

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Personnel—"The Governor and Lieutenant Governor, the Secretary of State, the State Treasurer, the Attorney General and the Solicitors, the Comptroller General, the State Superintendent of Education, the Commissioner of Agriculture, and the Director of the Department of Insurance" (1976 Code, Sec. 1-1-110).

Terms of Office—"All terms 4 years. Under Constitution, Governor eligible to be elected to two successive terms." Art. IV, Secs. 3, 4.

Vacancies—In case of vacancy in the office of Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Comptroller General, or Attorney General the vacancy shall be filled by election by the General Assembly, unless they occur during legislative recess, when the Governor shall fill by appointment until election at next session.—1976 Code, Sec. 1-1-120.

In case of vacancy in the office of Solicitor, State Superintendent of Education, the Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Director of Department of Insurance the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the Governor.—1976 Code, Secs. 1-1-110 and 1-3-220.

GOVERNOR

Henry D. McMaster

(for biography and picture see p. 15)

Chief Magistrate of the State with "supreme executive authority" (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Sec. 1). Serves as the Commander-in-Chief of the organized and unorganized militia of the State (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Sec. 13). The Governor shall serve a term of 4 years, with installation on the first Wednesday following the second Tuesday in January after the election (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Sec. 4; S.C. Code Ann. Sec. 1-3-110). The Governor serves as ex officio member of various state boards and commissions. If the office of the Governor is vacant for any reason, it shall be filled by the Lieutenant Governor for the remainder of the term (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Secs. 6, 11; S.C. Code Ann. Sec. 1-3-130).

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Pamela Evette (for biography and picture see p. 18)

The Lieutenant Governor is elected jointly with the Governor as a single vote on the ballot (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Secs. 8A, 8C). The Lieutenant Governor shall continue in office for the same time period as the Governor—4 years (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Sec. 8A). Installation of the Lieutenant Governor shall occur on the first Wednesday following the second Tuesday in January after the election (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Sec. 8A; S.C. Code of Ann. Sec. 1-3-110). The Lieutenant Governor serves in a part-time position (S.C. Code Ann. Sec. 1-3-620). In the event the Lieutenant Governor is removed from office, or the office becomes vacant for any reason, the Governor shall appoint, with advice and consent of the Senate, a successor to serve as Lieutenant Governor until the next election (S.C. Const. Art. IV, Sec. 11; S.C. Code Ann. Sec. 1-3-125).

STATE TREASURER

1200 Senate St., Suite 214

Columbia 29201, Tel. (803) 734-2101

The State Treasurer is the “private banker” for South Carolina. He is responsible for the investment, cash management, and safekeeping of more than $65 Billion in public funds, including the State’s general and restricted funds. The State Treasurer coordinates banking relationships for the State; issues state debt including the payment of and principal and interest on outstanding debt issues; communicates with bonding rating services; and is administrator for the South Carolina Unclaimed Property Program; the South Carolina Tuition Prepayment Program; Future Scholar, South Carolina’s 529 College Savings Plan; and the Palmetto ABLE Savings Program.

The Treasurer is Vice Chairman of the State Fiscal Accountability Authority. The Authority is at the core of South Carolina’s State Government, handling functions such as State Procurement, State Insurance Programs, Budget Office, and State Auditor’s Office. The Authority members also approve the actuary of the Public Employee Benefit Authority.

The Treasurer is the Chairman of the State Board of Financial Institutions, which supervises State-chartered banks, credit unions, and savings and loans through the Banking Division, and supervises mortgage originators and lenders, finance companies, payday lenders, and title lenders through its Consumer Finance Division.

The Treasurer serves as the Vice Chairman of the South Carolina Tobacco Authority, which administers the tobacco settlement funds, and Vice Chairman of the South Carolina Education Authority. In both roles, he acts as the custodian of the Authorities’ funds.

The Treasurer also appoints a member of the South Carolina Retirement System Investment Commission, which manages the System's $40 Billion investment pool.
