

AMENDMENT TO PDQ
FALL 2015 SCREENING

Supreme Court, Seat 2

I am writing to supplement my response to Question 35 on the PDQ I previously submitted to the Judicial Merit Selection Commission in relation to the Fall 2015 screening for Seat 2 on the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

On November 25, 2015, I received notice that Ms. Glenda R. Couram, a self-represented litigant who appeared before a panel on which I sat at the South Carolina Court of Appeals in 2014, filed a lawsuit against me and the other two members of the panel regarding her case before us. In addition to suing the three appellate judges on our panel, Ms. Couram sued all parties and attorneys involved in the litigation, the trial judges who heard her case, and the Office of Disciplinary Counsel. Ms. Couram alleged nine causes of action in her complaint relating to the case before our panel.
