Fiscal Year 2018–2019 Accountability Report

SUBMISSION FORM

University of South Carolina Upstate aims to become one of the Southeast's leading "metropolitan" universities ... a university that acknowledges as its fundamental reason for being its relationship to expanding populations along the I-85 corridor. It aims to be recognized nationally among its peer institutions for its excellence in education and commitment to its students, for its involvement in the Upstate, and for the clarity and integrity of its mission.

As a senior public institution of the University of South Carolina with a comprehensive residential campus in Spartanburg and commuting and degree completion operations at the University Center Greenville, the University's primary responsibilities are to offer baccalaureate education to the citizens of the Upstate of South Carolina and to offer selected master's degrees in response to regional demand.

AGENCY MISSION

USC Upstate strives to prepare its students to participate as responsible citizens in a diverse, global and knowledge-based society, to pursue excellence in their chosen careers and to continue learning throughout life. Curricula and services are designed for the University's students, four to seven thousand in headcount, who are diverse in background, age, race, ethnicity, educational experience and academic goals. Students are drawn in large proportion from the Upstate where many choose to remain for their careers. A broad range of major curricula are provided in arts and sciences and in professional fields of study required by the regional economy, including business, education, and nursing. Through on-site instruction, distance learning, continuing education and inter-institutional articulation agreements, both traditional students and working professionals are served across the region.

Consistent with the international character of the Upstate, the University promotes global perspectives across its programs. Supporting the regional employment objectives of most of its students, it provides extensive experiential learning opportunities.

The university's mission rests upon a foundation of partnerships with the education, corporate and service organizations of the Upstate. The faculty provides leadership in promoting the Upstate's economic, social and cultural development. This is achieved through its teaching, professional and public service, basic and applied scholarship and research, and creative endeavors.

The University's core values not only serve as the philosophical underpinnings of the institution's mission, but they serve to govern attitudes, behaviors, and decisions in daily activities among stakeholders. As such, the University of South Carolina Upstate affirms that...

PEOPLE come first. We are committed to creating an inclusive environment wherein we respect our differences as we pursue our common academic purposes. Our employees, students, parents and partners are the University's most valuable assets. We aim to work hard, work smart and always do the right thing. We cooperate and collaborate with colleagues and constituents, aiming to be responsive, flexible, accessible and friendly in our service. We strive to be goodwill ambassadors for the University, and to advance its reputation and its metropolitan mission.

AGENCY VISION

STEWARDSHIP of resources is critical to accomplishing the University's mission. We understand the importance of evaluating and reflecting on our daily activities in order to gain the highest value in return for the University's and our own professional investments. As employees, we aim to apply principles of honesty and fiscal responsibility in order to conserve student, partner, and University resources as though they were our own.

INTEGRITY as an academic institution drives our daily activities. That integrity includes a passion for teaching and learning, and a belief that every employee and student has a right to learn and progress as far as he or she is able. We seek, therefore, to provide a distinctive learning environment that supports and encourages employee growth and personal and professional development.

AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

As USC Upstate enters its third year of Chancellor Brendan Kelly's leadership, there continues to be campuswide assessment of resources, processes and outcomes. These efforts are yielding positive changes and continual improvements that are benefiting students, faculty and staff, and the Upstate community.

The 2018-2023 Strategic Plan Up. Together focuses on the following three strategic priorities that create transformative opportunities:

- o Providing Rigorous, Career Relevant, and Accessible Education
- Enhancing the Quality of Life in Upstate South Carolina
- o Being the University of Choice for Faculty and Staff, Students, and the Community

As these priorities guide improvements at USC Upstate, we expect our trajectory to continue to be positive as evidenced by core metrics (e.g., increased enrollment, increased graduation rates) and other student success, academic excellence, community engagement, and institutional effectiveness metrics. In partnership with Studer Education, goals, measures and action steps are captured in University, Cabinet, and Dean scorecards. These scorecards cascade into unit-level continuous improvement blueprints across all divisions of the University. USC Upstate has clear relevance to the residents of the Upstate, and we are committed to providing the highest quality educational experience to advance the educational attainment rates of the region.

New and developing 2018-2019 initiatives at USC Upstate that are helping to realize our strategic priorities include the following:

Priority 1: Providing Rigorous, Career Relevant and Accessible Education

- A Research in Practice concentration for the M.Ed. in Applied Learning and Instruction was approved by CHE and implemented in fall 2019;
- The M.S. in Business Analytics program was approved by SACSCOC in spring 2019 and began admitting students in fall 2019;
- The B.S. in Community Health was approved by CHE in spring 2019 and is being reviewed for SACSCOC approval to begin implementation in spring 2020;
- SACSCOC completed a substantive change review and site visit resulting in approval of the B.A.S. in Advanced Manufacturing Management and approval of the BMW Training Center as an instructional site;
- SASCOC approved an agreement for dual bachelor degrees with University of Applied Sciences in Landshut Germany and faculty passed changes to the catalog to make it easier for all students completing a second bachelor's degree at USC Upstate;
- A new Center for African American Studies was created with Interim Director Dr. Warren Carson providing oversight while a search was conducted, resulting in the naming of Dr. Nicholas Gaffney as the first Director (Dr. Gaffney will start in January 2020);
- Starfish software was implemented to improve retention and student success through better outreach to students and advising supports;
- Dr. Jeannie Chapman was named Dean of the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences after serving as Interim Dean;
- Dr. Shirleatha Lee, Associate Dean of Academic Programs at the School of Nursing at the University of Memphis, agreed to become the next Dean of the Mary Black School of Nursing and began August 1st 2019;

AGENCY CODE:	H340	SECTION:	20C

Priority 2: Enhancing the Quality of Life in Upstate South Carolina

- The USC Upstate brand identity was refreshed so that the brand would more effectively and consistently communicate our vision of becoming one of the Southeast's leading comprehensive, public universities;
- The University engaged in Campus Master Planning with SmithGroup JJR who involved a variety of internal and external constituents throughout the process;
- The University completed an internal review of current progress toward meeting the Carnegie Classification for Community Engagement standards and formed a Core Team to develop a plan for meeting these standards by 2023;
- University Advancement partnered with Crawford Strategy in fall 2018 to get both qualitative and quantitative feedback from local and state stakeholders and influencers about their perceptions of USC Upstate in order to help develop strategies to better engage the community;
- University Advancement overhauled the web site to enhance USC Upstate's web presence and ease of use;
- Faculty developed a University definition of Public Scholarship and unit criteria were revised to reflect the importance of public scholarship at USC Upstate.

Priority 3: Being the University of Choice for Faculty and Staff, Students, and the Community

- A new Center for Academic Innovation and Faculty Support was created and Dr. Celena Kusch, Professor of English and past chair of Languages, Literature and Composition was selected as the Executive Director this is a newly formed structured designed to encourage faculty innovation by integrating existing services supporting teaching and learning under one umbrella, as well as by filling gaps in resources for faculty, including professional and academic leadership development;
- Renovations began at the library including movable shelving, new furniture and flooring, a digital/media classroom/lab, a 24/7 lab accessible via swipe with USC Upstate ID, and a Starbucks coffee shop/bistro (further renovations continuing in 2019-2020);
- Mental Health First Aid Training and Civil Treatment for Leaders Training was implemented across the University;
- The University continued work with Studer Education to build out the infrastructure needed to ensure progress on strategic priorities including creating Cabinet-level and Dean-level scorecards and unit blueprints; assessing Employee Engagement and Support Services across the University, and expanding Leadership Development Institutes;
- A review of salary compensation to market fairness was implemented resulting in equity adjustments;
- The first annual Faculty Awards Reception and Ceremony was held in April at USC Upstate, where faculty awards for teaching and advising, scholarship, and service were presented;
- Fall and spring faculty professional development days were held with outside experts facilitating workshops on public scholarship and student mindset.
