

Session 109 - (1991-1992)

H*3967 (Rat #0250, Act #0251 of 1991) General Bill, By Wilkins

A Bill to provide that, beginning in 1992, the Board of Trustees of the Greenville County School District may increase the tax millage levied for the operation of the district by not more than two mills in any one year and by not more than a total of three mills in any two-year period; to provide that when the district under the Education Finance Act is considered to be providing one hundred percent of the local effort required, no millage increases may thereafter be imposed while such circumstances exist; to provide that for any tax millage to be levied above the limits contained in this Act, the qualified electors of the district must approve the excess in a referendum called by the Board and to provide for the referendum, including its costs; to authorize the Board to levy for the general operation of the district in any year a tax millage not exceeding eighty-nine mills and provide that this limit does not apply to increases approved by the Board pursuant to other provisions of this Act; and to require that an independent auditor periodically conduct fiscal and management audits of the district at the district's expense and to require that a copy of the audit be forwarded to the Greenville County legislative delegation.-amended title
