Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Family Court Judge within the past five years. I am not a candidate for Family Court.
- (b) If you are a candidate for Circuit Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience in criminal matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Further, please provide a brief written description of your experience in civil matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the types of matters handled, issues involved, and procedural history. Please include information such as the primary areas in civil court in which you practice, whether you represent plaintiffs or defendants, or both. You may go back further than five years if you feel it would assist the Commission with its assessment of your experience. If you lack experience in an area, describe how your background and procedural knowledge has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Circuit Court Judge, or how you would compensate for your lack of experience in this area. Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Circuit Court Judge within the past five years.

I began my career as a Public Defender. I personally carried a case load of well over 200 active cases at a time. I was first chair on seven jury trials while a public defender including but not limited to:

State v. Joseph Alston – CDVHAN – In this case, the client did not show up for court and we were forced to go forward with a trial in absentia. We presented our case and the jury returned a not guilty verdict.

State v. Lapatrick Gibson – Burg 1st and Escape – We argued and were successful in getting an acquittal on the Burglary 1st Charge.

As a lawyer in private practice, I have handled many criminal cases from Magistrate DUI cases to Murder cases in General Sessions. I have been hired on numerous occasions by other firms to help as a “trial lawyer” because of my depth of experience in the field. One such case was State v. Ethan Mack. This was a high profile case documented by NBC's Dateline. I helped work and prepare the case for months, cross examined key witnesses and provided the closing arguments which led to a hung jury on the murder charge. I was also first chair in State v. Jerome Campbell which was a murder case. It eventually ended in a guilty verdict.

In private practice I have also handled many civil cases. I was first chair on a bench trial in Greenwood (Atkins v. Hooker). The case was heard in front of The Honorable Frank Addy Jr., and the plaintiff was awarded $342000.

Our firm is also handling numerous cases in the Virgin Islands dealing with asbestos and the Hess Oil Refinery (now known as Hovensa).

I am also currently co-counsel on more than a dozen personal injury cases ranging from car accidents to premise liability cases.

- (c) If you are a candidate for Master-In-Equity, please provide a brief written description of your experience in the Master's court, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Please include the frequency of your appearances before a Master-In-Equity or a Circuit Court Judge within the past five years.
 - (d) If you are a candidate for Administrative Law Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience before an Administrative Law Judge, including any issues discussed and the frequency of your appearances before the Administrative Law or Circuit Court within the past five years.
12. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench?
- (a) federal: 5 cases a year
 - (b) state: Approximately 8 General Session and 50 magistrate level cases per year.
13. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, domestic, and other matters during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench?
- (a) civil: 30%
 - (b) criminal: 65%
 - (c) domestic:
 - (d) other: 5% (trademark, wills, etc)
14. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?

 - (b) non-jury: 85%

Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters? Chief Counsel

15. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.
 - (a) Atkins v. Hooker – Greenwood, SC. Twenty-nine plaintiffs sued a developer who purchased the golf course that was part of their community. . The developer used the money for personal expenses and to pay off personal debt. I successfully argued that his actions were intentional and beyond simply reckless. Judge Addy ruled in our favor and awarded over $340000 plus costs. This was significant because it was a non-jury trial in Circuit Court. It was my first trial in Common Pleas court as the Chief Counsel.
 - (b) State v. Ethan Mack – Charleston, SC. Client charged with Murder, forgery, and obstruction of justice. The case was filmed by Dateline and I provided a forty-five minute closing argument that most who attended the trial say led to a hung jury on the murder charge.
 - (c) United State v. Elizabeth Donnelly – US District Court – Charleston Division. Successfully argued that my client not only had mental health issues that would excuse some culpability, but she was truly unaware of the criminal conspiracy. This was significant because she was facing a mandatory minimum sentence for her role in a conspiracy to defraud federally financed institutions as part of a car title scam. I provided The Honorable Judge Gergel with psychiatric evaluations and testimony to show she was not a “willing” participant in the conspiracy. She was offered treatment and has become a much more successful member of society.

56. Are you active on or a member of a social media or Internet site or have you, to your knowledge, been featured or depicted on a social media or Internet site, such as, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, etc.? If so, how would your use of social media or other similar types of Internet sites be affected if you were serving in a judicial capacity?

I have a Facebook personal and business account. The business account would be shut down, and the personal would be terminated or set to fully private if I were elected and serving in a judicial capacity. My Instagram account is shared with family and friends as a vehicle to share family photos. It is set to private and would not be affected by serving in a judicial capacity. I previously had a Twitter and LinkedIn account, but both were used for driving business and neither has been used actively for years. I contacted Twitter about closing the account, but it is tied to an email address I no longer own. It will hopefully be shut down shortly.

58. Provide any other information that may reflect positively or negatively on your candidacy, or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek. This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

I attended law school after living in Los Angeles, CA for almost six years. I was in sales and became a very good outside salesperson. Spending time in a profession other than law, especially in an “eat what you kill” sales environment, taught me the meaning of hard work and perseverance. Spending time out of my comfort zone in a city as large as Los Angeles also taught me the importance of patience and understanding. Living with 12.5 million people of all occupations, lifestyles, and cultures taught me to understand and have empathy with people who may have a different view than I do. Being a judge requires patience, understanding and empathy at times. Interfacing with thousands of different people and navigating the business world in the second largest city in the United States taught me a lot about those important factors.
