 - (l) Additionally throughout my tenure as a trial and appellate judge I have been called upon to speak before professional, school, and business groups almost every month. My last Martindale-Hubbell rating was "AV" and had been at that level for a number of years. I am not sure if the other organizations existed when I practiced law.

If a candidate is seeking a judgeship different than his or her current position, Questions 16-21 should be answered based on experience prior to serving on the bench.

16. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the last five years? *
- (a) federal: 5 times per year on average;
 - (b) state: 95 times per year on average.
17. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, domestic, and other matters during the last five years? *
- (a) civil: 70% (includes administrative practice);
 - (b) criminal: 10%;
 - (c) domestic: 20%;
 - (d) other:
18. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the last five years involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial? *
- (a) jury: 5%;
 - (b) non-jury: 10%.

These percentages represent only matters in trial courts that were actually submitted to a fact finder for resolution.

Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters? Most often served as sole and/or chief counsel.

* The five-year period for questions 16 - 18 is 1986-91. I was elected to the bench in 1991 and have not practiced since.

19. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant. Do NOT attach a separate list.
- (a) Southern Bell v. Steven W. Hamm, 306 S.C. 70, 409 SE2d 775 (1991) 60 USLW 2294, 126 P.U.R. 4th 535, 9 ALR 5th 1131.

I believe this case was the first in the United States to judicially approve “caller ID” telephone service. Important constitutional questions were implicated e.g., right to privacy. I argued and won the case in the trial court, and was the principal author of the brief to the SC Supreme Court. I did not argue this case there, as I was pending swearing in to the circuit court. The Supreme Court affirmed.

- (b) Funderburk v. Funderburk, 281 S.C. 246, 315 SE2d 126 (Ct App 1984); on cert to SC Supreme Court 286 S.C. 129, 332 SE2d 205 (1985).

The Supreme Court reversed the trial court and the Court of Appeals in ruling that jurisdiction of a contractual agreement’s voluntary nature was properly before the Family Court, and not the Circuit Court. I did not handle the trial, where my client did not prevail but did handle the appellate stage, with co-counsel. Our client prevailed, and the decision was helpful to the bench and bar in clarifying jurisdictional matters.

- (c) Barnwell v. Barber-Coleman Co., 301 S.C. 534, 393 SE2d (1989).

The Supreme Court held that punitive damages are not recoverable in a cause of action based solely upon the theory of strict liability. This questions was certified to the Court by the United States District Court. I was involved only at the State Court as the author and proponent of an amicus brief filed on behalf of my client, a trade association of property and casualty writers.

- (d) Russo v. Sutton, ___ S.C. ___, SE2d 750 (1992).

In December of 1990, I tried this case in Common Pleas Court in Richland County and secured a large verdict for the plaintiff. The case is significant because on appeal the defendant’s argument as to the non-viability of the cause of action (alienation of affections) was accepted by the Supreme Court, which prospectively did away with the cause of action. This did not affect my client’s right to recovery.

- (e) State v. Motes, 264 S.C. 317, 215 SE2d 190 (1975).

I represented Mr. Motes at trial and on appeal. He was convicted of murder largely upon the testimony of his estranged wife, who was allowed to testify over our objection. The case is significant because in interpreting our statute on first impression, the Supreme Court (and of course the trial judge) ruled that the privilege belonged to the testifying spouse, not the one testified against.

20. List up to five civil appeals you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision, and the citation if the case was reported. If you are a candidate for an appellate court judgeship (please attach one copy of briefs filed by you in each matter

I do not have access to the briefs in these cases owing to age or to physical separation from the repositories. I was the, or a principal counsel in each case.

- (a) Funderburk v. Funderburk, 281 S.C. 246, 315 SE2d 126, (Ct. App 1984); quashed by SC Supreme Court after grant of certiorari. 286 S.C. 129, 332 SE2d 205 (1985);

- (b) Hamm v. Southern Bell, 305 S.C. 1, 406 SE2d 157 (1991). Note: This is not the case referred to in 17(a) above;

- (c) Peoples Federal Savings and Loan Association v. Myrtle Beach Retirement Group, Inc. et al., 300 S.C. 277, 287 SE2d 672 (1989);

- (d) Dale v. SC Tax Commission, et al., 276 S.C. 110, 276 SE2d 293 (1981). I appeared on behalf of Richland County, another party to the suit;

- (e) Truett v. Georgeson, ___ S.C. ___, 258 SE2d 499 (1979).

21. List up to five criminal appeals that you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision and the citation if the case was reported. If you are a candidate for an appellate court judgeship (please attach one copy of briefs filed by you in each matter). *

- (a) State v. Monroe, 262 S.C. 346, 204 SE2d 433, (1974);
- (b) State v. Thomas, 264 S.C. 159, 213 SE2d 452 (1975);
- (c) State v. Motes, 264 S.C. 317, 215 SE2d 190 (1975);
- (d) State v. Sweet, 270 S.C. 97, 240 SE2d 648 (1978);
- (e) State v. Watson, 81-MO-232, S.C. Supreme Ct (1981); cert denied 454 US 1148, 71 L.Ed.2d 301 (1982).

* Owing to the age of these files and the fact of several intervening moves, I do not have access to the briefs. I will endeavor to find them and supplement this response. I was chief or sole counsel in each of these cases.

22. Have you ever held judicial office?
- (a) March 2000 - Present: Associate Justice, Supreme Court of SC. Elected by the General Assembly of SC. Appellate Jurisdiction, state court of last resort;
 - (b) July 1991 - March 2000: Circuit Court Judge, Fifth Judicial Circuit of SC. Elected by the General Assembly of SC. General civil and criminal jurisdiction;
 - (c) March 1982 - September 1988: Municipal Judge, City of Columbia, SC. Criminal jurisdiction only up to a maximum of 30 days in jail, or a $200 fine.
23. If the answer to question 22 is yes, describe or list five of your most significant orders or opinions and give the citations if they were reported. Also list citations to any appellate review of these orders or opinions.
- (a) Colleton Prep Academy, Inc. v. Hoover, Universal, Inc., 379 S.C. 181, 666 SE2d (2008)
I wrote a dissent in this case explicating the “economic loss rule”. The significance is that the dissent was subsequently adopted as the majority opinion in Sapp v. Ford Motor Co., 386 S.C. 143, 687 SC2d 47 (2009);
 - (b) Arthurs rel. Estate of Munn v. Aiken County, 346 S.C. 97, 551 SE2d 579 (2001)
Articulation of the “public duty rule” in SC;
 - (c) State v. Downs, 361 S.C. 141, 604 SE2d 377 (2004)
Affirming death penalty holding no deprivation of right to jury on sentencing following entry of an unconditional guilty plea. Case involved interpretation of Ring v. Arizona, 536 U.S. 584, 122 S. Ct. 2428, 153 L.Ed.2d 556 (2002);
 - (d) Sweetser v. SC Department of Insurance Reserve Fund, 390 S.C. 632, 703 SE2d 509 (2010)
Case involved the efficacy of policy language regarding offset of worker’s compensation benefits against UIM coverage;
 - (e) State v. Jones, 343, S.C. 562, 541 SE2d 813 (2001)
Portion of opinion regarding the admissibility of scientific evidence.
24. Have you ever held public office other than judicial office? No.
25. List all employment you had while serving as a judge (whether full-time or part-time, contractual or at will, consulting or otherwise) other than elected judicial office. Specify your dates of employment, employer, major job responsibilities, and supervisor.
- Officer (Colonel), United States Army reserve, 1973 - 1999. Beginning in August 1993, I served as Emergency Preparedness Liaison Officer from 1st United States Army to the SC National Guard and militia in SC. Prior to that I was Commander of the 12th Military Law Center. The commanders of 1st Army and of the 120th ARCOM were my supervisors.

All duties were military in nature.

26. Have you ever been an unsuccessful candidate for elective, judicial, or other public office?
1982 primary election for Richland County Council. 1994 and 1995 campaigns for Supreme Court.
27. Have you ever been engaged in any occupation, business, or profession other than the practice of law, teaching of law, or holding judicial or other public office?
None, other than military service since college graduation.
28. Are you now an officer or director or involved in the management of any business enterprise? No.
29. A complete, current financial net worth statement was provided to the Commission.
30. Describe any financial arrangements or business relationships you have, or have had in the past, that could constitute or result in a possible conflict of interest in the position you seek. Explain how you would resolve any potential conflict of interest.
Through 1993 I received payments from my former law firm for services performed prior to leaving. I reported these payments. I recused myself on all cases involving this law firm while I still owned a building with its members. I sold my interest in the building in August of 2009. I continue to recuse on any case involving my former law partners in which they were involved prior to August 2009.
31. Have you ever been arrested, charged, or held by federal, state, or other law enforcement authorities for violation or for suspicion of violation of any federal law or regulation, state law or regulation, or county or municipal law, regulation, or ordinance, or any other law, including another country's law? No.
32. Have you, to your knowledge, ever been under federal, state, or local investigation for possible violation of a criminal statute? No.
33. Has a tax lien or other collection procedure ever been instituted against you by federal, state, or local authorities? Have you ever defaulted on a student loan? Have you ever filed for bankruptcy? No.
34. Have you ever been sued, either personally or professionally, that is, have you ever been named as defendant or respondent in any court of law?
- (a) C. W. Haynes v. Powers, et al. 88-CP-40-4427
As a member of my law firm, we obtained a judgment against a person whose mortgage was subsequently foreclosed. As judgment creditors, we were necessary parties to the foreclosure.
- (b) Anthony Eubanks v. Judge Pleicones, et al. c/a No. 3: 94-1531-17BD
I had no idea this lawsuit existed until I was served with a copy of the order dismissing it. Apparently, a defendant in a criminal case protested my order to give hair samples and bodily fluids. The case was dismissed.
- (c) I learned during my 2000 judicial race that a lawyer named David Butler had filed a complaint in Lexington County against me and my law firm. Since the complaint was never served, the action was never commenced according to law, and I never knew it existed until JMSC staff pointed it out to me. This must have occurred at sometime around 1989-1990, as I had briefly represented Mr. Butler's wife in her domestic relationship with Mr. Butler, who is now deceased. It is an ethical violation to file but not serve a complaint. I assume the complaint was long ago stricken.
- (d) Dell Carter v. William Walter Thompson, Associate Solicitor, Costa Pleicones, Associate Justice, and Joseph Derham Cole, Circuit Judge, US District Court

(Columbia) #3:04-CV-00772-TLW.

Suit by a prisoner that was dismissed without service of process on 04/13/2004. I obviously never knew this case existed until the SLED report in my last judicial race.

(e) William C. Reed v. Supreme Court of SC, #7:01-CV-00724-HMH

Suit by a pro se defendant against all members of the Supreme Court. Dismissed without service of process on 04/17/2001. Same as (d) above.

(f) James Benton v. Pleicones, et al., #2:99-CV-02437-CMC

Prisoner suit filed against me as circuit judge, the solicitor, the court reporter, the defense attorney, all officers and witnesses at his trial. Dismissed without service of process on 09/02/1999. Same as (d) and (e) above.

There may be other such cases as (d), (e), and (f) above but I have never been served with any lawsuits.

36. Have you ever been investigated by the Department of Social Services? Has your name ever been enrolled on the Central Registry of Child Abuse and Neglect? No

37. If you are in private practice, are you covered by malpractice insurance and, if so, how long have you carried malpractice insurance? N/A

38. Are you active on or a member of a social media or Internet site or have you, to your knowledge, been featured or depicted on a social media or Internet site, such as, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, etc.? No

I will appear on a panel at the SCDTAA meeting in late July. They employ a lobbyist. I will also attend the SCAJ convention in early August. I believe they may employ a lobbyist. Food and lodging are provided by these associations, and are specifically permitted by rules governing judicial conduct.

41. S.C. Code § 8-13-700 provides, in part, that "[n]o public official, public member, or public employee may knowingly use his official office, membership, or employment to obtain an economic interest for himself, a member of his immediate family, an individual with whom he is associated, or a business with which he is associated." 48. Have you or has anyone acting on your behalf contacted members of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission about your candidacy or intention to become a candidate?
I wrote a general letter announcing my intention to seek this position to all members of the General Assembly on June 12, 2013. Since six members of the Commission are also members of the General Assembly, the answer to this question must be "yes." Also, the letters of recommendation required by this application are addressed to the Chair of the Commission. Other than these contacts, the answer is "No."
49. List all bar associations and professional organizations of which you are a member and give the titles and dates of any offices you have held in such groups.

or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek.

My parents were the best people I ever knew. Our family finances were modest, but my parents stressed respect, hard work, and the importance of education. I took those lessons to heart and have always sought to treat everyone with dignity and respect. I work hard and take my position, but not myself - very seriously. I believe I am a very good judge.
