Darryl Parnell, et al, v. Lewis Realty, LLC, v. Delton Wright Powers, Jr., et al, v. Lewis Realty of Chesterfield County, LLC, et al

My wife and I were named in a cross-claim by a Defendant realtor who was being sued for misrepresentation in the sale of a house we once owned. We counterclaimed against the realtor, and the claim against us was dismissed. The realtor settled with the homeowner. In return, we dismissed our counterclaim.

Deborah Brown v Delton Powers, Jr., as Personal Representative of David Redfearn

In this case, I was appointed Personal Representative so that a civil suit could be brought concerning an accident. I would have done so at the behest of the Court or the attorneys. The matter was obviously settled in that an Order of Dismissal was entered on March 27, 1992. I have no recollection of the matter, and have no file available from that far back.

1993-CP-40-0100

David H. Lucas v. South Carolina Coastal Council, et al

I was named as a party Defendant in that I served on the South Carolina Coastal Council at the time and all members were named personally in the lawsuit. The State settled the case at some point, but there was no personal liability for me or any member of the board.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT MY ANSWERS ARE TRUE AND COMPLETE TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE.
