14. Describe chronologically your legal experience since graduation from law school and include a list of all law firms with which you have been associated. Describe the general character of your practice and divide it into periods with dates if its character has changed over the years.

I began practicing law in Columbia as a partner with the law firm of Holler, Dennis, Corbett & Garner. I began with said practice in January of 1996 and my practice was a general practice. My practice at that time was primarily focused on civil litigation in the Courts of Common Pleas and General Sessions. I also handled domestic matters in Family Court and cases in Magistrate and Municipal Courts. My husband and I then moved from Richland County to Dorchester County in March of 1998 and I was employed as an associate for Richard Wern in North Charleston where I handled civil litigation matters in State and Federal Court until I obtained a position at the First Circuit Solicitor's Office in October of 1998.

During my tenure at the Solicitor's office I rose to the rank of Chief Deputy Solicitor for the First Judicial Circuit. I was second in command to the Solicitor for the entire circuit which is comprised of Calhoun, Dorchester and Orangeburg Counties. I operated under a grant dedicated to prosecuting crimes of violence against women. I was in charge of prosecuting all violent crimes against women and children. I successfully tried cases of murder, kidnapping, arson, armed robbery, burglary, criminal sexual conduct (all degrees), lewd act upon a child, unlawful conduct towards a child, felony child abuse, sexual exploitation of minors, assault and battery with intent to kill, assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, drug and alcohol offenses and criminal domestic violence. I also assisted Solicitor Walter Bailey with the trials of four death penalty cases.

I left the Solicitor's Office in 2005 to join the practice of Quattlebaum & Murphy, L.L.P. as a partner. The firm as of January 2009 is the Murphy Law Firm, L.L.C. Our firm is a general practice and I specialize in criminal and civil litigation matters in all courts and also handle domestic litigation. On April 30, 2009 I was confirmed by the Senate as a Magistrate Court Judge for Dorchester County. Chief Justice Jean Hoefer Toal appointed me as Associate Chief Magistrate for Dorchester County on June 17, 2009. I served in that capacity until I was appointed as Chief Magistrate by Chief Justice Toal on July 1, 2010. I serve as Chief Magistrate part-time and continue my general practice as well.

If you are a judge and are not seeking a different type of judgeship, the following questions are inapplicable:

- (c) If you are a candidate for Master-In-Equity, please provide a brief written description of your experience in the Master's court, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Please include the frequency of your appearances before a Master-In-Equity.

My experience in the Master's court has been in various capacities. I have served as a special referee for the Master to conduct foreclosure sales. I have also served as a special referee in matters referred by the Master to preside over suits to quiet title. Further, I have served as a special referee in the Master's court and presided over summary jury trials. My private practice has further allowed me to gain valuable experience in handling effectively other civil matters that are regularly referred to the Master's court to be handled. These matters include various discovery issues and motions referred to the Master from the Circuit Court. The civil litigation that I have been involved in while in private practice has involved work for both plaintiffs and defendants. The types of civil cases that I have had the opportunity to work on have involved personal injury cases for plaintiffs, contract conflicts and the representation of parties involved in the dissolutions of partnerships and corporate entities.

Additionally, I presided as the Special Referee in the Exxon class action suit which was filed in Orangeburg County Case Number 94-CP-38-118. As Special Referee I was responsible for reviewing all claims submitted and I was responsible for holding each claimant to the burden of establishing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that each claimant was a member of the class defined by the settlement agreement and that their property had been damaged by petroleum contamination attributable to ExxonMobil's underground storage tanks or service station operations. I was also responsible for holding ExxonMobil to its burden of establishing its affirmative defenses by a preponderance of the evidence. It was then my duty to make the findings of facts and conclusions of law as to each of the defenses raised and as to each of the claim submissions and issue a Final Report to the Court. These duties included the review of expert opinions and the necessary elements of causation and proof of each claim. The experience of serving as the Special Referee in a case of this magnitude, proves my ability to handle complex civil litigation matters that would be referred to the Master from the Circuit Court.

15. What is your rating, if any, by any legal rating organization, such as, Best Lawyers, Chambers, Legal 500, Martindale-Hubbell, Who's Who Legal, Super Lawyers, etc.? If you are currently a member of the judiciary, list your last available rating, if any.

I am not subscribed to be listed in Martindale-Hubbell. I have not subscribed to this service in the past as it has been described by some as a form of advertising which I did not feel was necessary for the success of our firm.

16. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the past five years?
- (a) federal: 2%;
 - (b) state: 98%.
17. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, domestic, and other matters during the past five years?
- (a) civil: 40%;
 - (b) criminal: 40%;
 - (c) domestic: 20%.

18. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the past five years involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?

(a) jury: 30%;

(b) non-jury: 70%.

Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters? I most often serve as sole counsel.

19. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.

(a) One of my most significant litigated matters that I personally handled was the murder case of State v. Robinson in Dorchester County. This was a significant trial for several reasons. It was a significant accomplishment to obtain a just verdict of guilty due to the fact that the case was based purely on circumstantial evidence. The victim in the case was a young mother who was brutally murdered with a tire iron tool in her home. Her body was then taken to a neighboring county and dumped in the woods and her home was set on fire. I worked closely with law enforcement to piece together the evidence necessary to try the murder case. Although the murder weapon was never found, we were able to establish that the tire iron tool from the victim's car was missing. Through manufacturing records of the car companies I was able to obtain a tire iron tool from the car manufacturer which would have been like the one missing from the victim's car. I was then able to match the skull fracture patterns to the missing tire iron tool shape through expert forensic testimony. I was able to establish the estimated time of death through expert testimony from analyzed larvae and the related growth stages of the larvae from the body at the autopsy. This testimony assisted in placing the defendant at the time and place of the murder. I worked with SLED arson and blood spatter experts to establish the manner in which she was murdered in the home and how the home was then set on fire in an attempt to destroy the evidence of the murder. There were many evidentiary and procedural issues in this trial which had to be handled effectively to ensure that the victim's killer was properly brought to justice.

(b) Another significant trial that I handled was felony child abuse trial involving a five year old developmentally delayed victim. The child was sent by helicopter to the Medical University of South Carolina in an unresponsive state with a significant bruise on his chest and another bruise on the side of his head behind his ear. The defendant was the child's father and he had called an ambulance and stated that the child had fallen in the bath tub. The child barely survived the brutal attack and, upon receiving the case, it was obvious that it would be a difficult case to get to a jury due to the fact that the child was only five years old, non-communicative and unable to testify as to the cause of his injuries. Further, his mother was not cooperative and protective of the defendant. I prosecuted her as well for failing to protect her child. I began preparing for this case by obtaining a complete medical history of the child and discovered by review of numerous scattered medical records that the child had been blinded in his right eye as an infant, and had suffered two broken femurs before the attack in question. I was able to obtain experts to review the previous injuries to establish a pattern of abuse and neglect by the defendants. It was determined that the eye injury was to a reasonable degree of medical certainty caused by violent shaking of the child as an infant and the two femoral breaks were not accidental in nature but were caused as a result of physical abuse to due to the pattern of the breaks in question. Both parents of the child in question were convicted, and the child was taken in by a relative and began to thrive and grow once being placed outside of an abusive environment.

- (c) I successfully prosecuted another significant felony child abuse trial in which a three year old child's hand was submerged in scalding hot water as punishment for sucking his thumb. The child received third degree burns as a result of his injuries and was left in pain in his home without medical treatment until the following day when he was discovered by his aunt who then took him to the hospital. Unfortunately, by the time he was taken for medical treatment the severity of the burns had caused his fingers to become webbed together. The child's hand was at risk of having to be amputated but was saved. He had to undergo and will continue to have to undergo numerous surgeries throughout his life as a result of the burns inflicted on him. Due to his age and horrific justifiable fear of the defendant I had to prosecute the case without the testimony of the child and had to rely on the only other witness that placed the defendant in the bathroom with the victim. My corroborating witness was only seven years of age but was competent to testify, and I was able to obtain and introduce at trial sufficient other medical and physical evidence which proved that the defendant was the one that inflicted the injuries on the child.
- (d) I personally handled the trial of State v. Inman which resulted in a life sentence for the defendant in question. The defendant in this case was charged with kidnapping three young children at gunpoint and holding them hostage in his trailer. He locked two of the male victims in one room while he proceeded to sexually assault the young female in the living room of his home. The defendant had a prior record which included a violent, most serious offense and therefore I served him with notice to seek a life sentence at the trial of his case. I was able to successfully try the case with all three children being competent to testify as well as being able to successfully present the testimony of law enforcement and other forensic experts to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

- (e) I tried a case that led to a 60-year sentence for a defendant that was convicted of sexually assaulting his own teenage daughter at knife point and he was also convicted of attempting to intimidate the potential witnesses that were subpoenaed to testify at the trial of his case in the trial of State v. Brown. This was a significant case as not only did I have to prove the criminal sexual conduct had occurred, but I also had to deal with witnesses that had been physically threatened and did not want to testify for fear of their safety. Procedurally, the rape case was difficult in that the assault was not immediately reported, thereby not giving us the opportunity of having physical forensic evidence to link the defendant to the crime. As is the case with many trials of criminal sexual conduct it is necessary to know how appropriate expert testimony is presented to explain the lack of forensic evidence and one must also be able to understand procedurally how to present appropriate psychological testimony which can corroborate symptoms consistent with trauma caused by sexual and or physical abuse.
20. List up to five civil appeals you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision, and the citation if the case was reported. If you are a candidate for an appellate court judgeship (please attach one copy of briefs filed by you in each matter). I have not done appellate work.
21. List up to five criminal appeals that you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision and the citation if the case was reported. If you are a candidate for an appellate court judgeship (please attach one copy of briefs filed by you in each matter). I have not done appellate work.
22. Have you ever held judicial office?

I currently serve as Chief Magistrate for Dorchester County. I was appointed as a Magistrate by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate. My appointment was confirmed on April 30, 2009. As a Magistrate Court Judge I have jurisdiction to hear civil actions within the County where the amount in controversy does not exceed $7,500.00. This includes actions for breach or contract, damages for injury to rights pertaining to the person or personal or real property as well as all landlord and tenant matters, and actions to recover the possession of personal property whose stated value does not exceed $7,500.00. I have limited jurisdiction over mechanics' liens, agricultural liens, repair or storage liens and animal owner's liens.

I also have jurisdiction in the county to handle criminal and traffic offenses which are subject to a fine or forfeiture not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days or both. I can also hear cases transferred from General Sessions Court where the penalty does not exceed one year imprisonment or a fine of $5,000.00, or both. These cases are transferred to the Magistrates Court upon petition from the Solicitor and with the consent of the defendant. I am also responsible for setting bail, conducting preliminary hearings and issuing arrest and search warrants.

As Chief Magistrate I work hard to ensure that both of our Magistrate's Courts within the county operate effectively. We establish procedures to ensure compliance with Orders issued by the Chief Justice and the rules set forth by the Office of Court Administration.

23. If the answer to question 22 is yes, describe or list five of your most significant orders or opinions and give the citations if they were reported. Also list citations to any appellate review of these orders or opinions.

The only business relationships that would constitute a conflict of interest would be the business relationship with my law partners that I have had. I would recuse myself from hearing any matters in which they would be a party or have an interest in.

31. Have you ever been arrested, charged, or held by federal, state, or other law enforcement authorities for violation or for suspicion of violation of any federal law or regulation, state law or regulation, or county or municipal law, regulation, or ordinance, or any other law, including another country's law? 34. Have you ever been sued, either personally or professionally, that is, have you ever been named as defendant or respondent in any court of law?

I was involved in a probate action in California which was filed as a petition to determine the ownership of a leasehold interest in a parcel of property previously owned by my grandfather, Dr. Arman F. Frederickson, in the British Virgin Islands. My grandfather owned the leasehold interest in said property and transferred it to my husband and me approximately three years prior to his death in 2008. Subsequent to his death, his estate filed a petition to rescind said transfer despite clear evidence of the validity of the transfer to include: an original handwritten letter from him asking us to accept the leasehold interest as a gift; an affidavit which he executed which was filed with the government of the British Virgin Islands; notarized lease documents which he executed in California; and, various witnesses to include legal counsel in the British Virgin Islands that were witnesses to his competency and desire to transfer the property as a gift to me and my husband. This matter was resolved through mediation in November of 2009. The agreement was subsequently approved by the court and there were no admissions or findings of fact of any misconduct against my husband or me.

I was sued in a professional capacity by an inmate by the name of Denny Bates. I prosecuted Mr. Bates for criminal sexual conduct with a minor in the first degree. Mr. Bates entered a plea of guilty before the Honorable Luke N. Brown, Jr., and received a fifteen-year sentence. Mr. Bates filed suit naming me as a Defendant, along with the Solicitor, Walter Bailey, Judge Brown and, the cook at the Department of Corrections. The allegation in the suit was that the cook subjected Mr. Bates to cruel and unusual punishment for the food that was presented to Mr. Bates during his incarceration. The remainder of the suit alleged a conspiracy in the prosecution and sentence handed down by Judge Brown. The allegation stated that the conspiracy existed to prosecute him due to the fact that the victim in the case's last name was Bailey and that there was a witness in the case whose last name was Brown. There was no relation to the case or witnesses with Solicitor Bailey or Judge Brown. Solicitor Bailey turned the Complaint over to the Budget Control Board to defend, and the case was subsequently dismissed.

36. Have you ever been investigated by the Department of Social Services? If so, give the details and the resolution. Has your name ever been enrolled on the Central Registry of Child Abuse and Neglect? No.
