I was admitted to the SC Bar in January 1993. Shortly thereafter, I became the Staff Attorney for Greenville County Dept. of Social Services (DSS). I was the sole attorney for approximately 1 year. My duties included the litigation and settlement of more than 300 abuse and neglect cases in Greenville County Family Court.

In 1994, I established a solo private practice in Greenville County. The majority of my practice involved domestic matters, primarily divorces and adoptions. During the first year of private practice, I contracted with DSS and Legal Services of Western Carolina. I handled housing discrimination cases under the Legal Services contract. The DSS contract required me to represent the interests of children in abuse/neglect and termination of parental rights actions under DSS contract.

While in private practice, I was appointed as Guardian Ad Litem in numerous custody actions. Hundreds of families were also referred to me for finalization of adoptions. These referrals came from DSS and private adoption agencies such as Bethany Christian Services. I was also often requested to speak with prospective adoptive parents about the adoption process.

In April 1995, I was appointed by Greenville SC City Council as an Asst. Municipal Court Judge. I presided over jury and bench trials and preliminary hearings, arising under city ordinances and criminal cases made under state law. I was called upon to preside when the full-time Municipal Judge was unavailable, or in the event of docket overload. I served in the Cities of Greenville and Greer from 1995 until August 2005, while also maintaining my law office.

From August until December 2004, I taught Family Law at Greenville Technical College, as adjunct faculty in the Paralegal program.

I became as Assistant Solicitor with the 13th Judicial Circuit Solicitor's Office in August 2005, where I remain employed. During the first year with the Solicitor's Office, I prosecuted criminal domestic violence cases. From 2006 until 2009, I was responsible for the prosecution of juveniles in the Greenville and Pickens County Family Courts. I am currently responsible for the prosecution of primarily drug and sex crimes cases. I continue to assist with juvenile prosecution in Family Court.

15. Please answer the following (if you are a judge and are not seeking a different type of judgeship, this question is inapplicable):

- (a) If you are a candidate for Family Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience within each of the following Family Court practice areas: divorce and equitable division of property, child custody, adoption, abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice. Include information about cases you have handled in each of these practice areas, or if you have not practiced in an area, describe how your background has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Family Court Judge.

I have extensive experience in all of the above-outlined areas:

DIVORCE AND DIVISION OF PRPPERTY

While in private practice from 1994 until 2005, I represented both plaintiffs and defendants in the areas of divorce and equitable division of property. An example of that experience was my representation of the defendant in Pamela Holmes vs. Nathan Holmes (2000-DR-04-871). This case involved dissolution of a marriage of more than 25 years. A multi-day hearing was required to equitably divide substantial martial assets, and determine alimony, child support, custody and visitation.

CHILD CUSTODY

In the area of custody, I served as Guardian Ad Litem in many custody actions. I also represented numerous parties seeking custody. One example is Yolanda Hart vs. Will and Cora Wren (1995-DR-23-6065). I represented the Wrens, who were the paternal aunt and uncle of minor children, placed in their care by the custodial father. Upon the death of the father the mother petitioned the Court for custody.

ADOPTION

In the area of adoption, I have many years of experience preparing pleadings, notifying birth parents, relinquishment of parental rights, and finalization of adoption actions. One unique example is an adult adoption. Alee Gearhart vs. Judy Mahaffey Thompson (1994-DR-23-3072). This case involved the reunification of an elderly birth mother and adult adoptee. I represented the birth mother in the adoption of her birth daughter, whom she had relinquished for adoption as an infant.

ABUSE AND NEGLECT

In the area of abuse and neglect, I have many years of experience, having served as counsel for DSS, Guardian Ad Litem appointments, and prosecuted crimes of abuse and neglect. An example of that diverse experience is DSS vs. Alberta Grimes (2000-DR-23-978). I was appointed Guardian Ad Litem in this adult abuse case. I convinced the Family Court to remove the vulnerable adult from the care of her relative, due to the abuse and neglect. I facilitated an alternative placement, while providing guidance to the court as to what was in her best interests.

JUVENILE JUSTICE

As to the area of juvenile justice, I served as a full-time juvenile prosecutor from 2006 until 2009. I continue to assist the 13th Circuit with the prosecution of these cases, when the current juvenile prosecutor is unavailable. An example of such prosecution is The State vs. Jadon G. (2008JU23-798, 799, 800). This juvenile was declared a juvenile delinquent December 23, 2008 for sexual offenses. He was committed to SC DJJ until 21st birthday. The issue of sex offender registry was reserved until his treatment was completed. When the young man was unsuccessfully discharged from a treatment facility, at the age of 20 years, I requested a Family Court hearing, held on April 10, 2014, at which time I was able to convince the court this young man was a danger to the community and that his registration as a sex offender was warranted.

I have many years of extensive family court experience, as outlined above. I am knowledgeable of the law and have handled diverse cases, providing me with the background necessary to competently handle the duties of a Family Court Judge.

- (b) If you are a candidate for Circuit Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience in criminal matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Further, please provide a brief written description of your experience in civil matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the types of matters handled, issues involved, and procedural history. Please include information such as the primary areas in civil court in which you practice, whether you represent plaintiffs or defendants, or both. You may go back further than five years if you feel it would assist the Commission with its assessment of your experience. If you lack experience in an area, describe how your background has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Circuit Court Judge, or how you would compensate for your lack of experience in this area.
- (c) If you are a candidate for Master-In-Equity, please provide a brief written description of your experience in the Master's court, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Please include the frequency of your appearances before a Master-In-Equity.
- (d) If you are a candidate for Administrative Law Judge, please provide a brief written description of your experience before an Administrative Law Judge, including any issues discussed and the frequency of your appearances before the Administrative Law Judge Court.

16. What is your rating, if any, by any legal rating organization, such as, Best Lawyers, Chambers, Legal 500, Martindale-Hubbell, Who's Who Legal, Super Lawyers, etc.? If you are currently a member of the judiciary, list your last available rating, if any.

Not rated.

* Retired justices/judges and justices/judges applying for reelection to their current position may omit Questions 17–22. If a candidate is seeking a judgeship different than his or her current position, Questions 17-22 should be answered based on experience prior to serving on the bench.

17. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the past five years?
(a) federal: N/A
(b) state: Frequently
18. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, domestic, and other matters during the past five years?
(a) civil: None;
(b) criminal: 100%;
(c) domestic: None;
(d) other: None.
19. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the past five years involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?
(a) jury: 25%
(b) non-jury: 75%
Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters?
Sole counsel.
20. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.
(a) State vs. Kimberly Passmore (Indictment No. 2014GS2311292): The defendant was charged with unlawful conduct towards a child. She was the mother of a 13 year old, impregnated by a 26 year old. This defendant was aware of the relationship, and even encouraged it. I prosecuted her and was successful in convincing a Jury that she willfully placed her child in harm's way. She received a 3 year jail sentence.
(b) State vs. Ralph Hayes (Indictment No. 2011GS23076981): The defendant was charged with Murder and Possession Of A Weapon During The Commission Of A Violent Crime. The defendant was arrested and tried almost 2 years after the female victim's body was discovered. This was a circumstantial case, which developed with the assistance of investigation skills and cooperative witnesses. One such critical witness was a homeless man, later located in Illinois. I was able to convince the reluctant witness to return to Greenville for trial. His testimony proved to be instrumental in the defendant's conviction.

- (c) Estate of Michael Hildebrand (02E2301170); This was a Greenville County Probate action. I was appointed the Personal Representative (PR) of this estate after the decedent had murdered his estranged wife and two children. After a national manhunt, the decedent died of a self-inflicted gunshot. Although he had surviving relatives, no one was willing to serve as PR. During my appointment, a wrongful death lawsuit was filed against the estate, on behalf of the deceased wife and children. This appointment required me to defend the lawsuit, which resulted in a settlement. I was required to conduct an extensive multi-state identification of assets, facilitate the sale of out of state property, and settle this estate to the satisfaction of the court.
- (d) Jane and John Doe vs. SCDSS and Billy, a minor under the age of 5 (2004-DR-04-1509) I petitioned the Anderson Co. Family Court to intervene in an adoption action opposed by SCDSS. The subject child was the sibling of a child earlier adopted by the family I represented. The subject child had special needs and had been placed in foster care. Once the subject child became legally free to be adopted, it was DSS' desire for the child to be placed with his siblings, while the foster parents sought adoption. The significance of this case was that the Court was faced with determining whether the child's best interests would be served by living with blood relative/sibling or risk emotional trauma by being removed from the family he knew. The court found that it was in the best interests of the child that he remain with the foster family, with special consideration given to his special needs.
- (e) Pamela Holmes vs. Nathan Holmes (2000-DR-04-871): The plaintiff wife sought a divorce on the grounds of adultery. The significance of this case is that the parties had been married more than 25 years and parents to 3 children. Several days of litigation was necessary to determine multiple issues of distribution of substantial marital assets, alimony, child support and visitation.

21. List up to five civil appeals you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision, and the citation if the case was reported.

None.

22. List up to five criminal appeals that you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision and the citation if the case was reported.

State vs. Darnell Alston (Indictment Nos. 2001GS2305385 – 5387):

In 2005, I was appointed to appeal the conviction of Darnell Alston, who had earlier plead guilty to several charges, including armed robbery, criminal sexual conduct and kidnapping. I was appointed due to a conflict in Appellate Indigent Defense. The significance of this case was that the defendant was 14 years old when the home invasion crimes were committed. The defendant received a sentence of 90+ years and appealed, claiming he did not understand the possible outcomes of a guilty plea. It had been noted in the record that the defendant suffered from mental retardation. I unsuccessfully filed a brief, arguing that the defendant lacked the maturity and cognitive ability to recognize the gravity of his actions and the consequences.

23. Have you ever held judicial office? If so, list the periods of your service, the courts involved, and whether you were elected or appointed. Describe the jurisdiction of each of the courts and note any limitations on the jurisdiction of each court.

I served as Asst. Municipal Court Judge for the Cities of Greenville and Greer, SC, from April 1995 until August 2005. I was appointed by the Greenville City Council. Municipal Court's jurisdiction is limited to cases arising under city ordinances and misdemeanors under the state law.

24. If the answer to question 23 is yes, describe or list five of your most significant orders or opinions and give the citations if they were reported. Also list citations to any appellate review of these orders or opinions.

- (a) City of Greer vs. Sandy Williams (Warrant No. F727981): Presided over the criminal domestic violence 8/22/03 jury trial of defendant Sandy Williams. She and her husband, City of Greer police officers, were both charged with domestic violence because her fellow officers were not able to determine the primary aggressor at the time of arrest. The trial involved testimony of several Greer officers and resulted in her conviction.;
- (b) City of Greer vs. Brent Thompson (Warrant No. 60734CL) 3/23/05;

While reared in a single parent home, my mother consistently stressed the importance of accountability, as well as the importance of having empathy for the plight of others. This compassion led me to the profession of social work. After serving as a child and family advocate for several years, I believed the practice of law would afford me the opportunity to contribute even more. I attempted to utilize my private practice as a platform of empowerment. As a Municipal Court judge, I served with the philosophy that while one must be accountable for his/her actions, rehabilitation must also be encouraged when appropriate. I believe that these traits, coupled with my legal knowledge, integrity, deliberate decision-making and temperament, makes me an ideal candidate for a Family Court Judge.
