Circuit Court (Incumbent)

Full Name: Paul Michael Burch

1. Why do you want to serve another term as a Circuit Court Judge?
I still enjoy my job even after 24 years on the bench.
2. Do you plan to serve your full term if re-elected?
Yes.
3. Do you have any plans to return to private practice one day?
Not at this time.
4. Have you met the Constitutional requirements for this position regarding age, residence, and years of practice?
Yes.
5. What is your philosophy regarding ex parte communications? Are there circumstances under which you could envision ex parte communications being tolerated?
I try my best to avoid ex parte communications; however, sometimes in issuing Rule 65 (b) Orders, you have to make an exception.
6. What is your philosophy on recusal, especially in situations in which lawyer-legislators, former associates, or law partners are to appear before you?
In such cases, recusal should be used sparingly. We do not have sufficient judicial resources to liberally grant recusals.
7. If you disclosed something that had the appearance of bias, but you believed it would not actually prejudice your impartiality, what deference would you give a party that requested your recusal? Would you grant such a motion?
If a party has a reasonable legitimate concern about the appearance of a possible bias even after I have explained it from my point of view, I would grant recusal.
8. How would you handle the appearance of impropriety because of the financial or social involvement of your spouse or a close relative?
If the appearance would cause concern to a reasonable person, I would grant recusal.
9. What standards have you set for yourself regarding the acceptance of gifts or social hospitality?
I do not accept gifts and only attend functions or meeting approved by the Bar or by the Supreme Court.
10. How would you handle a situation in which you became aware of misconduct of a lawyer or of a fellow judge?
Report them to the appropriate disciplinary authority.
11. Are you affiliated with any political parties, boards or commissions that, if you were re-elected, would need to be re-evaluated?
No.

12. Do you have any business activities that you would envision remaining involved with if reelected to the bench?
None.
13. How do you handle the drafting of orders?
I normally invite proposed Orders from all parties involved unless I rule from the bench and direct the prevailing party to prepare an Order or prepare it myself.
14. What methods do you use to ensure that you and your staff meet deadlines?
I require my law clerk to keep a separate docket from mine so that we can check off on any deadlines.
15. What is your philosophy on “judicial activism,” and what effect should judges have in setting or promoting public policy?
I do not consider myself a “judicial activist”. The general assembly makes the law, law enforcement enforces the law and a judge should apply and interpret the law in the cases brought before him.
16. Canon 4 allows a judge to engage in activities to improve the law, legal system, and administration of justice. What activities do you plan to undertake to further this improvement of the legal system?
I will continue to accept appropriate speaking and teaching invitations to seminars that may be held in the State, provided the timing does not conflict with my court schedule.
17. Do you feel that the pressure of serving as a judge strains personal relationships (i.e. spouse, children, friends, or relatives)? How do you address this?
Judging like any other employment has stress and strain. You simply have to treat others as you would like to be treated under the prevalent circumstances.
18. The following list contains five categories of offenders that would perhaps regularly appear in your court. Discuss your philosophy on sentencing for these classes of offenders.
- (a) Repeat offenders: Generally an active prison sentence or split sentence;
 - (b) Juveniles (that have been waived to the Circuit Court): Generally a probationary or youth offender sentence (either active or shock incarceration);
 - (c) White collar criminals: Probationary sentence with fine and restitution and in more serious cases, a split sentence with restitution;
 - (d) Defendants with a socially and/or economically disadvantaged background: Basically the same as above except public service may have to be substituted for restitution if the defendant is destitute;
 - (e) Elderly defendants or those with some infirmity: Same as above except sometimes specialized placement is recommended. You must be careful not to allow such a defendant to play on your sympathy.
19. Are you involved in any active investments from which you derive additional income that might impair your appearance of impartiality?
No.
20. Would you hear a case where you or a member of your family held a de minimis financial interest in a party involved?
Only after proper disclosure.
21. Do you belong to any organizations that discriminate based on race, religion, or gender?
No.

22. Have you met the mandatory minimum hours requirement for continuing legal education courses?
Yes.
23. What do you feel is the appropriate demeanor for a judge?
Firm but fair.
24. Do the rules that you expressed in your previous answer apply only while you are on the bench or in chambers, or do these rules apply seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day?
At all times.
25. Do you feel that it is ever appropriate to be angry with a member of the public, especially with a criminal defendant? Is anger ever appropriate in dealing with attorneys or a pro se litigant?
Normally anger towards anyone in the courtroom would be inappropriate. However, if it means regaining control of Order in the Courtroom, anger may be justified.
26. How much money have you spent on your campaign? If it is over $100, has that amount been reported to the House and Senate Ethics Committees?
None.
27. While campaigning for this office, have you used judicial letterhead or the services of your staff for your campaign?
No.
28. Have you sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to this date?
No.
29. Have you sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by any legislator pending the outcome of your screening?
No.
30. Have you asked any third parties to contact members of the General Assembly on your behalf before the final and formal screening report has been released? Are you aware of any friends or colleagues contacting members of the General Assembly on your behalf?
No.
31. Have you contacted any members of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission?
No.
32. Are you familiar with the 48-hour rule, which prohibits a candidate from seeking pledges for 48 hours after the draft report has been submitted?
Yes.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THE ANSWERS TO THE ABOVE QUESTIONS ARE TRUE AND COMPLETE TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE.
