AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

By the adoption of Article V of the South Carolina Constitution, the people of South Carolina have established the South Carolina Judicial Department (SCJD) as one of the three co-equal branches of the State Government. The Chief Justice serves as the administrative head of the SCJD. Through administrative orders, court rules, and other directives, the Chief Justice and the Supreme Court of South Carolina provide guidance for the operation of the statewide, unified judicial system, and various boards and commissions that have been established by the Supreme Court. The organizational structure of the SCJD can be categorized into two areas: (1) adjudication and (2) administration. Directly or indirectly, the lives of all South Carolina citizens are affected by the decisions of the trial courts and the appellate courts. These courts make decisions that could involve local zoning, taxation, interpretation of state statutes, or other matters that may significantly affect the public.

SCJD continues to maintain its standards for effective and efficient administration even though the department has limited resources and budgetary constraints each year. The SCJD continues to implement new innovations that further improve services to the public while increasing efficiencies of internal operations. By optimizing resources and utilizing technology, the SCJD can reach its goals and achieve its mission of providing fair, independent and accessible forums for the just and timely resolution of legal disputes for the citizens of South Carolina.
