidate from seeking pledges until after the draft report becomes final, which occurs on the day and time specified on the Commission's published screening schedule? Yes
