Describe the general character of your practice and divide it into periods with dates if its character has changed over the years. Please also describe the extent to which you were involved with the administrative and financial management of each of these entities, including management of trust accounts.

- (a) 1988 until 1992 – Coleman, Sawyer, Breibart, & McCauley. I began working as a law clerk during law school for this firm and joined as an associate after graduation. Our firm had offices in Saluda, SC and Lexington, SC. This was a litigation intensive firm where my practice was devoted to approximately 75% domestic / family court matters (including all aspects of divorce, child custody, visitation, child support, alimony, equitable division) 20% civil litigation (including personal injury), and 5% criminal defense (including juvenile matters). This firm dissolved its association when C. David Sawyer was elected to the Family Court bench in 1992.
- (b) 1992 until December, 2003 – Breibart & McCauley, P.A. (subsequently Breibart, McCauley & Newton, P.A.). My practice remained essentially as described above divided between domestic / family court (approximately 75%), civil litigation (20%), and criminal defense (5%). I assisted in managing and maintaining the firm trust account related to my files. I left this firm and it was dissolved in December of 2003.
- (c) January, 2004 until June, 2012 - The Dooley Law Firm, P.A. This firm was comprised of 3 other attorneys upon my departure. My practice remained devoted to the areas as described above until approximately 2009 when I began to cultivate a practice limited to Family Court Mediation and Arbitration. At the time of my departure to become a Family Court Judge my practice was almost exclusively devoted to Family Court Mediation and Arbitration which I conducted statewide. I managed and maintained my individual trust account as well as assisting in managing the firm operating account as a shareholder.
- (d) July, 2012 until the present time - I am currently honored to serve as a Family Court Judge for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Seat 3, and have served continuously since my election in 2012.

Justices/judges applying for re-election to their current position may omit Questions 11–17. If you are a judge seeking a judgeship different than your current position, Questions 11-17 should be answered based on your experience prior to serving on the bench.

18. Have you ever held judicial office? If so, list the periods of your service, the courts involved, and whether you were elected or appointed. Describe the jurisdiction of each of the courts and note any limitations on the jurisdiction of each court.

(a) Yes. I was elected by the General Assembly of South Carolina to serve as Family Court Judge for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Seat 3, in May, 2012, and have served continuously since that time. The Family Court generally has exclusive jurisdiction over all matters involving domestic or family relationships to include validity of marriages, divorce, child custody, visitation rights, termination of parental rights, adoption, child support, alimony, equitable division of marital property, and change of name. Family Court has jurisdiction over child abuse and neglect proceedings as well as over issues involving vulnerable adults. The court also generally has exclusive jurisdiction over children under the age of seventeen alleged to have committed any criminal offense.

19. If the answer to question 18 is yes, describe or list five of your most significant orders or opinions and give the citations if they were reported. Also list citations to any appellate review of these orders or opinions.

- (a) In the Interest of Kevin R., 409 S.C. 297, 762 S.E.2d 387 (2014). This case involved a juvenile trial for the charge of carrying a weapon on school grounds. At the call of the case, the juvenile made a motion for a jury trial which I denied. Ultimately, the decision was affirmed on appeal by the Supreme Court in the above cited opinion. While the case is significant for the legal issues addressed in the opinion, it will always be significant for me because it was the very first full trial before me as a Family Court Judge as the case was tried on only my second day of serving on the bench alone.
- (b) S.C.D.S.S. v. Montiel, et. al., Op. No. 2017-UP-132 (S.C. Ct. App. March 24, 2017). This was a complex termination of parental rights action (TPR) that was tried before me over the span of two days wherein SCDSS sought to terminate the parental rights of both the mother and the father. Both parents appealed the ruling. Mother's appeal was summarily dismissed and father's appeal resulted in the above cited unpublished opinion affirming the decision at trial. The mother had a total of 13 children that were the subject of this action. The father was the father of three of the thirteen children at issue in this case. Father required an interpreter at trial, as he was unable to speak and understand English. Therefore, this was a complicated trial with numerous parties and legal issues as well as the logistical issues of the language barrier. Ultimately, the ruling for TPR was affirmed.
- (c) In the Interest of Miguel E., Op. No. 2018-UP-47 (S.C. Ct. App. January 3, 2018). This case involved a one day trial regarding the request to place the juvenile on the sex offender registry. The trial involved various constitutional arguments regarding the registry as well as expert witness testimony.
- (d) 2015-DR-32-525X - This case was tried over the span of four days in 2015. It involved an action by the biological mother to revoke a consent / relinquishment for adoption that she had executed and the adoptive couple's effort to seek termination of parental rights and adoption of a child that had been in their care since birth. It was an emotional trial for all the litigants involved. Mother was represented by four attorneys and the adoptive couple was represented by two. There was also an attorney guardian ad litem. The case involved many legal arguments regarding the validity of a consent and relinquishment as well as various constitutional arguments regarding right to counsel. In addition, there were issues raised involving the Indian Child Welfare Act.

- (e) 2014-DR-40-3505 - This was a vigorously contested divorce action tried over the course of 3 days in 2016 involving well prepared, experienced attorneys representing both parties. The case involved allegations of adultery. Significantly, it also involved an extensive marital estate with contested issues as to the character (marital vs. non-marital) of both property and debt as well as issues of transmutation. Issues regarding claims for attorney's fees were also contested.

* In listing the above cases in response to this question, I feel compelled to note that having been honored to serve as a Family Court Judge for six years, I am keenly aware of the fact that every single case that has and will come before me is "significant" to the litigants it affects. My choice of these cases is due to their significance to me due to the legal issues they addressed and what I was able to learn from them to help me improve as a judge.

- 20. List all courts in which you have been admitted to practice and list the dates of your admission. Give the same information for administrative bodies that require a special admission to practice.

- (a) South Carolina Bar - May 17, 1989
- (b) United States District Court - September 5, 1989
- (c) Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals - December 29, 1989

- 21. Have you taught law-related courses or lectured at bar association conferences, educational institutions, or continuing legal or judicial education programs? If so, briefly describe each course or lecture.

- (a) I have presented at the Orientation School for New Family Court Judges on the topic of DSS Abuse/Neglect cases on June 3, 2015; June 1, 2016; May 3, 2017; and May 16, 2018.
- (b) I participated as a presenter at the Lexington County Bar Association Judicial Panel CLE on April 16, 2012 and September 28, 2016.
- (c) I have presented at the Lexington County Volunteer Juvenile Arbitrator Training Program in September of 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2017.
- (d) Over the past several years, I have regularly presided over numerous ceremonies which included giving a speech and swearing in of new guardian ad litem for the Lexington Guardian ad Litem Program. Thus far, I have administered the oath to over 88 volunteers who have offered to serve as guardian ad litem in DSS abuse/neglect actions.
- (e) I served as moderator / presenter as an attorney with a panel of Family Court Judges at the Family Court Bench / Bar CLE in December, 2011, on the topic of "How to settle cases in today's economy".

(f) I served as a panel member for a presentation at the Family Court Bench / Bar CLE in December, 2008, on the topic of “Blended Mediation and Arbitration in Family Court”.

58. Provide any other information that may reflect positively or negatively on your candidacy, or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek. This information may include how your life experiences have affected or influenced the kind or type of judge you have been or plan to be.

This December will mark the 30th year since my graduation from law school. Since that time I have spent the majority of my professional life involved in the Family Courts of South Carolina. I began as a lawyer who practiced in Family Court and have been honored over the past six years to serve as a Family Court Judge. I would humbly submit that my experiences as a husband for 32 years, a lawyer for almost 30 years, a father for 22 years, and now a Family Court Judge for 6 years, have all combined to make me very qualified to continue in this position.

I would respectfully submit that I am even more qualified now than I was when I was previously found "Qualified and Nominated" for the Family Court Bench in 2012 since I have approached being a Family Court Judge much the same way as I approached the practice of law. I work each day to be a better Judge than I was the day before. I carry with me every day the belief that the Family Court is one of the most important courts in the State, since we affect the lives of so many people often at what is some of the most difficult and emotional times in the lives of their families. As a result, I work to treat every case as the most important case I will hear that day because to the litigants involved, it is the most important case.

I believe all these experiences give me a necessary perspective, temperament, and demeanor well suited for this position and I truly hope that I will be privileged to continue to serve the citizens of the State of South Carolina as a Family Court Judge.

YOUR SIGNATURE WILL BE HELD TO CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF ANY PROCEEDING BEFORE A GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE OR ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING YOUR CREDIT.
