1. Have you met the Constitutional or statutory requirements for this position regarding age, residence, and years of practice?
Yes
2. Have you met the mandatory minimum hours requirement for continuing legal education courses?
YES
3. Do you have any plans to return to private practice one day?
No
4. Are you engaged in any legal activities other than your service as a retired judge, such as acting as an arbitrator or mediator?
No
5. Are you involved in any active investments from which you derive additional income that might impair your appearance of impartiality?
No
6. Do you belong to any organizations that discriminate based on race, religion, or gender?
No
7. Have you engaged in any partisan political activity since your retirement?
No
8. What do you feel is the appropriate demeanor for a judge?
Calm, attentive, judicial, legally knowledgeable, intellectual, caring, objective and fair.
9. In your position as a retired judge, what methods do you employ to ensure that deadlines for the timely issuance of orders are met?
I am an inactive retired judge therefore I do not hold court at this time. When I hold court I hope the assistant working with the judge at the chambers which I am holding court will provide logistical assistance.
10. Do you feel that it is ever appropriate to be angry with a member of the public, especially with a criminal defendant? Is anger ever appropriate in dealing with attorneys?
No
11. How would you handle a situation in which you became aware of misconduct of a lawyer or fellow judge?
The question assumes misconduct; therefore one must turn in that party

12. What is your philosophy on recusal, especially in situations in which lawyer-legislators, former associates, or law clerks are to appear before you?
If one cannot be fair, one must recuse oneself. If a failure to recuse oneself will reasonably result in an appearance of impropriety one must recuse oneself.
13. What is your philosophy regarding ex parte communications? Are there circumstances under which you could envision ex parte communications being tolerated?
None are allowed; but if in error a pro se litigant or person began talking to me and said something before one could stop that person and then upon learning of the status of that person one would have to recuse oneself.
14. If you disclosed something that had the appearance of bias, but you believed it would not actually prejudice your impartiality, what deference would you give a party that requested your recusal? Would you grant such a motion?
Yes, see #12 above.
15. What standards have you set for yourself regarding the acceptance of gifts or social hospitality?
Friends and families as allowed by Rules of Ethics
16. In order that we might advise court administration on steps that need to be taken, are there any limitations on your sight, hearing, or mobility that should be addressed by the court administrator?
